

THE FACULTY

OF GRAND RAPIDS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

BYARD J. BENNETT, PH.D.

Professor of Historical and Philosophical Theology

Degrees: B.A., Duke University; M.Div., Duke Divinity School; Ph.D. University of Toronto.

Career Path: Alpha Ministries, 1997-1999; Adjunct Faculty, Tyndale College & Seminary, 1999-2002; Faculty, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 2002–present.

Research Interests: Early Christian understandings of evil and suffering; the psychology of temptation; the role played by the emotions in the Christian life.

Personal: Dr. Bennett and his wife Shalini have three school-aged children.

Quotable: “GRTS’ offerings in historical theology have a depth and academic quality that can be matched by few evangelical seminaries. Our M.A. program explores the connections between the history of doctrine and the history of spirituality, examining how various understandings of doctrine and spirituality have combined to shape the Church’s pastoral practice.”

E-mail: Byard.Bennett@cornerstone.edu

TIMOTHY G. GOMBIS, PH.D.

Associate Professor of New Testament

Degrees: B.S., Liberty University; M.Div., Th.M., The Master’s Seminary; Ph.D., University of St. Andrews.

Career Path: Faculty, Cedarville University, 2004-2011; Grand Rapids Theological Seminary 2011-present.

Research Interests: Pauline theology; encounters between biblical theology and contemporary culture and politics.

Personal: Dr. Gombis and his wife, Sarah, have three children, Madeline, Jacob, and Riley. He enjoys golf, baseball, and ancient Greek and Roman history.

Quotable: “I love being challenged to dig deeply into the biblical text to explore fresh ways for the Spirit to transform the church of Jesus Christ for the good of the world and the glory of God. I’m thrilled that GRTS envisions theological education as combining these elements into this unified task.”

E-mail: Timothy.Gombis@cornerstone.edu

JONATHAN S. GREER, PH.D.

Assistant Professor of Old Testament

Degrees: B.A., Messiah College; M.A., Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary; M.A., Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary; Ph.D., The Pennsylvania State University.

Career Path: Faculty, Theological College of Zimbabwe, 2003-2004; Instructor, The Pennsylvania State University 2009-2010; Fellow, W. F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research, 2010-2011; Instructor, The University of Alabama at Birmingham, 2012; Instructor, Samford University and Beeson Divinity School, 2012; Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 2012-present.

Research Interests: Bible and archaeology; Latter Prophets; Israelite religion and history; Ancient Near Eastern languages and cultures.

Personal: Married with three children.

Quotable: It is a great privilege and pleasure to serve at a place that takes seriously the academic study of the Bible while maintaining a profound understanding of the transforming power of what is learned and a desire to impact the world for the glory of the Lord.

E-mail: Jonathan.Greer@cornerstone.edu

JEREMY G. GRINNELL, M.A., PH.D.

Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology

Degrees: B. A., Cedarville University; M. A., Grand Rapids Theological Seminary; Ph. D., Calvin Seminary.

Career Path: Christian Camping Administration, 1995-1997; Associate Pastorate, 1998-2000; Administration, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 2000-2002; Adjunct Faculty, Cornerstone University and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 2002-2009; Teaching Pastor, Bella Vista Church, 2010-Present; Visiting Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary 2010-Present.

Research Interests: Theological Anthropology and Sin. Mythopoeia and Theology, C. S. Lewis and the role of religious fiction in theological education, and how the 21st century desperately needs Aristotle.

Personal: Professor Grinnell and his wife Denise enjoy their four children--Kyria, Kristine, Kassandra, and new baby Asher.

Quotable: "A seminary exists to serve Christ's church. It's our raison d'être. As such we are interested neither in memorizing dogma nor propagating novelty. What do the scriptures say? What has the church taught over her lifetime? What does this voice say to our situation? Christ's church needs neither parrots nor peacocks. It needs owls."

E-mail: Jeremy.Grinnell@cornerstone.edu

JOHN W. HILBER, PH.D.

Professor of Old Testament

Degrees: B.S., University of Washington; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary; Ph.D., University of Cambridge.

Career Path: Pastor, 1985-2000. Faculty, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2004-2012; Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 2012-present.

Research Interests: The Old Testament in its ancient Near Eastern religious and literary context

Personal: John and his wife Charlotte have been married over 30 years and have an adult daughter. Originally from the Pacific Northwest, they enjoy outdoor recreation and travel.

Quotable: "I desire my students to encounter Christ through my love for them and engagement with his word, and to leave the classroom better equipped for effective service."

E-mail: John.Hilber@cornerstone.edu

ROBERT D. LEHMAN, PH.D., LPC

Professor of Counseling, Counseling Program Director

Degrees: B.A., Cornerstone University; M.Div., Grand Rapids Theological Seminary; M.A., University of Northern Iowa; Ph.D., University of Iowa.

Career Path: Pastoral, 1980-1996; Adjunct Faculty, London Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, London, Ontario, Canada, 1985-1996; Central Baptist Seminary, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, 1990, 1992; Seminairi Baptiste Evangelique Du Quebec, Montreal Quebec, 1993-present; Faculty, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 1996-present.

Research Interests: Biblical counseling

Personal: Dr. Lehman is married to Sarah, who serves as an administrative assistant at Cornerstone University. His hobbies include tennis, camping and canoeing.

E-mail: Robert.Lehman@cornerstone.edu

CATHERINE MUELLER-BELL, M.A., LPC

Associate Professor of Counseling

Degrees: B.S., Lesley College; M.A., Lesley College Graduate School; Ph.D. Program, Capella University.

Career Path: Counselor and Counselor Supervisor 1985-1995; Private Practice, 1995-2002; Faculty, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, 2002-present.

Research Interests: Women's studies; the cause and effect of child abuse and neglect; the impact of domestic abuse; the integration of theology and psychology; play therapy with children; Christ-centered parenting; biblical communication skills and conflict resolution; multicultural counseling.

Personal: Married for 27 years to Mark Bell, Cornerstone University men's soccer coach. They have two sons, Zachariah and Joshua. She enjoys long distance running, travel, hiking, biking, swimming, reading, gardening and visiting art museums and antique shops.

Quotable: "The counseling program at GRTS is the best that I have ever seen due to the balance of theology and counseling courses. The learning process involves a combination of exploring the subjective and objective aspects of counseling theory through the lens of the biblical narrative. Your seminary experience will also provide a unique opportunity to cultivate and enhance your own spiritual formation which is an essential part of preparing to serve others through the role of counselor."

E-mail: Catherine.Mueller-Bell@cornerstone.edu

PETER G. OSBORN, PH.D.

Associate Professor of Christian Ministries and Associate Dean of Online Programs

Degrees: B.S., Baptist Bible College; M.A., Grand Rapids Theological Seminary; Ph.D., Michigan State University

IDENTITY, MISSION & VISION

Who We Are... Cornerstone is a Christ-centered University with a passion for global influence through the transforming power of the Gospel.

Why We Exist... Cornerstone University exists to empower men and women to excel as influencers in our world for Christ by offering a student-focused learning community where Jesus Christ is central.

What We Aspire To... We aspire to create a thriving community of fully devoted followers of Jesus in a spiritually contagious, academically excellent, richly resourced and culturally diverse learning environment that attracts outstanding students, faculty and staff who influence our world for Christ, His Church and His Kingdom.

MISSION AND PURPOSE

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is a graduate school that prepares biblically and culturally informed ministry leaders for service through Christ's church.

The seminary exists to achieve the following six purposes:

1. To advance biblical, theological and ministry knowledge and skill.
2. To nurture theological, spiritual and leadership formation.
3. To encourage the development of critical thinking and worldview formation governed by biblical teaching.
4. To nurture a global ministry perspective.
5. To enhance the cultural relevance of ministry practice within the bounds of a distinctively Christian theological framework.
6. To encourage lifelong and collaborative learning.

CORE VALUES

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary enacts its mission on the basis of the following core values:

1. Biblical Worldview – We engage theological education from a high view of biblical authority, with appreciation for the flow of the biblical story, and with a commitment to exegete the whole Bible in its original languages.
2. Spiritual Transformation – We understand and pursue ongoing spiritual transformation as a communal redemptive process of growth in faith, a process fostered by knowledge of the Word of God and expressed in character development, ethical transformation and greater love for God and people.

3. Critical Thinking – We believe critical thinking requires a strong commitment to scholarship, engagement with diverse viewpoints, and appreciation for the tension of ideas associated with developmental process.
4. Christ's Church – We exist to serve Christ and His worldwide church as partners in the development of ministry leaders through a variety of formal and non-formal means.
5. Disciplinary Integration – We nurture skillful integration of the theological disciplines to foster holistic growth in theory and practice, while affirming the value of specialization in the theological disciplines.
6. Lifelong Collaborative Learning – We foster a disciplined approach to learn throughout one's lifetime and as a shared journey with others.
7. Cross-cultural Understanding – We affirm cross-cultural interdependence with the diverse cultures and perspectives of the world, and recognize the importance of cultural exegesis and sensitivity for effective ministry.
8. Diverse Community – We appreciate an academic community which includes men and women of diverse ethnic, socio-economic and Christian theological traditions.

GRTS MOTTO

The tagline or motto of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is "Learning, Serving, Leading." The motto provides insight concerning the identity, values and mission of GRTS and is worthy of further consideration.

Learning. Student learning is central to the mission, values, and overall culture of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Though a disciplined and rigorous learning environment, GRTS faculty members temper the challenge with grace and support. The core curriculum at GRTS is designed to enable students to conduct disciplined interpretation and application of the Bible, articulate a coherent understanding of Christian theology, and demonstrate basic knowledge, values and competencies associated with spiritual, worldview, and leadership formation. In addition to core curriculum, the various degrees at GRTS include areas of specialization, equipping students for a wide range of ministry vocations.

GRTS conceives of learning in holistic terms, seeking to foster growth of the whole person. Traditional classroom teaching, interaction with faculty scholars, a battery of student assessments, a student learning portfolio, and an extended ministry residency combine to foster cognitive, affective and behavioral learning. Since ministry is always engaged as whole persons, preparation for ministry must foster holistic learning and growth. GRTS understands this and structures a diverse set of learning experiences that foster maturation of the whole person.

Serving. In addition to working with faculty scholars to develop exegetical skills and theological understanding within traditional classroom settings, GRTS offers students the opportunity to work with seasoned ministry professionals to refine their gifts, confirm your calling, and mature in character within the context of authentic ministry practice.

Through the Ministry Residency (MR) and as part of the degree program requirements, students serve side by side with experienced ministry leaders within a local church and/or parachurch ministry context. The sustained nature of the MR experience, throughout the duration of the degree program, enables students to establish a life pattern of learning and serving, the necessary foundation for mature and effective ministry leadership.

Leading. At GRTS, we believe that ministry leadership emerges from the mastery of learning and serving. Leadership, or influence, in ministry is not inherent to a position or established by exerting authority, but by the authentic confession of faith, affirmation of gifts, demonstration of commitment and competence, expression of care, and credibility of character.

At GRTS, we believe that ministry leadership is best understood as stewardship, consisting of a stewardship of truth, of persons, and of organizations. Ministry leaders, regardless of position, are responsible to accurately represent God and His word, nurture the faith and contribution of others, and foster a mature and responsive faith community.

Effectiveness and influence in life and ministry require a sustained commitment and engagement in learning and serving. Leadership flows from the expertise and credibility derived from such commitments and actions. GRTS understands itself and its mission in these terms, endeavoring to nurture life patterns of learning, serving and leading.

HISTORY

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary of Cornerstone University traces its founding as a degree-granting institution to 1948, when the State of Michigan authorized it to grant the Bachelor of Divinity degree (now called the Master of Divinity). The first graduating class in 1949 boasted two graduates. The institution originally opened in January 1941 as an evening Bible institute at Wealthy Street Baptist Church. In 1944, a day school was started that became the seminary four years later, at which time the school was renamed Grand Rapids Bible Institute and Theological Seminary. The Bible Institute became a state-approved, degree-granting Bible college in 1963, moved to its present location in 1964, and transitioned into a Christian liberal arts college in 1972. In 1999, the entire institution acquired state-approved university status. Today, Cornerstone University and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary share a 123-acre campus four miles from downtown Grand Rapids. It operates with its own board of trustees and president. The seminary is housed in the Leon J. Wood Seminary Building, which opened in 1977. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, its administration and faculty, operate under the authority of the Cornerstone University board of trustees.

CORNERSTONE UNIVERSITY

Cornerstone is a Christ-centered University with a passion for global influence through the transforming power of the gospel. Cornerstone University exists to empower men and women to excel as influencers in our world for Christ by offering a student-focused learning community where Jesus Christ is central. Founded in 1941, the university is now a three-part enterprise: the undergraduate college, with programs for traditional students as well as accelerated undergraduate and graduate degree programs for working adults, the graduate program including Grand Rapids Theological Seminary and Asia Baptist Theological Seminary based in Singapore, and a Christian radio division known as “Cornerstone University Radio” that includes three radio stations, an internationally syndicated program called “Mission Network News,” and a nationally distributed children’s radio ministry called “His Kids Radio.”

CORNERSTONE CONFESSION

The Cornerstone Confession is the foundational doctrinal statement of Cornerstone University, reaffirmed annually by Cornerstone trustees, faculty, and staff. The Confession expresses our commitment to the key teachings of Scriptures as interpreted through the ecumenical creeds of the early church, the chief insights of the Reformation, and evangelical Christianity.

We believe in one sovereign, omnipotent, and fully omniscient God who eternally exists in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—who in love and for his glory created all things out of nothing and pronounced them good.

We believe that God has revealed himself in the sixty-six canonical books of Scripture, which are verbally inspired, truth without error, and serve as our final authority in faith and life. They lead us to Jesus Christ, who shows us the Father, and rightly interpreted, they enable us to understand God’s revelation in humanity, nature, and history.

We believe that God directly created Adam and Eve, the historical parents of the human race, distinct from the rest of creation in their bearing of God’s image and their stewardship over creation. Their union as man and woman models God’s design for marriage and perpetually stands as God’s loving and righteous will for all sexual intimacy.

We believe that our first parents forfeited their original righteousness when they succumbed to Satan’s temptation and rebelled against God’s revealed will. As a result, every human is born in sin, leaving us totally depraved, alienated from God, and destined to spiritual and physical death. As such, our sinful ways have corrupted God’s creation, resulting in discord to society and nature.

We believe that God's plan to redeem fallen humanity and renew creation flows through his promises to the Jewish people. God's promises to Abraham and David are fulfilled in Jesus, the mediator of the New Covenant.

We believe that the Son of God, while fully divine, became fully human through the virgin birth to save the world from sin. Living a sinless life in perfect obedience to His Father, Jesus proclaimed God's reign in word and deed. In his mercy he atoned for our sins by dying in our place. Having satisfied the just wrath of God on our behalf, he rose bodily and triumphantly over sin, death, and Satan. He then ascended to heaven, sent his Spirit to lead and empower his church, and is seated at the Father's right hand where he reigns and intercedes for His people.

We believe that the Holy Spirit descended at Pentecost to establish the church; that he uses the Word of God to give new life to those who repent of their sin and believe in Christ; and that all who by faith alone receive Christ's finished work are by God's grace united with Christ, justified by his shed blood, adopted into the family of God, forgiven of all their sin, indwelt and gifted by the Spirit, and added to the church.

We believe that the one, holy, and universal church is the body and bride of Christ. The church gathers in local assemblies to worship God and celebrate the gospel through the preaching of the Word, baptism, the Lord's Supper, prayer, and fellowship. It disperses to proclaim the gospel to a sinful world which must hear the good news of Jesus Christ in order to be saved. The church makes disciples of Jesus who, through persevering faith, embody the kingdom values of righteousness, peace, and joy. By loving God, serving others, and caring for creation, they anticipate the redemption of all things at Christ's return.

We believe that our Lord Jesus Christ will personally and gloriously return to deliver this world from Satan's rule and bring his reign to its ultimate fruition. Jesus will raise the dead to stand with the living before his judgment throne where he will determine the final state of humanity. The lost will experience everlasting conscious separation from God as the just punishment for their sin, and the redeemed will be welcomed into the unhindered joy of everlasting fellowship with him.

GEOGRAPHICAL SETTING

Grand Rapids is an excellent locale for a seminary. A quiet, sprawling city with a greater metropolitan area population of more than 600,000, it has been called "the city of churches" and "the center of orthodoxy." Several hundred conservative evangelical churches within 50 miles of the school offer many opportunities for Christian service and fellowship.

Grand Rapids has an abundance of affordable housing, and the cost of living is lower than in many cities its size. Many seminarians live in off-campus apartments or houses. As the commercial center of Western Michigan, Grand Rapids' banks, offices, hospitals, school systems and factories provide ample employment opportunities for students and their spouses.

Theological books are easily obtainable since Grand Rapids is the home of four well-known religious book publishers – William B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, Zondervan Publishing House, Baker Book House and Kregel Publications. Theologians and missionaries worldwide travel to Grand Rapids to purchase out-of-print and hard-to-find theological volumes from the used bookshops in the area. Ryerson Library, the main public library in Grand Rapids, recently underwent a $17.5 million renovation. Ryerson's extensive religious holdings make it a valuable resource for theological students. Also available are the library collections of two other area seminaries, in addition to the thousands of rare theological volumes held in Cornerstone University's Miller Library. Cultural opportunities include the Grand Rapids Art Museum, Van Andel Public Museum, Grand Rapids Symphony Orchestra, Grand Rapids Ballet, Grand Rapids Opera, professional and collegiate sports teams, professional quality community theatre groups, and many traveling artists, concert performances and events held at DeVos Concert Hall and Van Andel Arena. Malls in the area provide comfortable and enjoyable shopping experiences.

CURRICULAR PRIORITIES

Christian Worldview

The faculty of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to a curriculum that places emphasis upon Christian Worldview formation rooted in biblical exegesis. We believe that effective ministry requires biblical and theological precision. We firmly believe that sloppy theology represents poor stewardship of truth and is often counter-productive in ministry.

At GRTS, students are taught to think according to the flow of redemptive history through the meta-narrative approach to theology: Creation–Fall–Redemption–Consummation. Consideration is first given to God's design at creation: What did God intend? After establishing the ideal, thought is given to the impact of human rebellion at the fall of man: What are the implications of the fall? Once rebellion, brokenness and incompleteness are considered, thought is given to the influence of Christ's redemptive work: How has Christ brought restoration? Finally, and with a spirit of anticipation, thought is given to God's plan for complete restoration: What will human existence be like without the presence of sin? This biblically-based pattern of thought serves as an invaluable guide for biblical and exegetical work and ministry practice. This meta-narrative approach to doing theology and ministry is embedded within a variety of GRTS courses, though the central focus is within the three-course sequence in Systematic Theology (THE-540, THE-640, THE-641).

Leadership

The faculty of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is also committed to a curriculum that places emphasis upon leadership formation. We embrace a biblically-based servant-leader model of leadership. Pastors and others engaged in vocational ministry must be, first and foremost, humble servants. At the same time, they are called upon to render a stewardship of biblical and theological truth, of persons and groups of persons, and of church or parachurch organizations.

Such a calling requires specialized competencies in theological leadership and organizational leadership. The curriculum of GRTS provides opportunity for the development of these necessary competencies through an extensive series of courses in biblical exegesis and systematic theology, and through the Ministry Leadership Core of the Master of Divinity. Students are further encouraged to develop these needed competencies while in seminary through required ministry involvement, and through various required ministry residency, internships and practicums.

PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

The philosophy of theological education, out of which the curriculum is developed, views theology as a set of overlapping disciplines. In order to develop persons for ministry, there is a need to develop their knowledge as well as their skills. While teaching students preformed theological judgments, their skill in making such judgments must be developed as well.

All students must develop the knowledge and skill to be able to make judgments about the meaning of the text of scripture (exegetical theology). Students must be able to put their interpretation of scripture into the progressive flow of biblical revelation in order to see its canonical relationships (biblical theology). The church has had both scripture and gifted persons for many years. It is important that students learn how the church has used scripture to form its creeds, to defend itself against attack and to minister to each successive generation (historical theology).

Ministry demands the ability to relate all the teaching of the Bible on a topic into a consistent whole. The topical arrangement into a coherent relationship brings wholeness in understanding the Bible (systematic theology). The natural corollary of this is the ability to defend the faith (apologetics) and the ability to use the faith for moral judgments in culture (moral theology).

The capstone and one of the integrating features of theological education is ministry theology. All theology has as its goal the enactment of authentic ministry that is culturally appropriate. Theology, in all of its components, is a faith task of the church for ministry. Ministry can be enacted from multiple contexts, such as missions, education and evangelism.

This philosophy of theological education is expressed in the curriculum design of each degree program. What is covered in each class and how each class is sequenced is the product of implementing this philosophy into the curriculum.

PHILOSOPHY OF MINISTRY

Model for Ministry

The curriculum design and the instructional focus impact the ministry model formed in our graduates. This model for ministry is expressed by three central ideas.

Discernment – The minister, whether in a home-culture or cross-cultural context, must be able to use the text of Scripture for the gracious purpose for which Christ gave it in every act of ministry. The developed capacity to make judgments concerning the text of Scripture in order to communicate the knowledge of God to human experience is essential for theology and ministry.

Integration – The theological perceptual set from which the minister speaks and acts must be relevant to contemporary culture. This frame of reference is the basis for the ministry of preaching and teaching. The minister must balance the theoretical, technical and historical exegesis of the word of God with its appropriate application to people today. To overemphasize theoria at the expense of praxis leaves preaching unrelated to people in their lived experience. To emphasize praxis at the expense of theoria is to turn relevance into a pragmatism devoid of the normative speech of God.

Credibility – The minister must be believable and trustworthy. If one's preaching and teaching lacks credibility, then discernment and integration are for naught. Theological education must form in its students the character traits, the skills and the learning to make them worthy of belief in every act of ministry.

Relationship of the Seminary to the Church

The local church is responsible to identify believers in their assembly who have been gifted by the spirit for special office in the church. Such individuals need appropriate knowledge and skills for ministry. The seminary, on behalf of the church, educates these gifted persons for their ministry in the church. In turn, the church grants ministry credentials to those persons identified by the church and appropriately educated for ministry. This implies that although the seminary is not the church, yet it performs a service to the church by educating gifted persons for ministry in the church.

Relationship between Faith, Church and Theology

Faith is primarily allegiance to God as he has disclosed himself in Christ. Faith brings a person to covenant loyalty in the body of Jesus Christ. It is grounded in the grace of redemption and brings one to Christ as a member of his body.

Worship, edification and evangelism define the function of the church in the world. In order to fulfill its function, the church must practice theology as a faith task in the world. Theology is primarily a church task in the world. It is an activity that the church engages in to fulfill its mission. One of the primary purposes for which the church does theology is to enact authentic Christian ministry that is culturally appropriate. Theology is not an end in itself. Whether one does exegetical, biblical, historical or systematic theology, it is always for the sake of the church's ministry. The practical questions of ministry need to give direction to the task of theology right from the beginning.

This vision of the relationship of faith, church and theology is intended to heal the breach between ministry and theology. Doing theology and doing ministry are two aspects of a common activity. Since faith is primarily the loyalty of the human person to the divine person as disclosed in Christ, then faith is relevant to all of life. This faith places us in a redemptive community which has the task of doing theology in order to enact authentic Christian ministry that is culturally appropriate.

EDUCATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

Assessment of student learning is a high value at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. We take seriously our responsibility to deliver on the promise to provide excellence in graduate theological education. At GRTS, we do not view assessment of student outcomes as an externally imposed burden. Rather, we understand assessment of student learning and the disclosure of educational effectiveness as a theological task of stewardship, a process for organizational learning, and as a matter of legitimate accountability.

The effectiveness of our educational programs is assessed in a disciplined and routine manner. Through a variety of instruments and processes, we assess the achievement of the intended student learning outcomes of our curriculum, student and alumni satisfaction, readiness for ministry of our students, and vocational achievement of our graduates.

The following provides a few highlights and demonstrate how GRTS is delivering on its promise to provide excellence in graduate theological education.

GRTS Graduate Employment and Credentials:

- 81% of graduates are employed in various forms of vocational ministry
- 78% of Master of Divinity graduates are employed in various forms of vocational ministry
- 76% of graduates majoring in Pastoral Ministries are ordained as a minister
- 87% of students achieved the highest outcome ("making good progress in readiness for ministry") in the midpoint assessment
- 97% of students achieved the highest outcome ("making good progress in readiness for ministry") in the exit assessment
- 90% of Master of Arts in Counseling graduates are employed in vocational counseling or Christian ministry
- 96% of Master of Arts in Counseling graduates achieved the Limited-Licensed Professional Counselor (LLPC) or the Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC)

Note: Data above was taken from the results of a variety of surveys and other evaluative instruments administered in recent years at GRTS.

WELCOME FROM THE ACADEMIC DEAN John F. VerBerkmoes, Ph.D.

GRAND RAPIDS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

DEAR STUDENT,

I am delighted that you have chosen to review this catalog. It will give you a good introduction to the purposes, programs and people of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. I invite you to follow up your reading of these pages with a visit to our campus. Such a visit will provide you an opportunity to pose questions and to think together with us about God's calling for your life. Please call 800.697.1133 to make arrangements to visit us today!

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary has been preparing individuals for a variety of Christian ministries for more than 60 years. We are committed to providing our students with a well-rounded program that integrates Christian worldview, biblical knowledge, theology, exegesis and ministry skills, so that you are equipped for a lifetime of service to Christ and his Church. Whether you are a professional looking for continuing education in Christian studies or a person called to vocational Christian ministry, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary has programs that will address your needs.

As a graduate school of theology and ministry, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is a community of learners who hold in common the desire to study God's word as the means to know God and serve the Christian community. You will have access to seasoned professors, both in and out of the classroom, who desire to help you integrate knowledge and service into a lifestyle. I invite you to join us in this journey!

ENROLLMENT OPTIONS

In recognition of the diversity of life circumstances, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary provides a wide range of enrollment options to students. Typically, students progress through degree programs by participating in a combination of the enrollment options. To assist students in mapping their academic program, GRTS maintains a four-year course planner, which provides a broad view of the next four years of course rotations. The diverse set of enrollment options available at GRTS are described in greater detail below.

TRADITIONAL SEMESTERS

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is a semester-based school with the fall semester running from early September to mid-December and the spring semester running from mid-January to early May. Resident courses are scheduled Monday to Friday with morning, afternoon and evening options. Two kinds of resident courses are available during the traditional semesters, split-block and full-block. Split-block courses are offered on Tuesday and Thursday with 80-minute sessions on both days each week. Full-block courses are offered throughout the week, and these courses meet once per week in a two-hour and 50-minute session. See the “Academic” section of the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary Web page under “Course Schedule” for the current and/or most recent course schedule.

EVENING COURSES

In response to the recommendations of working professionals desiring seminary education, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary now offers a variety of evening courses during the traditional fall and spring semesters. The evening courses meet one night per week throughout the 15-week semester, are available on an audit or credit basis, and can be applied to a variety of seminary degree programs. See the Academic section of the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary web page under “Course Schedule” for the current and/or most recent semester course schedule.

DISTANCE EDUCATION

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers over 25 courses for graduate credit through online distance education. These courses can be completed on a non-degree basis or applied to a particular degree program. The on-line courses are developed and taught by the faculty of the seminary. Enrollment levels in these courses vary, but are capped at 12-16 students. The courses include required readings, mini-lectures, peer learning through facilitated on-line discussion, papers and/or projects, and in some cases, exams. The on-line courses are available fall, spring and summer semesters and generally track with the traditional 15-week rotation.

Distance education enrollment is limited to eight courses within a degree program. Students are limited to two distance education courses per semester and are not eligible to enroll for audits. Students on academic probation or students with two or more outstanding “incomplete” grades in other courses are not eligible to enroll in distance education courses.

J-TERM

A 10-day intensive residential session, J-Term, is available each year during the first two weeks of January. Given the structure of these courses, students are able to enroll in a morning and/or afternoon course. J-Term courses typically meet Monday through Friday. Morning classes are held from 8 a.m. to noon, while afternoon classes meet from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. See the Academic section of the Web page under “Course Schedule” for the current and/or most recent J-term course schedule.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers additional graduate resident courses through four summer sessions. These 10-day intensive sessions provide opportunity to enroll in a variety of courses between mid-May and late June. These courses are applicable to a variety of degree programs. Course syllabi can be secured in advance, allowing the student to complete some of the reading requirements before the course begins. After the 10-day session has ended, students are granted four to six weeks to complete required major papers or projects. On-campus accommodations are available to the student at a reasonable cost. See the Academic section of the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary Web page under “Course Schedule” for the current and/or most recent summer course offerings.

MODULES – MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The Master of Theology degree program is primarily delivered to students through course modules. The course modules are coordinated on an individual basis with the supervising professor. For specific course requirements, consult the Master of Theology degree listing and related course descriptions in this catalog.

PROGRAM FEATURES

Before entering seminary, preparation for the ministry begins with the call of God and a commitment to a life of service. Development of the gifts of God through a consistent personal relationship with Christ, appreciation of the power derived from regular Bible study, cultivation of meaningful social relationships and demonstration of emotional maturity are imperative for church ministry.

A FLEXIBLE APPROACH

Inclination to ministry may come after completing college education without a pre-seminary major. The seminary recognizes God's providence leads many students from varied educational backgrounds and experiences into the ministry. The curriculum offers students without background in Greek, Bible or philosophy, the opportunity to take these basic courses early in their education and then proceed to more advanced studies.

Those who have undergraduate preparation in Greek, Bible and theology may be able to move directly into advanced studies. Upon approval of the Theology Department, a student with the appropriate undergraduate background may substitute the seminar sequence in systematic theology for the regular three-course sequence.

Students who are still pursuing their undergraduate degrees should consider appropriate breadth in history of western civilization, philosophy and logic, world literature, advanced speech, Greek, Hebrew and basic Bible.

GREEK & HEBREW COMPETENCY EXAM

For entering students who have completed a minimum of one year of Greek and/or Hebrew language studies at the undergraduate level and desire to proceed into BBL-672 or BBL-640, language competency must be demonstrated by the satisfactory completion of the Greek and/or Hebrew Competency Exam. Students who successfully complete the particular competency exam will be given permission to proceed into BBL-672 and/or BBL-640, and granted advanced standing credit. Cornerstone University graduates who successfully complete the entire undergraduate Greek and/or Hebrew language sequence (B or better in each course), and immediately proceed into GRTS, are exempt from the Competency Exam Requirement but must complete and submit the Advanced Standing Application.

The Greek and/or Hebrew Competency Exam is also required for entering GRTS students seeking transfer credits and authorization to proceed into the first course of the Old Testament and/or New Testament sequence (i.e., BBL-672 and/or BBL-640) in any of the following instances: when the source of the transfer credits is a non-ATS school; the graduate courses are not comparable to BBL-510/BBL-511 and/or BBL-516/BBL-517; the grades achieved are below the required B grade; or the graduate language courses were not completed within the previous two years. In such cases, the student is required to complete the appropriate GRTS Competency Exam before the transfer credits will be processed and authorization granted to proceed into the first course of the sequence.

Unsatisfactory completion of the GRTS Competency Exam requires completion of BBL-510/BBL-511 and/or BBL-516/BBL-517 at GRTS, and results in the denial of the Greek and/or Hebrew language advanced standing or transfer credit. Greek and Hebrew competency exams are administered during New Student Orientation in the fall and spring. Those students interested/required to sit for one of these exams must complete and submit the Greek and Hebrew Competency Exam/Advanced Standing Application, which can be secured through the Admissions or Academic offices of GRTS.

THE-501 PROGRAM INTRODUCTION SEMINAR

Required during a student's first semester, THE-501 Program Introduction Seminar is designed as an introduction to graduate theological education in general, and to the academic culture of GRTS in particular. The course socializes entering students into the rigors of graduate scholarship by honing their skills in theological research, reading and writing. A number of entering student assessments are also embedded within the course to aid GRTS in subsequent efforts to nurture the growth and development of students, both individually and collectively.

MIN-711 PROGRAM COMPLETION SEMINAR

Required during the final semester of enrollment within the degree program, MIN-711 Program Completion Seminar is designed to aid students in the transition from student life in the academy to professional practice in ministry. Particular focus is given to ministerial identity formation, resume development, ministry search process and resources, and ordination and licensure. Student assessments are embedded within this course to aid GRTS in subsequent efforts to nurture student growth and development.

MASTER OF ARTS THESIS

In preparation for doctoral studies, select students within the Master of Arts programs may wish to complete a master's thesis as the capstone of their educational experience at GRTS. Students interested in exploring this option should communicate this preference to the faculty advisor early in the degree program. The inclusion of a thesis in the degree program requires formal faculty advisor approval using the Master of Arts: Thesis Topic Approval Form. The form should be completed and submitted to the faculty advisor prior to enrollment for Thesis Readings, along with a copy of the student's undergraduate and current graduate academic transcripts. The Thesis Topic Approval Form must be submitted, and include faculty advisor approval, at the time of registration for Thesis Readings.

Enrollment for the Master of Arts thesis consists of two elements: Thesis Readings (BBL-584, THE-584, MIN-584, COU-584) and Thesis (BBL-792, THE-792, MIN-797, COU-792). Students are encouraged to enroll in Thesis Readings the semester prior to enrollment for the thesis, while enrolling for the Thesis during their last semester. The required readings course is intended to provide the student an opportunity to expand his/her knowledge base in the specific area of study and to focus the thesis topic. Thesis Readings and Thesis will require the completion and submission of the Special Enrollments Form during the registration process. Students are encouraged to work closely with their faculty advisor in identifying and developing an area of study for the thesis. Students are also encouraged to consult the Master of Arts Thesis Readings syllabus and Master of Arts Thesis syllabus for processing and procedure details.

STUDENT LEARNING PORTFOLIO

The student learning portfolio is a web based e-portfolio of student assessments and student coursework samples. The student learning portfolio is intended to serve two main purposes. First, the student learning portfolio documents student progress in the development of essential knowledge, competencies, and values, and provides a foundation to foster continued growth. Second, the student learning portfolio serves as an objective means for faculty to assess collective student growth and to evaluate overall program effectiveness. Participation in all required assessments and submission of all portfolio documents is a responsibility of the student and a requirement for graduation.

STUDENT ASSESSMENTS

In an effort to aid students in cognitive, affective, and behavioral growth and development, a series of student assessments beyond traditional classroom grading, are integrated as requirements within the various GRTS degree programs. A brief description of some of these assessments is outlined below:

Entrance Assessment

A brief introductory meeting with the faculty advisor which allows an assessment about the alignment of the selected degree program with the student's aspirations, capabilities and vocational goals.

MIN-500 Christian Spiritual Formation

A battery of assessments (Myers-Briggs, DiSC, ECI and MCMI-III) is incorporated into this course. The results of these assessments serve as the basis for the development of a personal growth plan as assigned within the course.

MIN-510 Organizational Leadership

Students complete the Leadership Practices Inventory (LPI). Results of this assessment aid students in gaining a greater sense of their leadership style and lay a foundation for personal and professional growth.

Mid-point Assessment

A formal analysis of the student's academic and non-academic development, and an evaluation concerning progress in ministry readiness. This process involves the academic advisor, academic dean, dean of student services, ministry mentor, and executive director of the Ministry Residency.

Ministry Residency

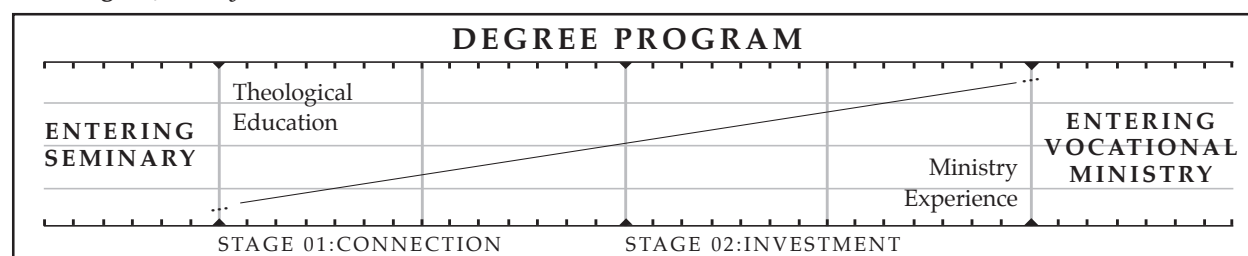

Ministry mentors assess students each semester in regards to the student's contributions, needs and developmental progress as they function within an authentic ministry setting.

MIN-711 Program Completion Seminar

A reflective essay is embedded as a requirement within this course, allowing the student to consider the extent and direction of growth and development while enrolled at GRTS.

Exit Assessment

This is an opportunity for students nearing graduation to provide substantive feedback about their GRTS experience. The exit assessment is coordinated by the academic dean and dean of student services and takes the form of personal interviews and/or opinion surveys.

MINISTRY RESIDENCY

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to equipping students and elevating their integration of theological discipline with ministry experience. The Ministry Residency program at GRTS prepares students for vocational ministry by providing avenues for them to connect with ministry coaches and to invest in local ministries.

If you are a student pursuing a Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Educational Ministries or Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies, you will invest eight credits of your degree toward serving alongside a mentor in a local ministry. Through the Ministry Residency program, we are committed to assisting your preparation and implementation of this aspect of your program.

GRTS is committed to giving you a solid theological framework that will allow you to assess and grow in an integrated, local ministry context. This is a high value we all share at GRTS and we are committed to assisting you in your preparation for ministry.

PROGRAM SCOPE – LEARNING, SERVING, LEADING

The Ministry Residency at GRTS is a tangible expression of the high value we place on integrating solid, theological thinking with hands-on ministry experience. We desire to graduate thoughtful leaders who champion theological integrity and who are beginning to demonstrate proven, ministry effectiveness.

The Ministry Residency program works to connect students with their local ministry interests, establishing a ministry context in which a student can worship, serve in a ministry capacity and be mentored by a seasoned ministry leader.

PROGRAM SPIRIT – THEOLOGICALLY INFORMED MINISTRY PRACTICE

It is the spirit of GRTS to work alongside the church to assist in preparing ministry leaders for theologically informed ministry practice and who are theologically competent and ministry capable. GRTS continues to enjoy a growing heritage of ministry leaders in multiple fields expressing the gospel through pastoring, teaching, counseling and leading. It is in these expressions that we find our greatest sense of impact and success.

MINISTRY GROWTH THROUGH THE MINISTRY RESIDENCY

The Ministry Residency program is designed as an extended, contextual immersion with a local ministry (8 credits over two years). Our heartbeat is to develop a missional web between GRTS, graduate students and local churches in order to equip emerging leaders as they prepare to serve God through the church.

The Ministry Residency program at GRTS is committed to assisting students in developing their potential and refining their calling as a Christian leader.

- The Ministry Residency program is founded on an educational philosophy intent on encouraging students to extend their theological training into actual ministry environments.
- Residency allows each student program at GRTS to remain dynamic in response to our rapidly changing world and to the contexts in which our graduates endeavor to minister.
- Students' connection with GRTS and the Ministry Residency give them an opportunity to express their calling through theological reflection, through coaching feedback and through actual ministry opportunity.

- Partnerships with proven, local ministries and coaches provide contexts encouraging GRTS students to develop as creative leaders, reflective shepherds, effective practitioners and thoughtful theologians.

MINISTRY COMPETENCY THROUGH THE MINISTRY RESIDENCY

The goal of Ministry Residency is to create an approach that allows residents to explore their ministry calling in a local ministry while growing in their ministry competency.

We have identified pastoral competencies that will guide a resident's learning and will be used to track one's growth in these areas. Ten of these competencies are:

- Time Management and Allocation
- Contemplation/Reflection (Spiritual Disciplines/Soul Care)
- Ministry Task/Administration
- Teaching/Preaching/Facilitating
- Volunteers: Leading, Staffing, Team Dynamics
- Pastoral/Ministry Duties
- Strategic Planning/Programming
- Counseling/On Call
- Personal Leadership (Identifying gifts and passions)
- Specialized Ministry

THEOLOGICALLY INFORMED MINISTRY PRACTICE THROUGH THE MINISTRY RESIDENCY

Competencies focus on tangible outcomes of applied knowledge and value. The Ministry Residency program seeks to encourage experience and reflection upon competencies based on the following values. These values will enhance students' reflection papers as directed in the course syllabi.

Theological Reflection—The student develops a growing ability to navigate ministry situations through the theological matrix emerging through their academic disciplines and ministry experiences. Academic rigor will affect ministry practice and ministry experience will motivate theological study. A student that values theological reflection is able to bring theology into life situations and will constantly be pursuing theological clarity as their knowledge and experiences expand.

Communal Interdependence—The student values the necessity of a local community where they invest and are invested in. They recognize their essential connection with their local church and are responsive to the counsel, support and feedback of their ministry coach and academic advisors committed to speaking into their lives. A student with communal interdependence values the necessity for community and is able to receive and contribute freely in this context.

Spiritual Transformation—The student develops ongoing disciplines that foster a deepening love for God and maturing worldview that allow for personal and professional choices to flow out of thoughtful reflection and a teachable heart. They recognize the need for continual seeking of God and his purposes and are vigilant in watching their life and doctrine closely. A student who values spiritual reformation is thoughtful, reflective and eager to mature in their following of Jesus.

Missional Identity—The student reflects on their own development, discovering and refining their gifts, abilities, passions and limitations. Through their academic interaction and ministry experiences, the student grows in how God is calling them to contribute to his redemptive mission. One would expect the student to grow in written and verbal communication, leadership qualities, counseling experience and pastoral care. A student with missional identity begins to envision their next steps in God's calling and is aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

Contextual Vision—The student grows in wisdom and compassion and seeks to understand their world (social, environmental, economic and cultural setting) in which they minister and live. As servant leaders, they seek ways to love others though understanding them before prescribing formulaic answers. Further, the student gains a broader perspective of the world and the necessity for understanding the global church and the issues surrounding missions, multiculturalism and true partnership. A student with contextual vision is embracing a realistic view of their world (through listening and learning) and is envisioning (and desiring) what God might want it to truly be.

GETTING INVOLVED WITH THE MINISTRY RESIDENCY

As a student enters his/her degree program, he/she will spend their first semester connecting relationally with a church/ministry while they immerse themselves in theological study.

When the student approaches his/her final four semesters of his/her program, he/she will invest with the local ministry, serving 12-15 hours a week in order to bring their training to a local context and their ministry experiences back to the classroom.

By the end of the program, a student graduates with theological understanding, ministry experience and valuable feedback from faculty and ministry coaches.

MINISTRY RESIDENCY OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

The Ministry Residency program has connections to over 80 area churches, parachurches and mentors who in the past have served, or are willing to serve as a residency site.

The Ministry Residency program at GRTS is working hard to partner with these quality churches/parachurches and coaches to offer diverse opportunities for students to serve in a local ministry setting.

For a general list of ministries connected with Ministry Residency and open to exploring Ministry Residencies with students, contact the Ministry Residency administrative assistant.

MINISTRY RESIDENCY NEXT STEPS

For more information on the Ministry Residency, access to the Ministry Residency Handbook, program details, and latest updates, visit the Ministry Residency page of the Cornerstone website or look under GRTS on the Eagle's Nest. THE URBAN MINISTRY COHORT PROGRAM

In an effort to serve as a transformational influence on the urban centers of Western Michigan, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary of Cornerstone University initiated the Urban Ministry Cohort Program in Fall 2007. The program, a cohort based educational model organized and delivered to four Western Michigan urban centers (Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Lansing, and Muskegon) was designed to contribute to the transformation of these urban communities by providing innovative and transformational education to urban ministry leaders. At GRTS, we believe that urban ministry leaders are community leaders and possess the position and potential to foster significant redemptive influence. Our vision for the program is to ignite and equip these leaders to facilitate needed change, and to do so from a theologically informed perspective that is distinctively Christian.

The program is built around a seven course core (foundational courses in Bible and Theology) which is delivered in a one-night per week format to a cohort of students (12-25 students per cohort) within the particular urban center. Upon completing the seven core courses, the urban cohort student with an existing accredited bachelor's degree can complete the remaining five courses (e.g., Organizational Leadership, Urban Development, Christian Social Ethics, etc.) and achieve the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership (MAML) or Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (MABS) which are awarded through Cornerstone University. For those urban cohort students without an existing accredited bachelor's degree, the seven courses can be applied to one of several bachelor's degrees offered by the Professional & Graduate Studies division of Cornerstone University. Thus, the program is designed to take the urban ministry leader to the next level of credential in their educational journey, while seeking to achieve the broader vision of urban transformation through these leaders.

For more information concerning the Urban Ministry Cohort Program contact Jo Anna Kelly or check out the Urban Cohort section under GRTS on Cornerstone University's website.

THE KERN SCHOLARS PROGRAM AT GRAND RAPIDS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary exists, in part, to contribute to the growth and vitality of local churches in the United States by preparing and equipping students to serve as pastors in these churches. With this objective in view, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary has established a scholarship for Master of Divinity students, partnering with the Kern Family Foundation, an organization that shares our commitment to promoting strong pastoral leadership in American churches. This program, entitled the Kern Scholars Program, offers generous scholarship assistance to a limited number of young adults preparing for senior pastoral ministry or church planting ministry in the U.S. This scholarship program also supports another important value of both the Kern Family and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary – making the Master of Divinity degree more affordable to students who show strong potential for church ministry and therefore reducing their student debt, which can limit ministry opportunities for future pastors.

Scholarships consist of a four-year grant awarded upon entry to the program, and recipients are required to maintain a 3.25 grade point average and complete the Master of Divinity degree in four years. Annual recipients become members of a distinct Kern Scholars cohort who participate in cohort activities offered by the seminary and attend a Foundation-sponsored retreat. In addition, Kern Scholars take part in a carefully crafted ministry residency program during the second half of their educational experience, which is supported by focused mentoring under seasoned lead pastors or church planters. Upon completion of their degree and entrance into pastoral ministry, Kern Scholars commit themselves to participating in the Kern Pastors Network which offers creative help and support for those entering full-time pastoral ministry. Other eligibility criteria for acceptance as a Kern Scholar are:

- A citizen of the U.S.
- Age 27 or under at the time of nomination for the Kern Scholarship
- Possessing a 3.25 grade point average from an accredited undergraduate institution
- A commitment to entering full-time, lifelong pastoral or church planting ministry in the U.S. pursuant upon graduation. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary and the Kern Family Foundation understand that Kern Scholars may begin their pastoral service in an associate pastoral or youth pastoral role and later transition to a senior pastoral position.

- Submission to the Foundation of an annual, signed statement of “Reaffirmation of Call to Pastoral Ministry,” declaring a commitment to serving in pastoral ministry or church planting ministry pursuant upon graduation. In addition to this, the Kern Scholar should possess a clear commitment to Christ and his Church, manifest strong character qualities, and demonstrate strong leadership skills, as evidenced through the following qualities: Proven leadership ability, a skilled communicator, an agent of change, maturing in character, creative, strong relational ability, culturally engaged, and persistent.

Entering students who wish to apply for the Kern Scholarship should complete both the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary Master of Divinity application and the Kern Scholars application, which are available online at www.cornerstone.edu/grts. In addition to this, applicants must also complete the FAFSA application (www.fafsa.ed.gov) and the Seminary Scholarship Application (www.cornerstone.edu/seminary-scholarship-application). All of these applications should be completed by March 31st. For those entering students who would like more information regarding the Kern Scholars Program, please contact Darrell Yoder, Kern Scholars Program Director.

MASTER OF DIVINITY

The Master of Divinity degree is recognized as the historical standard in academic preparation for both vocational ministry and advanced theological study. This particular program is designed to develop essential biblical and theological competencies for ministry leadership in congregations, as well as other ministry contexts. Those interested in building a foundation for advanced study may also find the Master of Divinity an attractive option. The program consists of 94 semester hours which emphasize the study and interpretation of the Scriptures in the original languages, breadth in the disciplines of theology, and the development of essential ministry competencies. The program has been designed around a core of basic biblical and theological studies, a ministry leadership core, ministry specialization courses and eight semester hours of ministry residency. Applicants for the Master of Divinity degree program should possess a minimum 2.5 cumulative undergraduate grade point average from an accredited baccalaureate institution. Applicants not meeting this standard may be considered for probationary admission. For students planning to enroll full time, the table below provides a detailed and specific curricular path. Those intending part-time enrollment will find valuable insights from this information for planning your ideal course sequencing.

MASTER OF ARTS

(HISTORICAL THEOLOGY)

The Master of Arts in Historical Theology is an academic degree designed to develop competencies essential to the academic study of the history of Christian doctrine and spirituality in preparation for admission to a doctoral program and teaching at church-related colleges and seminaries. The program consists of 63 semester hours which emphasize the historical development of Christian doctrine and spirituality, the study of ancient languages, and the use of critical methodology in biblical and historical studies, plus a modern language exam and an M.A. Historical Theology comprehensive exam. The program has been designed around a core of basic biblical and theological studies, a historical theology specialization and advanced elective credits. Applicants for the Master of Arts in Historical Theology must possess a minimum 3.5 cumulative undergraduate grade point average from a regionally accredited baccalaureate institution. (The student must also have achieved a minimum 3.5 grade point average in any undergraduate coursework taken in biblical and theological studies.) A minimum 3.3 cumulative grade point average is required for graduation; any student admitted to the Master of Arts in Historical Theology whose grade point average falls below 3.0 in any two semesters during the course of study may be dismissed from the program. For the student planning to enroll full time, the table below provides a detailed and specific curricular path. MODERN LANGUAGE EXAM

In the last semester of coursework or within six months following the completion of coursework, the student must complete a two-hour examination in French or German, using a dictionary to translate a two-page selection from a contemporary periodical article dealing with a topic in historical theology. The translation will be graded "Pass" or "Fail." In the case of failure, the student may retake the exam. In the event of a passing grade, a photocopy of the exam and the letter notifying the student of a passing grade on the exam will be included in the student's academic file to document completion of the modern language exam requirement.

MASTER OF ARTS (HISTORICAL THEOLOGY) COMPREHENSIVE EXAM

In the last semester of coursework or within six months following the completion of coursework, the student must write a four-hour comprehensive exam, which will be graded by two examiners. A list of possible exam questions (with a corresponding bibliography for each question) may be found on the GRTS Web site. The particular questions to be assigned from the list will be determined after a consultation of the student's transcript, assigning questions dealing with major program knowledge competencies that have not previously been directly evaluated through written coursework. In the event of a passing grade, a photocopy of the exam and the letter notifying the student of a passing grade on the exam will be included within the student's academic file to document completion of the comprehensive exam requirement. In the event of a failing mark, the student may retake the exam (or portions thereof) once (normally within three months of the first attempt and no more than a year after the first attempt). Candidates who fail the examination twice may not take it a third time.

MASTER OF ARTS (HISTORICAL THEOLOGY) DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The Master of Arts (Historical Theology) degree is conferred when the following conditions are met:

1. Completion of 65 semester hours with a minimum 3.3 cumulative grade point average. Included are 38 hours of core curriculum, an 18-hour Historical Theology concentration and 9 hours of advanced elective credit in Bible or theology.

2. A minimum of 33 semester hours must be achieved at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary by transfer students.
3. Advanced standing credit is limited to ¼ of the degree program requirements (16 hours).
4. Credits achieved online and/or by distance education are limited to a maximum of eight courses (24 hours) within the degree program.
5. Successful completion of modern language exam.
6. Successful completion of Master of Arts (Historical Theology) comprehensive exam.
7. Evidence of personal commitment to Jesus Christ and a life pattern of moral character and conduct.
8. Completion of all assessments, including entrance, mid-point and exit assessments.
9. The meeting of all financial obligations.
10. Five years from matriculation are permitted to complete all degree program requirements.
11. Participation in commencement.
12. Graduates of this degree program will be given the option to receive their diploma from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary or Cornerstone University.

MASTER OF ARTS (HISTORICAL THEOLOGY) STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The Master of Arts (Historical Theology) curriculum is designed to enable the student to:

Core Curriculum

1. Conduct disciplined biblical interpretation and application with reference to the Greek and Hebrew texts.

MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The Master of Theology is offered on a limited basis to students who have demonstrated exceptional ability in biblical and theological scholarship at the Master of Divinity and Master of Arts level. The development of mastery and competency in the major field is the primary purpose of this program. The program consists of 30 semester hours in one of four areas of concentration: Old Testament, New Testament, Historical Theology and Systematic Theology. The curriculum is structured in a manner that engages the student in independent research under the supervision of a major professor. Applicants for the Master of Theology should possess a minimum 3.0 grade point average in the Master of Divinity or Master of Arts degree.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCESS

1. Candidates for the program should possess an accredited baccalaureate degree and Master of Divinity or Master of Arts in the relevant theological discipline, and achieve a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average in graduate level study.
2. Applicants are required to submit a graded writing sample from the M.Div. or M.A. equivalent degree program which demonstrates knowledge of research and scholarly writing. Scores from the General Graduate Record Exam (GRE) may also be requested in addition to or in place of the graded writing sample as determined by the supervising professor.
3. Transfer credits are not generally permitted in this degree program.
4. Candidates for the Old Testament or New Testament concentration should demonstrate advanced competency in the related original language (Hebrew or Greek).
5. Candidates should possess well developed critical thinking and communication skills, both essential to theological research and writing.
6. Candidates should show promise for exceptional productivity in Kingdom ministry from previous academic work and personal spiritual qualifications.
7. Applicants are required to provide two letters of recommendation from former teachers – one from a former teacher in the anticipated major field.
8. Applicants must submit to the Graduate Admission Office a formal letter to the faculty indicating reasons for pursuing an advanced graduate theological degree. The letter should also include the selection of a major field for the program and life objectives.
9. Admission to the Master of Theology is granted by approval of the supervising professor and the related divisional faculty.

PROGRAM ORGANIZATION AND EVALUATION

1. Major Field (20 hours) – A minimum of 20 semester hours will be achieved through major field units.
2. Enrichment (4 hours) – With the approval of the major professor, a four credit course must be taken in another cognate area with another professor.
3. Professional Practicum (no credit) – Each student will be involved in teaching and/or engaged in related professional activities under the supervision of the major professor and approval of the Dean.
4. Thesis (6 hours) – The thesis is required in the major field. A faculty committee will be appointed by the Dean to review and evaluate the thesis. The thesis topic must be submitted to the major professor by the end of the second week of September for approval. The first draft of the thesis is due at the end of the second week of January. The final draft is to be submitted to the major professor at the end of the first week of March. An oral defense of the thesis is required and will be conducted by the faculty committee.
5. A 3.0 grade point average must be achieved in all Master of Theology course work. Any work below 3.0 grade point average must be repeated according to the seminary retake policy.

COSTS AND TIME LIMITS

1. See the financial information section of this catalog for the current Master of Theology tuition costs.
2. The degree, including the thesis, is to be completed within three academic years.
3. Failure to complete the program within the three academic year time limit (three years/two summers) will require a formal evaluative meeting with the major professor and Dean. Program extension is granted only on the basis of faculty vote.

MASTER OF THEOLOGY: DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

1. Completion of 30 semester hours with a minimum 3.0 grade point average for each course and a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average for the program.
2. Completion of 20 semester hours in the major field of study, a 4 semester hour enrichment, and the six semester hour thesis.
3. The completion of the professional practicum, fulfilled under the supervision of the program advisor.
4. Evidence of personal commitment to Jesus Christ and a life pattern of moral character and conduct.
5. Successful completion and defense of Master of Theology Thesis.
6. Completion of thesis submission to Miller Library.
7. The meeting of all financial obligations.
8. Three years from matriculation are permitted to complete all degree requirements.
9. Participation in commencement.

MASTER OF THEOLOGY STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The Master of Theology curriculum is designed to enable the student to:

Old Testament Major

1. Read with facility the prose and poetry of the Hebrew Bible with the use of lexical tools.
2. Demonstrate advanced hermeneutical and exegetical skills that apply to Old Testament literature.
3. Identify and describe the academic study of the Old Testament.
4. Demonstrate competency to read the Old Testament against its ancient Near Eastern background.
5. Research and write an advanced level master's thesis in Old Testament.

New Testament Major

1. Read with facility the Greek New Testament with the use of lexical tools.
2. Demonstrate advanced hermeneutical and exegetical skills.
3. Identify and describe the categories that comprise the academic study of the New Testament.
4. Research and write an advanced level master's thesis in New Testament.

Historical Theology Major

1. Describe the main eras of church history and their contributions to the development of theology.
2. State the ideas of key theologians within the history of the church.
3. Demonstrate critical reflection on the theological development of Western Christianity.
4. Research and write an advanced level master's thesis in historical theology.

Systematic Theology Major

1. Demonstrate competence in the methods of theology as applied to great theologians and major doctrines.
2. Construct one's own integrated theological system of belief.
3. Critically analyze various theological problems and successfully argue for a position.
4. Research and write an advanced level master's thesis in systematic theology.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

SEMESTERS AND HOURS

The academic year is divided into three semesters (fall, spring and summer). The typical full-time course load is 12 credit hours during both fall and spring semesters and six credit hours in summer semester. A credit hour represents one class period of 50 minutes per week for one semester and generally requires about 40 hours of student investment in and out of class. A student seeking the maximum financial aid package and/or veteran's benefits must carry a minimum of 11 credit hours during fall and spring semesters.

CALENDAR

The academic year corresponds with the following schedule:

Fall Semester – begins in early September & ends in mid- December.

J-Term – Occurs during the first two weeks of January.

Spring Semester – Begins during the third week of January and ends the first week of May

Summer Semester – May, June, July and August

See "Academic Calendar" in Academic Catalog for complete academic schedule.

GRADES AND HONOR POINTS

The student's scholastic standing is indicated both by grades and honor points. The student earns honor points in accordance with his/her grades as follows:

Grade Interpretation

A – 4.0	C – 2.0	AU – Audit
A- – 3.7	C- – 1.7	CR – Credit
B+ – 3.3	D+ – 1.3	NC – No Credit
B – 3.0	D – 1.0	I – Incomplete
B- – 2.7	D- – 0.7	W – Withdrew
C+ – 2.3	F – 0.0	W/P – Withdrew Passing
		W/E – Withdrew Failing

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Students are officially classified in accordance with the semester hours of credit they have earned as follows:

M.A.

Juniors:	1-32 semester hours
Seniors:	33 or more semester hours

M.Div.

Juniors:	1-32 semester hours
Middlers:	33-62 semester hours
Seniors:	63 or more semester hours

MID-POINT AND EXIT ASSESSMENTS

Students enrolled in the Master of Divinity and Master of Arts degree programs must participate in the mid-point and exit assessment processes. The mid-point process is conducted near the middle of the academic program and the exit assessment is typically conducted in the final semester of a student's program. The processes are initiated by the Academic Office and engage the student along with the student's academic advisor, academic dean, dean of students, ministry residency mentor or practicum supervisor, and the director of Ministry Residencies or Counseling Practicum professor in a review of the student's academic performance, student learning portfolio and overall progress in readiness for ministry. Specifically, the team considers the student's progress in disciplinary knowledge and skill (academic performance), faith commitment and personal maturity (Christian character), and progress made in attaining the student learning outcomes associated with the particular degree (learning, development, and vocational readiness where applicable). At the conclusion of the review process, one of three judgments is rendered by the review team and presented to the student in written form. The range of judgments includes the following: 1) Affirm Progress in readiness for ministry, 2) Affirm progress in readiness for ministry with reservations, 3) Do not affirm readiness for ministry. The assessment team engages the student in developing and implementing a growth plan when the second or third judgments are reached in the mid-point process. Consult the GRTS Student Handbook for a more detailed description of the policies, process, judgments and the implications of the judgments.

GRADUATION

All senior level students are required to file an Application to Graduate by Sept. 1 for December graduation and Feb. 1 for May graduation. Eligibility for graduation necessitates the completion of all degree specific requirements as outlined in the GRTS Academic Catalog. In fulfillment of degree program requirements, graduates are expected to participate in the commencement exercise, which occurs each year on the first weekend in May. Approval to participate in commencement exercises prior to the completion of all degree requirements is rare, and requires the approval of the academic dean based on a written request. Such approvals will be limited to six credits or less of outstanding work, substantial rationale for early participation, a plan to complete the work within the next enrollment period, and cannot include an outstanding practicum, internship, ministry residency or thesis. Appeals to waive participation in the commencement exercise must be submitted to the Academic Dean by March 1. Three official graduation dates occur each year: December, May and August.

SCHOLASTIC HONORS

Students who attain a grade point average of 3.5 or more and carry a minimum of nine semester hours are recognized each semester through a published Dean's list. Three graduation honors are recognized at commencement. Those graduating cum laude must achieve a cumulative grade point average of not less than 3.6; magna cum laude, 3.7; and summa cum laude, 3.85. To be eligible for graduation honors, the student must complete a minimum of 31 hours in the Master of Arts degrees, or 36 hours in the Master of Arts in Counseling, or 47 hours in the Master of Divinity degree at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Graduation honors are not available in the Master of Theology.

For purposes of awarding honor cords and recognition at commencement, the determination of those eligible for honors will be made on the basis of the cumulative grade point average from the fall semester. The final transcript and diploma will record graduation honors on the basis of the student's entire academic program.

RETAKE POLICY

Students are permitted to retake a course in which an unsatisfactory grade was achieved during a previous period of enrollment. In such situations, registration for the course and payment of the related tuition and fees at the current tuition rates are required. The grade achieved by the retake course replaces the initial grade in relation to the grade point average calculation, though the initial grade will remain on the permanent transcript record. Students may only receive federal financial aid when retaking a course if it is the first time they have retaken the course and if the original grade in the course does not meet the minimum grade requirement for a student's program.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Cornerstone University and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are committed to a high standard of academic honesty and integrity among its students. Academic integrity is absolutely necessary in the search for and advancement of truth. Dishonesty in any form (i.e., cheating on examinations or quizzes, plagiarism on papers, reports or thesis, and all other forms of compromise in academic integrity) is not acceptable. Penalties for academic dishonesty will be administered according to the following:

First offense – The penalty for first offense academic integrity violation includes failure in the course assignment or failure in the course; enrollment limitation; and academic probation for one academic year. Penalties are imposed by the individual faculty member and the academic dean. Continuing enrollment following such violation requires a letter acknowledging that one understands what constitutes an academic integrity violation, taking full responsibility for the present offense and pledging to avoid such conduct in the future. A meeting with the course professor and academic dean is also required.

Second offense – The penalty for second offense academic integrity violation includes failure in the course and suspension from program for one academic year. Penalties for second offense violations are imposed by the individual faculty member and academic dean. Readmission following a second offense violation requires a letter acknowledging that one understands what constitutes an academic integrity violation, taking full responsibility for the present offense and pledging to avoid such conduct in the future. Readmission will also require a meeting with the GRTS admissions committee and the meeting of all conditions stipulated in the letter of suspension. No coursework, internships or field education completed at other institutions during the period of suspension may be transferred to GRTS for credit or used to fulfill GRTS degree program requirements.

Third offense – The penalty for third offense academic integrity violation includes failure in the course and permanent suspension from program. Penalties for third offense violations are imposed by the individual faculty member and academic dean.

Students seeking to appeal academic integrity disciplinary decisions should consult and employ the policies and processes outlined in the GRTS Academic Catalog under the heading "Student Appeal Process."

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE

As a commitment to honor God's image in all people, rather than for political correctness, GRTS is committed to being a community that uses inclusive language with reference to all people regardless of gender, nationality, culture, social class or religion. With these commitments in mind, the seminary's inclusive language policy is as follows:

Persons in the community are expected to use inclusive language with reference to human beings in the conduct of courses, fulfillment of course assignments and patterns of communication in all facets of the work of the seminary. This means avoiding language that is explicitly or implicitly racist or sexist and avoiding “generic” uses of masculine terms or pronouns.

A few examples are:

- Use “humanity”, “persons” or “people” instead of “man” or “mankind.”
- When giving examples, vary the race and sex of the persons under discussion and avoid stereotypical descriptions.
- Avoid dogmatic generalizations about an entire culture, race, social class, denomination or religious group.

No complete list is possible or necessary in the seminary’s inclusive language policy but all faculty, staff and students agree to exercise care and attentiveness to this priority.

ACADEMIC TUTORING

Academic tutoring is available on a limited basis to students in need of academic assistance. Students struggling with the academic demands of the courses at GRTS should first communicate with their professors and academic advisor. Subsequently, they are encouraged to make an appointment with the designated tutor coordinator, and then notify the academic dean since all GRTS funded tutoring must be approved by the academic dean. Students on probationary status due to academic performance will be assigned an academic tutor and encouraged to take full advantage of this valuable resource. Typically, tutors will be area professionals with research and writing skills and/or upper level GRTS students who have excelled in coursework, possess the appropriate disciplinary expertise, and demonstrate the relational gifts essential to the task of tutoring.

SCHOLASTIC PROBATION, SUSPENSION AND DISMISSAL

Any student who does not achieve the minimum required cumulative grade point average of 2.50 after completion of nine credits will be placed on academic probation. Students placed on academic probation will be notified in writing immediately following the determination, usually at the close of an academic semester. Students on academic probation will not be allowed to enroll in more than six credits per semester; will not be allowed to enroll in distance education or independent study courses, and may be required to take remedial courses or work with an academic tutor.

Probation is not designed to punish students, but rather to serve as an indication to students that they are not progressing at a satisfactory rate towards graduation.

Students who, after one semester of academic probation, fail to achieve the minimum required cumulative grade point average of 2.50 will be academically suspended. Students placed on suspension will be notified of such action in writing immediately following the determination. Academic suspension means that the student will not be permitted to enroll in courses on a credit or audit basis throughout the duration of the suspension. Students on suspension may be considered for readmission after one semester. Readmission of suspended students will require the approval of the admissions committee. In addition, any student suspended for a second time will be dismissed from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, with no option for future enrollment. Student appeals concerning scholastic probation, suspension and dismissal judgments should be put in writing to the attention of the GRTS academic appeals committee within 10 days of the date of notification of the probation, suspension or dismissal. Judgments of the academic appeals committee are final.

STUDENT APPEAL PROCESS: ACADEMIC

On occasion, existing policy and/or faculty and administrative decisions can conflict with the academic interests of individuals. When such a situation occurs, the student should exhaust all options to resolve the academic conflict at the staff, administrative or faculty level. However, students wishing to appeal beyond the initial level are encouraged to write a letter of appeal. The letter should identify and explain the nature of the conflict, request a review of the judgment and/or action and provide a rationale for the appeal. The letter of appeal should be sent to the Academic Dean of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. For cases related to academic probation and suspension, the letter of appeal must be submitted to the academic dean within five business days of written notification of the probation or suspension status. Personal appointments with the academic dean on such matters may be scheduled only after a formal letter of appeal has been submitted. Upon receiving the appeal, the academic dean will engage in an investigation of the grievance and seek to foster an acceptable resolution. If an acceptable resolution to the conflict/grievance is not possible, the academic dean will coordinate a meeting of the faculty academic appeals committee. The committee will review the grievance and the facts of the case and render a judgment. The judgment will be rendered within 10 business days of receipt of the grievance, the response to the appeal will be in writing and all judgments of the faculty academic appeals committee are final.

LEARNING DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary and Cornerstone University will make reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities, in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The purpose of accommodation is to provide equal access to educational opportunities to students affected by disabilities, and the university does not intend that the standards be altered, nor that the essential elements of programs or courses be changed.

Students having documented disabilities may apply for accommodations through Student Disability Services (SDS), which is part of the Cornerstone University Learning Center located in Miller Hall on the main campus. Disability accommodations for students from the traditional Cornerstone University undergraduate program, Professional and Graduate Studies programs, and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are addressed centrally in SDS. Accommodations are granted on the basis of determined need and appropriate documentation of disabilities. Students must complete an application and submit appropriate documentation, which will be reviewed by the Accommodations Officer and the Accommodations Review Committee. Upon acceptance, the student will meet with the director of Learning Operations to develop an Individualized Student Accommodation Plan (ISAP) based on the ARC recommendations. Students will be given a green verification letter to give to their professors and students should schedule a meeting with each professor at the beginning of each semester to discuss their needs. In the event that students have questions regarding whether they are eligible for accommodations, how they might provide appropriate documentation of disabilities, or how they might handle a disagreement with a professor over questions of accommodation, the director of Learning Operations should be contacted immediately at 222.1596 or through e-mail at learning.center@cornerstone.edu. If a disagreement arises surrounding eligibility for services, or the manner in which a specific accommodation is being implemented, the student has a right to an informal and formal grievance procedure. A copy of the Grievance Procedures is available at the Learning Center in Miller Hall, or online at www.cornerstone.edu.

Please note that the process for determining eligibility for accommodations can take 5-6 weeks. Students should complete an application and submit appropriate documentation well in advance of the semester in which accommodations are required to begin. To be deemed appropriate documentation, testing and assessment of disability must have been completed no more than 3 years prior to the application for accommodations at Cornerstone University.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE: STANDARDS OF ACCREDITATION

As a member in good standing with The Association of Theological Schools (ATS), Grand Rapids Theological Seminary affirms the value of accrediting standards. These standards foster attention to good practices within graduate theological education, providing a structure and guide for institutional integrity, accountability, self-assessment and improvement. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to honoring these standards in the process and product of its endeavors in theological education. If a student identifies a violation of the accrediting standards of The Association of Theological Schools, it is encouraged to bring this matter to the attention of the GRTS Academic Dean. If compliance with the accrediting standard is not achieved in a reasonable and credible manner, the student can bring this grievance to the attention of the accrediting agency. Specifically, the grievance should be made in writing and a copy should be sent to the academic dean. The grievance should be mailed to the following address: The Association of Theological Schools, 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15275-1103. ATS staffers can also be reached by calling 412.788.6505.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Applicants who are transferring from other accredited graduate schools or seminaries are required to have official academic transcripts sent directly to the director of graduate admissions from all schools previously attended. This is a condition for admission. Transfer credit evaluations are conducted during the admission process, although formal transfer of credit is not posted to the students academic record until after the admission process is complete. Students will be notified in writing concerning the results of a transfer credit evaluation. Transcripts from foreign institutions will be evaluated by an outside agency. The student will be responsible for following the procedure required by that agency. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary will accept a maximum of 50 percent of the selected degree program requirements through transfer credit, or through a combination of transfer credit and advanced standing, completed within 10 years prior to graduation at GRTS.

Transfer of credits will be limited to the following types of schools:

1. All regionally accredited institutions.
2. All Association of Theological Schools (ATS) institutions.
3. All Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE) institutions.
4. Non-accredited institutions, if those institutions supply to the director of graduate admissions three letters of acceptance from regional, ATS or ABHE accredited institutions.
5. Those non-accredited institutions due to the nature of their relationship with Cornerstone University.

Students planning to take courses at other institutions for transfer into their degree program at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary should contact the assistant registrar for Grand Rapids Theological Seminary to verify the acceptance of these courses. Transfer credit will not be given for remedial or non-graduate level work or for any course in which a grade lower than a C was received. Grade point average does not transfer with the transfer credits.

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary does not guarantee the State of Michigan, or any other authority, will recognize transfer courses from other institutions for purposes of state licensure in counseling.

ADVANCED STANDING

Advanced standing credit is available to new students for certain undergraduate courses completed within 10 years prior to graduation at GRTS. These courses must be completed at regionally accredited institutions, institutions accredited by the Association of Biblical Higher Education, and other institutions approved by Cornerstone University. In keeping with accrediting standards (The Association of Theological Schools), GRTS limits advanced standing credits to 1/4th of the graduate degree program. Consideration for advanced standing credit is limited to 300/400 level undergraduate courses in which a grade of "B" (3.0) or better was achieved in an equivalent course. Evaluative judgment for advanced standing is made on the basis of examination in the content area or by assessment of a relevant sample of student work. New students have one calendar year from their original matriculation date at GRTS to apply for advanced standing credit. Credits granted by advanced standing will appear on the student's academic transcript and contribute to program completion, but will not be included in the student's cumulative grade point average calculation.

At GRTS, advanced standing is assessed and administered by two means. First, the granting of advanced standing credit is determined by way of examination. The GRTS faculty has identified a select grouping of courses for which advanced standing by examination is permitted. Advanced standing exams will be offered at the beginning of each semester. Faculty member approval is required to sit for an advanced standing exam. New students are encouraged to work with an admissions representative to coordinate this process. A non-refundable $50.00 fee, payable to GRTS prior to taking the advanced standing exam, is charged for each exam administered. All advanced standing exams will be graded on a pass/fail basis. Students are limited to one attempt on any given exam.

Second, the granting of advanced standing credit is also determined by assessment of sample student work from the relevant undergraduate course. In these cases, students are responsible to provide the GRTS professor with a copy of the undergraduate course syllabus and all course related assignments, submitting an electronic copy of documents wherever these are available. In turn, the professor will review the sample student work to assess student knowledge and competency in the given content area based on parity in content and methods with the seminary course for which advanced standing is sought. New students are encouraged to work with an admissions representative to coordinate this process. A non-refundable $50.00 fee, payable to GRTS prior to the completion of the advanced standing assessment, is charged for each assessment administered. All advanced standing assessments will be graded on a pass/fail basis.

COURSE SCHEDULING

All GRTS students are responsible for the development of their own course schedules and should monitor the progressive fulfillment of program requirements. Faculty advisors are available to assist in answering questions and providing informed insight into the various scheduling options. Appointments with faculty advisors can be scheduled through the seminary office. Course schedules for Summer and Fall semesters will be available in February, since registration for these enrollment periods occurs in early March. Course schedules for Spring semester will be available in September, since registration for this enrollment period occurs in late October. A four-year course planner is available at the seminary office to aid students in program planning. GRTS course schedules are distributed to GRTS students in advance of registration and are available on the university website (see Registrar's Office). Degree audits are also available through the Registrar's Office to aid students in program management.

TEN YEAR RULE

In keeping with the policies of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS, A.3.2.2), Grand Rapids Theological Seminary limits the use of credits towards the completion of a degree to those credits completed within 10 years prior to degree completion. This includes transfer credits, advanced standing credits and credits earned while enrolled at GRTS.

DISTANCE EDUCATION

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary limits the use of online/distance education courses to a maximum of eight courses per degree (excludes Ministry Residency I-IV, Counseling Practicum, and Counseling Internships I and Counseling Internship II). For purposes of distinguishing resident courses from online/distance education courses, resident courses require at least 51 percent of the instructor driven learning (20.5 hours for a 3 credit course) to occur in situations where both faculty and students are in person on the main school's campus or approved extension.

SECOND DEGREES

Students who have completed a first master's degree at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary or another accredited graduate school or seminary, and are seeking a second master's degree from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are eligible to utilize a maximum of 50 percent of the credits from the first degree towards the completion of the second degree and must complete at least 50 percent of the requirements for the second degree through new courses.

CHANGE OF DEGREE PROGRAM

Students seeking to change degree programs (e.g., M.Div. to the M.A. or vice versa) or concentration must secure prior approval from their academic advisor and the academic dean. The Change of Degree form is available at the GRTS office.

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. For full-block courses, courses meeting one time per week, a maximum of one absence will be allowed without grade implication for work conflicts, sickness, scheduling conflicts and all other reasons. For split-block courses, courses meeting twice per week, two absences will be allowed without grade implication. Exceeding the allowable absences noted above carries grading implications according to the chart below. Students should communicate with the course professor concerning anticipated absences (planned or unplanned) in advance of the session in which the student will be absent. Three tardies will equal one absence. After 15 minutes, it is regarded as an absence.

Individual professors may implement an alternative attendance policy within their courses. When the attendance policy embedded within a given course syllabus differs from the institutional attendance policy, the policy listed within the given syllabus is authoritative.

Full-Block (meet once per week)

- 1 absence – no grade reduction for course
- 2 absences – 1 letter grade reduction for course
- 3 absences – 2 letter grade reduction for course
- 4 absences – "F" course letter grade

Split-block (meet twice per week)

- 1-2 absences – no grade reduction for course
- 3-4 absences – 1 letter grade reduction for course
- 5-6 absences – 2 letter grade reduction for course
- 7 absences – "F" course letter grade

FINAL EXAMS

The Cornerstone University Registrar develops, publishes, and distributes semester exam schedules several months in advance of the exam dates. Students are obligated to attend the exam sessions as published. No exceptions will be made to the published dates, times, and locations. This is a University wide policy that is strictly enforced.

INCOMPLETES

A student is expected to complete all work within the semester. If an incomplete is deemed necessary, permission must be obtained from the professor and the academic dean. Students who are granted an incomplete are ineligible for Dean's List consideration for the semester in which they receive the incomplete. Grade changes from the fall semester must be turned into the Registrar's Office no later than March 15. Grades changes from the spring semester must be turned in no later than Aug. 1 and from summer school no later than Nov. 15. Every effort should be made to have incomplete work completed in the shortest time possible following the close of the academic term in which the work is taken. Incompletes will be assigned an "F" grade after the above dates. The time limit for a student to complete the required course work resulting in the change of an "F" to another grade is one calendar year from the receipt of the initial incomplete.

DROP/ADD

Courses may be dropped or added without penalty during the first week of classes. After the first week of classes, courses cannot be added and refunds for courses dropped will be calculated using the chart listed under "Withdrawal Refunds." In regards to course drops, courses will be treated as follows on the student's official record:

Before end of Drop/Add

No record on transcript

Before end of 10th week

W – no effect on grade point average

After end of 10th week

W/P or W/E

W/P – no effect on grade point average

W/E – treated as “F” for grade point average

After end of 14th week

W/E – treated as “F” for grade point average

(no W/P option)

COURSE WAIVER

In order to preclude repetition of previously mastered material, students may apply to waive such a course and replace it with another course. Approval for course waiver is granted by the professor who teaches the duplicate course and by the academic dean. Waivers are processed electronically by faculty as Academic Policy Exceptions (APE's).

AUDIT POLICY

Course audits are permitted under certain conditions and with a set of specific implications. The cost to audit a course is the equivalent of one graduate credit. A course may be changed from audit to credit or credit to audit during the drop/add period only (first week of semester). The extent of participation in the given course by an auditing student should be arranged in advance between the student and the course professor. Auditing language based courses requires professor approval. Auditing students are given secondary priority in accessing courses when course caps are achieved. In some cases, auditing students will be withdrawn from a course to make room for full-pay enrollments.

WITHDRAWAL

A student who wishes to withdraw must complete a withdrawal form, available from the seminary office. To complete the withdrawal process, the student should return the completed withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office. Failure to do this will result in the student receiving an “F” in the related course or courses. In addition, any student leaving school during the semester without completing the official withdrawal process will be academically suspended.

WITHDRAWAL REFUNDSWithdrawal from Individual Courses:

Students who do not officially withdraw from a course will receive a failing grade for that course. Students withdrawing from individual courses will receive refunds based upon the following schedule:

One week or less	100% of tuition
Second week	86% of tuition
Third week	80% of tuition
Fourth week	73% of tuition
Fifth week.....	66% of tuition
Sixth week	60% of tuition
Seventh week.....	53% of tuition
Eighth week	46% of tuition
Ninth week.....	40% of tuition
More than nine weeks	No refund

Appropriate adjustments will be made to financial aid programs following formulas mandated by federal, state and institutional regulations. Students whose enrollment status (i.e., full time, 3/4-time, 1/2-time) would change if classes were dropped should consult with the Student Financial Services Office to determine the extent of these adjustments.

Withdrawal from the Institution:

Tuition refunds for students who withdraw from the seminary during the course of the semester, as well as those who are dismissed or suspended, will be computed as follows:

One week or less	100% of tuition
Second week	86% of tuition
Third week	80% of tuition
Fourth week	73% of tuition
Fifth week.....	66% of tuition
Sixth week	60% of tuition
Seventh week.....	53% of tuition
Eighth week	46% of tuition
Ninth week.....	40% of tuition
More than nine weeks	No Refund

Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from the institution during the semester may be required to return a portion of the aid to the appropriate programs. A calculation will be made based on the student's withdrawal date to see what portion of the financial aid must be returned. Students may request a copy of the Refund and Repayment Policy from the Student Financial Services Office.

Federal Title IV Aid

If a student withdraws before completing 60 percent of the semester or period of enrollment, the institution must determine the percentage of Title IV assistance the student has earned. The percent earned is determined by dividing the total number of calendar days in the semester into the number of calendar days completed as of the withdrawal date. Any unearned amount must be returned to the Title IV program(s).

Institutional Aid

Institutional financial aid is reduced by the percent of the tuition and fees originally covered by the institutional aid. The student may retain an amount equal to the percent of the actual tuition and fees charged based on the withdrawal date. The remaining amount must be returned to the institutional programs.

CAMPUS VISIT

Selecting a school for graduate theological education is an important decision. You should consider academic quality, range of degree programs, theological orientation, location, job and housing markets and local church options. A great way to gather information for your decision is to visit the campus. The campus visit is designed to maximize your contact with faculty, administrative staff and current students. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers a number of Preview Events each fall and spring semester designed to give you a look at what God is doing at GRTS. If your schedule does not allow you to attend a Preview Event, we would be happy to schedule an individual visit for you. Contact the Admissions office at 800.697.1133 to schedule an individual visit or register for a Preview Event.

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers accommodations free of charge to prospective students and their families during scheduled campus visits.

Come and see for yourself why Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is an excellent choice for your graduate theological education. To arrange your campus visit, request additional literature or ask a question, please contact:

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary will consider for admission students with bachelor's degrees and a minimum 2.5 G.P.A. from the following types of schools:

1. All regionally accredited institutions.
2. All Association of Theological Schools (ATS) institutions.
3. All Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE) institutions.
4. Select schools accredited by the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS).
5. Non-accredited institutions, if those institutions supply to the Director of Admissions three letters of acceptance from regional, ATS or ABHE accredited institutions.
6. Non-accredited institutions approved on a case-by-case basis.

Application Process

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary admits qualified persons without regard to denomination or association, race, national or ethnic origin, age, sex or disability.

The seminary operates a "rolling" admissions process for all master's degree programs. You may apply to begin your program during any academic term – fall, spring, J-term or summer. Application for admission is encouraged 4-8 months in advance of your anticipated enrollment date.

The application due dates for the upcoming semesters are as follows:

- Fall 2013 semester: August 26, 2013
- Spring 2014 semester: January 13, 2014
- Fall 2014 semester: August 25, 2014

Acceptance for admission will be considered upon receipt of the following items:

1. Application for admission, located in the back section of the academic catalog or free of charge online at www.cornerstone.edu/grts-apply
2. Official academic transcripts from each undergraduate and graduate school attended
3. One Personal Reference Form
4. One Ministry Reference Form
5. Affirmation of the Statement of Faith and Lifestyle Statement (page 57), by checking the appropriate box in the Autobiographical Information section of the application form.

Transfer Students

Students who wish to transfer to Grand Rapids Theological Seminary should submit transcripts all credits previously earned, along with their application for admission. Credit is given for comparable work taken at other accredited seminaries, graduate programs or universities. By approval of the Dean, a maximum of 50 percent of the particular degree program requirements may be fulfilled through transfer credit. See paragraph on "Transfer of Credit" on page 48 for more information.

Readmission

Any former student who has not been enrolled for one semester or more must apply for readmission. The application for readmission should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the opening date of the semester enrollment. Official academic transcripts of all studies that have been completed in the interval must be submitted. Updated reference forms may also be required. Any student who has not been enrolled for more than 3 academic semesters will be required to submit a full application with all necessary supporting documents.

Non-Degree Enrollment

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary permits the enrollment of students seeking advanced education in Bible, theology, counseling or ministry, without a specific degree objective. These students are required to complete a Non-Degree Application, submit official academic transcripts from all previous undergraduate and graduate schools, and sign a general statement of Christian faith. Non-Degree students who possess an accredited undergraduate degree may take courses for graduate credit, while those without a baccalaureate degree will be limited to enrollment by audit. Students are permitted to take a maximum of 12 credits under the non-degree enrollment status. A maximum of 12 credits achieved under the Non-Degree enrollment status can be utilized in fulfillment of the requirements for a specific degree program.

Guest Students

GRTS welcomes guest students from other institutions for limited enrollment. A Non-Degree/ Guest Application with authorization from the home institution is required for admission. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that the home institution will accept the transfer credits. Upon the completion of a given course, an academic transcript can be requested from the Registrar's Office for the transfer of credits to the home institution.

ADMISSION STATUS

Full Admission

An applicant is given full admission to Grand Rapids Theological Seminary when the criteria for application and admission have been fulfilled. Applicants are notified concerning full admission on a rolling basis throughout the year.

In some cases, students can be admitted pending receipt of official documentation to complete their application file. The student's admission status is complete when all documentation arrives at the Seminary Admissions Office and meets all admission and degree program standards. The University reserves the right to reverse an admission decision if the documentation is inconsistent, or the admission and degree program standards are not fully met.

Conditional Admission

A limited number of students whose cumulative undergraduate grade point average does not meet the minimum degree program admission standard (2.5/4.0) may be granted conditional acceptance upon the recommendation of the GRTS Admissions Committee. In such cases, the conditions of the conditional acceptance and terms for the removal of this status will be provided to the student in writing during the admission process and monitored by the Academic Office. Students enrolled on a conditional admission basis will be limited to a maximum of nine hours per semester. Those students admitted on a conditional admission basis must achieve a minimum 2.5 grade point average. See the section "Scholastic Probation, Suspension and Dismissal" on page 47 for more information.

REGISTRATION

The registration process provides seminary students with the opportunity to meet with their faculty advisor, to select and register online for courses in the upcoming enrollment period, and to plan how they will complete the remaining requirements of their particular degree program. For continuing students, online course registration occurs each semester on the published dates (See "Academic Calendar"). The Seminary Admissions Office staff will assist new students in course selection and registration during their initial period of enrollment.

Once registered, each student will receive a tuition bill. Each student should then settle his or her financial obligations by doing one of the following: paying in full at the Cornerstone University Business Office, partially paying according to the AES payment plan or coordinating financial arrangements with the Cornerstone University Student Financial Services Office. Students will be permitted to attend classes when course registration and financial balances have been finalized.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

At the beginning of each fall and spring semester, the Admissions Office hosts New Student Orientation for all first-time students. This orientation provides students the opportunity to meet staff, faculty, and students, and to gain information about campus technology resources, student identification cards, and more. Each student will also be able to meet with his or her faculty advisor individually. Every student should attend orientation in order to make the start of his or her seminary experience as smooth as possible. Please contact the Admissions Office for details. The Admissions Office will work with students beginning in the J-term or summer sessions to complete the orientation process. There will also be an orientation tailored for students starting in online classes.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary values the presence and contribution of students from the various cultures, countries and continents of the world. In an effort to improve our service to international students and to facilitate a smooth transition, international students are encouraged to begin their degree programs in the fall semester which begins in September.

Application Process

1. Pre-Application – Complete the pre-application form and submit it to the GRTS Admissions Office. After GRTS receives and approves your pre-application form, you will be prompted to continue the application process.
2. Official Application – Once your pre-application form has been approved, complete the official application for admission and all supporting documents including:
 - a. Ministry Reference
 - b. Personal Reference
 - c. Seminary Scholarship Application – all international students will be considered for the Timothy Scholarship, which would cover a portion of your costs.
 - d. Certification of Finances Form – This form will serve as evidence of financial support for the duration of your degree program. You will also need to submit letters of support from each group or individual that will provide financial assistance. Each supporter will need to submit 3 months worth of bank statements demonstrating their ability to meet their commitment. Bank statements should be from the three most recent months.

- e. Transcripts – Official transcripts must be sent directly from your undergraduate institution to GRTS. Transcript equivalency will be determined by GRTS.
- f. English Language Proficiency: GRTS accepts scores from TOEFL or IELTS. TOEFL – International students who are not lifetime residents of Australia, Canada (other than Quebec), New Zealand, United Kingdom, or the United States (other than Puerto Rico) are required to demonstrate their proficiency with the English language by submitting TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) scores taken within one year of the admission application date. GRTS requires a minimum TOEFL score of 577 written, 90 internet based, or 233 computer based for admission. Information about the TOEFL may be obtained from TOEFL, P.O. Box 6154, Princeton, NJ 08541-6154, USA or www.est.org/toefl. The Grand Rapids Theological Seminary TOEFL institution code is 1253.

International students can choose to submit IELTS (International English Language Testing System) scores instead of a TOEFL score. GRTS requires a minimum score of Band 7 for admission. Information about the IELTS test may be obtained from IELTS International, 825 Colorado Blvd., Suite 112, Los Angeles, CA 90041, or www.ielts.org.

3. Registration – After you have been accepted to GRTS, the admissions staff will register you for classes (provided registration has begun).
4. Tuition Deposit – Once you have been accepted for admission, you will be required to send a tuition deposit of at least the cost of your first semester's tuition and fees. This will be approximately $6,000 for the 2013-2014 academic year. If for any reason you do not enroll as planned, all of the funds will be returned to you and your supporters immediately.
5. Student Visa – After receiving your tuition deposit, we will send you a Certificate of Eligibility for Non-immigrant Student Status. This form is more commonly called the I-20. You will then apply for your student visa at your country's consulate office. You will also need to take the following to the consulate:
 - a. A valid passport – must be valid for a period that extends six months past the last date you expect to be in the USA (which will be your expected date of graduation).
 - b. Proof of sufficient finances – your completed Student Financial Support form, letters of support from each supporter and copies of bank statements verifying that those funds are available.

- c. Proof of English proficiency – citizenship in English-speaking country or TOEFL examination scores.
6. Travel – If you are planning to begin class in the fall, you should plan to arrive in Grand Rapids, Mich., between Aug. 29-Sept. 1, 2013. This will give you time to get acquainted with the school and the city. It will also allow you to get settled before the beginning of classes. You should plan to attend New Student Orientation on Tuesday, Sept. 3, 2013.

Employment

International students are allowed to apply for on-campus jobs when available. Students will not be able to work more than a total of 20 hours per week (even if employed in more than one job) and will only be allowed to work if you will not displace a U.S. citizen according to U.S. ICE regulations. The Admissions Office will assist you in applying for a U.S. Social Security number which will be needed to begin working. International students are not permitted to work off-campus without authorization.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 requires institutions to obtain written consent from a student prior to releasing information from the student's education record to most sources outside the university. Schools are allowed to release directory information that includes name, address, e-mail address, phone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees and awards, cumulative hours, participation in officially recognized sports and weight and height of athletes. As an enrolled student, you have the right to restrict the release of directory information. To restrict the release of directory information, contact the Registrar's Office.

STATEMENT OF FAITH AND LIFESTYLE STATEMENT

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary seeks applicants who demonstrate commitment to Christ and evidence the new birth, possess gifts for ministry and service, have earned a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university and affirm the following doctrinal statement which is in common with the creeds of the early church, the confessions of the Reformation and all conservative Evangelical Christians. This confessional commitment is required of students for admission, degree candidacy and graduation:

Cornerstone University affirms a core confession of convictions in common with the creeds of the early church, the confessions of the Reformation and all conservative Evangelical Christians.

1. We believe that the Bible is the word of God, truth without error, clear and powerful in its message, sufficient for all of our needs, and final authority for faith and life.
2. We believe in the triune God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — who is holy, loving, good, wise and almighty; who has created all things by his word out of nothing, who sustains, provides for and rules all things, who is our only redeemer and who will judge all people.
3. We believe that God created men and women in his image and likeness for fellowship with himself and to carry out the creation mandates; that Adam sinned and that by his disobedience the entire race was alienated from God, depraved and totally lost.
4. We believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, who added full humanity to his perfect deity, obeyed God perfectly, died for our sins on the cross, rose again to defeat Satan and returned to heaven to pour out the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and to intercede for his people.
5. We believe that the triune God has provided a great salvation for those who repent of their sins and trust Christ and his finished work; that he calls, regenerates, justifies, forgives, adopts, sanctifies, keeps and will glorify them.
6. We believe in the Holy Spirit who has been sent to complete and perfect in us all of the works that Jesus did for us. He convicts of sin, regenerates, sanctifies us, gifts us for ministry and assures us of our salvation.
7. We believe in the personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ, the bodily resurrection and final judgment of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting, conscious punishment of the lost.

Students, by virtue of their enrollment, agree to live within the framework of the school's standards of conduct. While some may not have personal convictions concerning all of these standards, agreeing to them obligates the student to assume responsibility for honorable adherence to them while enrolled at the seminary. It should, of course, be understood that any behavior, either on campus or away, which indicates that a student has disregard for the spirit of the schools standards would be sufficient reason to ask him/her to withdraw from the school.

Students of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, agree to:

1. Honor biblical teaching in order to maintain a right relationship with God, people, and creation. Exhibit integrity in academic pursuits, professional work, personal finances and relationships.
2. Practice discernment in the areas of media and entertainment. Avoid behaviors clearly prohibited in Scripture including but not limited to drunkenness, immoral sexual behavior, lying, and stealing.
3. Support Cornerstone University's commitment to maintain an alcohol-free and tobacco-free campus. This means that the consumption of alcohol or use of tobacco will be prohibited in, on, and around all campus properties and at University events. Due to the public and personal health hazards posed by tobacco, students shall avoid the habitual use of tobacco.
4. Actively participate in a local evangelical church.

FINANCIAL AID

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary provides financial aid to students who can benefit from further education but cannot do so without assistance. GRTS also seeks to recognize students with exceptional abilities in the areas of academics, leadership and ministry enactment. It is important to keep in mind that the primary responsibility for financing a graduate theological education rests with the student. The Cornerstone University Student Financial Services Office, along with the Seminary Admissions Office, is committed to assisting students in receiving the maximum amount of financial assistance for which they qualify under federal and institutional programs. Students enrolled in five or more credit hours per fall or spring semester are eligible to apply for institutional and federal grants, scholarships and loans. Students seeking consideration for grants, scholarships and loans must file the Seminary Scholarship Application and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on an annual basis. Cornerstone University's code is 002266. Priority consideration for awards is granted on an annual basis to those who apply by March 31 for the fall semester and November 15 for the spring semester. FAFSA applications can be submitted online at: www.fafsa.ed.gov.

It is important that all requested information for institutional and federal aid is submitted in a complete and timely manner. Failure to do so will create delays. Once all requested information is received, the Student Financial Services staff will conduct an evaluation of the file and determine the student's eligibility for gift aid and federal loan eligibility. Notification is sent to students informing them of their awards.

Conditions for the receipt of an institutional endowed or restricted scholarship include attendance at the Legacy Dinner and the writing of thank-you notes to the donor or donor representatives. Further details will be provided to scholarship recipients.

Enrollment Status

A student's enrollment status is used for determining federal eligibility and for reporting enrollment information for loan deferment eligibility, insurance eligibility, etc.

Institutional financial aid is calculated based on a financial aid enrollment level rather than the official full-time/part-time enrollment status. Contact the Student Financial Services office for more information regarding these levels.

Enrollment status for state and federal aid eligibility is as follows:

Program	Full-Time	Half-Time
GRTS	9	5
Th.M.	8	4

PAYMENT OF BILLS

Pay in Full: Payment due dates for each semester will be indicated on the semester bill.

Payment Plan: Students may choose to pay in four or five equal monthly installments. Fall semester payment due dates are the 5th or 20th of each month, August-December, depending on the payment plan chosen. Spring semester payment due dates are the 5th or 20th of each month, January- May, depending on the payment plan chosen. There is a payment plan fee of $50 per semester. Students who do not pay as arranged on the payment plan may be excluded from using the payment plan in succeeding terms.

Late payment fees may be added to accounts not paid as arranged. Accounts are expected to be paid in full before taking examinations, obtaining transcripts, receiving diplomas or registering for a succeeding term.

WITHDRAWAL REFUNDSWithdrawal from Individual Courses:

Students who do not officially withdraw from a course will receive a failing grade for that course. Students withdrawing from individual courses will receive refunds based upon the following schedule:

One week or less	100% of tuition
Second week	86% of tuition
Third week	80% of tuition
Fourth week	73% of tuition
Fifth week	66% of tuition
Sixth week	60% of tuition
Seventh week	53% of tuition
Eighth week	46% of tuition
Ninth week	40% of tuition
More than nine weeks	No refund

Appropriate adjustments will be made to financial aid programs following formulas mandated by federal, state and institutional regulations. Students whose enrollment status (i.e., full time, three-quarters time, half-time) would change if classes were dropped should consult with the Student Financial Services Office to determine the extent of these adjustments.

Withdrawal from the Institution:

Tuition refunds for students who withdraw from the seminary during the course of the semester, as well as those who are dismissed or suspended, will be computed as follows:

One week or less	100% of tuition
Second week	86% of tuition
Third week	80% of tuition
Fourth week	73% of tuition
Fifth week	66% of tuition
Sixth week	60% of tuition
Seventh week	53% of tuition
Eighth week	46% of tuition
Ninth week	40% of tuition
More than nine weeks	No refund

Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from the institution during the semester may be required to return a portion of the aid to the appropriate programs. A calculation will be made based on the student's withdrawal date to see what portion of the financial aid must be returned. Students may request a copy of the refund and repayment policy from the Student Financial Services Office.

Federal Title IV Aid

If a student withdraws before completing 60 percent of the semester or period of enrollment, the institution must determine the percentage of Title IV assistance the student has earned. The percent earned is determined by dividing the total number of calendar days in the semester into the number of calendar days completed as of the withdrawal date. Any unearned amount must be returned to the Title IV program(s).

Institutional Aid

Institutional financial aid is reduced by the percent of the tuition and fees originally covered by the institutional aid. The student may retain an amount equal to the percent of the actual tuition and fees charged based on the withdrawal date. The remaining amount must be returned to the institutional programs.

INSTITUTIONAL GRANTSGrand Rapids Theological Seminary Grant

The seminary provides a limited amount of financial assistance to qualified new and returning students through the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary Grant. This grant is awarded on the basis of demonstrated financial need and enrollment status. In-residence study and at least half-time enrollment (five hours per semester) are required.

Priority consideration will be given to students who file the Seminary Scholarship Application and FAFSA between Jan. 1 and March 31. Late applications for financial aid will be accepted until the first week of the fall semester for new students. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary Grants will be awarded on a rolling basis until the funds have been exhausted. The Seminary Scholarship Application and FAFSA information are available at www.cornerstone.edu/grts.

INSTITUTIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Students who are enrolled in five or more credit hours are eligible to apply for scholarships by submitting the FAFSA and the Seminary Scholarship Application.

assistance toward a cross-cultural mission opportunity. Applicants may also be required to submit an essay and/or meet with a GRTS administrator.

LOANSFederal Stafford Direct Loan Program

Eligibility for the Federal Stafford Loan is determined through the submission of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This federally insured loan program is available to all qualified degree-seeking students enrolled at least half-time at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Students who are awarded unsubsidized loans are responsible for paying the interest while in school, which accrues from the date of disbursement. Repayment of both principal and interest begins six months after the student ceases at least half-time enrollment or graduates. Loan promissory notes can be completed online at www.studentloans.gov.

Statement of Educational Purpose

To receive federal financial aid, a student must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student. The student must sign a statement indicating that all federal financial aid will be used for expenses related to study at Cornerstone University.

Statement of Refund and Default

To receive federal financial aid, a student must not owe a refund or an overpayment of any federal grant or loan. A student must not be in default on any federal student loan or must have made satisfactory arrangements to repay any such defaulted loan, and also have not borrowed in excess of the loan limits under federal student loan programs at all institutions previously attended.

Selective Service Registration

Male students who are United States citizens or permanent resident aliens born after Dec. 31, 1959, are required to comply with Selective Service registration regulations prior to receiving federal financial aid.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

To remain eligible for financial aid, a student must have maintained Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in accordance with the following guidelines:

Qualitative Requirements

The student must maintain a minimum 2.5 cumulative grade point requirement. Cumulative G.P.A.'s are monitored at the end of each semester.

1-20 credits completed	2.25 G.P.A.
21-40 credits completed	2.42 G.P.A.
41-ABOVE credits completed	2.49 G.P.A.

Quantitative Requirements

A student must complete his/her program within a period not greater than 150% of the normal program length (measured in credit hours). A student who receives financial aid is required to maintain the following pace to ensure progression towards the 150% completion requirement:

CUMULATIVE HRS. ATTEMPTED	MINIMUM % COMPLETED
1-24	65%
25-48	70%
49+	75%

SAP and all related criteria are evaluated at the end of each academic term.

All regularly accepted and continuing students who do not meet either/or both of the above requirements will be placed on financial aid warning. After a semester on financial aid warning, students still not meeting the criteria will have their financial aid suspended.

If a student suffers unusual circumstances and would like to appeal the financial aid suspension, he/she must submit to the Academic Dean a written explanation regarding noncompliance with these criteria. The Academic Dean will then determine the academic status of the student. If it is determined that the student is making SAP, the student will be placed on financial aid probation. The Student Financial Services office will then consider eligibility for financial aid based upon the availability of funds and financial need.

Repeated Courses

Federal rules allow a student to receive federal aid for a course more than once as long as it is not a result of more than one repetition of a previously passed course or any repetition of a previously passed course due to the student failing other coursework. A repeated course will be counted towards the 150% maximum time frame.

Please contact the Student Financial Services Office for a complete copy of the SAP policy.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Verification Process

Verification is a process whereby the validity of the data reported is confirmed through the submission and review of specific documents. If the student is selected for verification, aid will not be awarded until the process is completed.

Federal Student Loan Deferment

Deferment of Stafford Direct Student Loans is available to most students enrolled for degree seeking graduate study. Approval of a Stafford Student Loan deferment will necessitate student enrollment of at least five credits per semester (classified as at least half-time). The Stafford Student Loan Deferment Form should be processed through the Cornerstone University Registrar's Office. The loan deferment form cannot be certified by the Registrar's Office until after the student has begun classes.

Veterans Benefits

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary cooperates with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs in processing benefits for the education of honorably discharged service members. Veterans who wish to use the benefits should apply at www.va.gov. After submitting the application to the VA, students need to complete the VA Benefit Form that can be obtained from the Student Financial Services office or online. The grade point average of veterans will be monitored at the end of each semester. Veterans who are placed on academic probation and fail to come off probation within two additional semesters will be reported to the Department of Veterans Affairs. This action may result in termination of benefits by the Department of Veterans Affairs. If benefits are terminated, the veteran may reapply to the seminary for reinstatement of the benefits after the probationary status has been removed. Veterans entering as transfer students will be provided a written statement of the number of credits accepted in transfer and the number of required credits remaining to complete the program. The Cornerstone University Student Financial Services Office will also provide a copy of this information to the Department of Veterans Affairs. This information will be provided to the student prior to submission of the enrollment certification for veterans' benefits and will be based on the student's stated educational goals. This transfer credit evaluation may be subject to change should the student decide to change degree program or major/concentration.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT SERVICES

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers a range of services to students, spouses of students and alumni. These academic and non-academic services are intended to foster personal spiritual transformation, leadership development and aid students in achieving their intended educational and vocational goals.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Cornerstone University Alumni Association is comprised of graduates from the associate, baccalaureate, master and doctoral degree programs. Non-degree alumni are individuals that have achieved 36+ semester hours in the undergraduate program or 12+ semester hours at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary or within the Professional and Graduate Studies. The CU Alumni Association exists to serve alumni in their roles as influencers for Christ by developing connections, facilitating celebrations and encouraging contributions. The Association will support and partner with alumni through opportunities to expand relationships, grow as lifelong learners and engage with the mission of the university by serving with their individual giftedness.

ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE OFFICE

The Cornerstone University Accounting and Finance Office is located in the Administration Building and accepts payments for all student accounts. This office provides check-cashing services and parking tags to students with a valid identification card. The hours of operation are posted at the Accounting and Finance Office.

CAMPUS SAFETY

The primary mission of the Cornerstone University Department of Campus Safety is to proactively ensure the personal safety and welfare of our students and staff, protect the assets of our campus citizens and University, and provide a variety of services to the campus community as well. The Department of Campus Safety is a 24/7/365 dispatch and patrol operation based in Faber Hall. For general or emergency contact dial 0 (zero) from any campus phone or 616.949.5300 from any other phone. Internal and external Code Blue emergency phones are located throughout our campus. Services include vehicle battery boosts, vehicle lockouts, airing up low tires, and tow truck contact assists. Campus Safety also provides routine foot and vehicle patrols of the campus, responds to calls and investigates incidents. Campus Safety personnel are trained in first aid and equipped to respond to campus medical incidents in conjunction with the appropriate local 9-1-1 organizations. Campus Safety works in partnership with campus citizens. We encourage everyone to be proactive and vigilant with us. We request that any concerns be reported immediately.

All students are required to carry their student ID cards when on campus and present them when requested by an officer. All student vehicles must be registered for each academic semester and the appropriate vehicle parking permit properly displayed on the vehicle's windshield. Vehicles are registered at the Accounting and Finance Office located in the Administration Building. Detailed information regarding Campus Safety, campus rules and regulations, and other pertinent safety information is available through the Cornerstone University Web site and the Cornerstone Eagle's Nest Portal.

CAREER SERVICES

Career Services provides services to assist students as they prepare for careers. Career Services is located in upper level Corum Student Union and is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. After hours, appointments can be scheduled by calling 616.222.1433 or e-mail at career@cornerstone.edu.

Career Development

The services related to career development are best described in three steps:

Step One – This first step involves assessing all aspects related to the student's career choice. Assessments that cover interest, skills, abilities, characteristics, values, gifts and talents are used. These attributes comprise the student's career identity. While discussing the results of these assessments, the Career Services staff recommends a variety of optional career opportunities to explore. Information regarding the necessary academic credentials for the particular career is also provided.

Step Two – Closely related to step one, this second step is also exploratory in nature. The student is given the opportunity to research career alternatives by reading, talking to people in the career, and doing informational interviews. The student is encouraged to experience the career through volunteering, part-time work, and job shadowing.

Step Three – The student will begin to develop self-marketing strategies by learning how to write a resume and cover letter, effective interviewing skills, self-presentation and body language, building a network within their career field, attending job fairs, doing an internship, and seeking opportunities through other resources available through the Career Services office.

Employment Opportunities

Career Services has part-time, full-time, and summer employment listings available at its Web site. A person must sign up on the job posting site to access job listings. The Career Services listings include many ministry related opportunities, as well as positions available while attending Seminary. Additional ministry related employment opportunities are posted in the lounge area of the Wood Seminary Building.

Ministry Referral Service

Career Services provides a ministry referral service to churches looking for senior pastors, associate pastors or ministry leaders looking for specific ministry positions. Students interested in this service visit the seminary Web site.

International Students

International students are encouraged to apply for on-campus jobs. They will not be able to work more than a total of 20 hours per week (even if employed in more than one job) and will only be allowed to work if they will not displace a US citizen, according to US I.C.E. regulations. The Seminary Admissions Office will assist international students in applying for a US Social Security number, which will be needed to begin working. Off-campus employment is allowed on an extremely limited basis in the event of financial distress. In that case, the student will need to apply with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.

CARL B. HOCH, JR. BOOK ROOM

Named in honor of its founder and a former GRTS New Testament professor, the Carl B. Hoch, Jr. Book Room provides Grand Rapids Theological Seminary and the Cornerstone University community with the finest resources for biblical, theological and ministry scholarship. Seminary textbooks and supplemental theological literature is available at competitive rates. The Book Room is located in the Wood Seminary building and operates according to a posted time schedule.

COMPUTER ACCESS

The primary computer laboratory for GRTS students is located on the first floor of the Wood Seminary Building. Additional computer laboratories are available to seminary students in Bolthouse Hall and Miller Library. Hours of access will be posted at each location. Individual student access (user name and password) is arranged for all new students at the outset of the semester. A computer training session is included in the new student orientation. Difficulties with individual access, file management and printing within the Wood Seminary Building computer lab should be directed to the GRTS office staff, located in Faculty Offices of the seminary building.

COUNSELING SERVICES

While the graduate school experience is exciting, it also can be stressful, filled with transitions, challenges and growth. Self-evaluation tools and links to information that can help with many of these issues can be found on the Counseling Services Web site. Referrals to off campus professional resources are available by calling the director of Counseling Services at 616.222.1533.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

The Student Financial Services Office is committed to assisting students in receiving the maximum amount of financial assistance they qualify for under federal, state and institutional programs. The university catalog has additional financial aid information. Please refer to the "Financial Aid" section for details on applying for aid and on specific aid programs.

If further information is needed, contact the Student Financial Services Office, located in the Ketcham Building. Appointments with a financial aid professional can be made between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday by calling 616.222.1424.

INSURANCE

Cornerstone University offers a student injury and sickness insurance plan to all students of the University, including the students of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. This is a premium based plan. Interested students can obtain an insurance brochure from Cornerstone University Health Services. Applications can be submitted with payment to the insurance company within 30 days of the beginning of each semester.

HOUSING ARRANGEMENTS

Off-Campus Housing

The greater Grand Rapids area offers a wide range of housing options for the seminary student. Housing costs are quite reasonable compared to national averages. A guide to many of the apartment complexes in the area is available on the GRTS website.

MILLER LIBRARY

Miller Library is an attractive and comfortable facility that provides independent learning resources for both Cornerstone University and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Group study rooms are available and wireless access to the Internet is provided. Miller Library's collection includes approximately 160,000 books and audiovisual items, 250,000 microfilms, 800 print periodical subscriptions, and full-text online access to at least 27,000 other journals. Miller Library also houses the university archives, the Cornerstone Writing Center, and the Curriculum Materials Center for teacher education students. Book discussion groups, guest lectures and visiting exhibits are part of the library's outreach program. The library also provides electronic access off campus to some 46,000 ebooks. Students have access to over 150 research databases such as ATLA Religion, CSA, JSTOR, Credo Reference, and Academic One File. The library's website is an excellent resource that serves as a gateway and guide to a world of information. Students also have access by a shared online catalog to our sister library at Puritan Reformed Seminary on Leonard Street. Research assistance for GRTS students is provided by a full-time theological librarian. Students are encouraged to visit Miller Library's Web site at www.library.cornerstone.edu.

MINISTRY REFERRAL

The seminary offers an online referral system called MinistryConnect, a system that allows students, alumni and ministries to make connections for potential ministry residency opportunities. In addition, this service will serve the community by offering alumni and friends of the seminary the opportunity to connect with ministries seeking ministry leaders, and vice versa. MinistryConnect allows us to support our GRTS students, recent graduates and alumni as they seek ministry roles locally, nationally and globally. MinistryConnect strengthens our ability to encourage connection of the right people with the right ministries. Students and alumni can access MinistryConnect through the GRTS Web site.

REGISTRAR SERVICES

The Cornerstone University Registrar's Office is located in the Administration Building and offers various services related to the maintenance of student academic records. The Registrar Office staff is available to assist students in registering for courses, acquiring or mailing official academic transcripts, acquiring an individualized degree audit, evaluating and processing advanced standing and/or transfer credit from other institutions, and posting grades. Hours of operation are 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. during the academic year and 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. during summer months.

SPOUSE BENEFIT

The spouse educational benefit is intended to provide spouses of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary students with opportunities to participate in the theological educational experience in order to promote a shared pilgrimage of growth and learning. The spouse of a Grand Rapids Theological Seminary student, regardless of prior academic record, is entitled to one free audit class for every 12 semester hours accumulated and/or enrolled by the degree-seeking student. The benefit is limited to one free audit course per semester and a maximum of four free audit courses per individual. This audit opportunity provides for class attendance only, course work will not be submitted or graded and there will be no official academic record. The benefit does not extend to courses available by extension and is not financially applicable to courses taken for credit. These courses may be taken during or immediately following any semester in which the degree-seeking student is enrolled. Each participating spouse is required to process a Spouse Benefit Form with the Seminary Academic Office in advance of each semester of audit enrollment. In addition, each participating spouse is required to submit a non-degree application to the Seminary Admissions Office.

STUDENT APPEAL PROCESS NON-ACADEMIC

On occasion, existing policy and/or faculty and administrative decisions can conflict with the interests of individuals. When such a situation occurs, the student should exhaust all options to resolve the conflict at the staff, administrative or faculty level. However, students wishing to appeal beyond the initial level are encouraged to write a letter of appeal. The letter should identify and explain the nature of the conflict, request a review of the judgment and/or action and provide a rationale for the appeal. The letter of appeal should be sent to the Dean of Students at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Personal appointments with the Dean of Students on such matters may be scheduled only after a formal letter of appeal has been submitted. Upon receiving the student appeal, the Dean of Students will engage in an investigation of the grievance and seek to foster an acceptable resolution. If an acceptable resolution to the conflict/grievance is not possible, the Dean of Students will coordinate a meeting of the faculty student appeals committee. The committee will review the grievance and the facts of the case, and render a judgment. The judgment will be rendered within 10 business days of receipt of the grievance, the response to the appeal will be in writing, and all judgments of the faculty academic appeals committee are final.

STUDENT SENATE LEADERSHIP TEAM

The Student Senate Leadership Team (SSLT) is a representative group of GRTS students selected annually by the Dean of Students to serve the needs of the entire student body. SSLT members serve the student community by coordinating resources, services and events. The central aims of the Student Senate Leadership Team are:

1. To assist students with academic and non-academic concerns as they enter and progress through study at GRTS.
2. To promote student involvement and perspective in the community of learners and scholars at GRTS.
3. To foster a sense of community appropriate to a graduate theological education context.
4. To coordinate fellowship and spiritual growth opportunities among and between students and faculty at GRTS.

ENRICHMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Chapel

The chapel experience is central to the life of the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary community. The seminary provides one chapel session per week for faculty and student participation. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary chapel provides opportunity to worship God as a graduate theological community, model Biblical preaching and interact with mission and parachurch representatives.

Thursday Evening Bible Class (TEBC)

Annually, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers the community a Fall Bible teaching series through the Thursday Evening Bible Class. These biblical lectures are delivered by faculty of the seminary and typically run from 8-12 weeks. Several hundred individuals from the community attend each series, representing a variety of Christian denominations and associations.

Talking Points

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary provides continuing education opportunities for students, alumni and area ministry leaders through Talking Points. With an event offered each Fall semester, Talking Points engages critical issues relevant to theological thought and ministry practice (i.e., exegetical, theological and ministry practice) through lectures, panel discussions and round table discussions. GRTS faculty and other regional and national figures serve as the facilitators and presenters for these events.

Women's Studies Lecture Series

Annually, GRTS offers an evening event featuring a guest lecturer who addresses topics relevant to the study of women and gender roles from a theological and psychological perspective. The purpose of this series is to provide a forum where students, faculty and friends of GRTS can engage in an open dialogue about the connection between Christian worldview and gender reconciliation. The guest lecturers contribute sound information to help people become more informed and aware of identity issues for women, and how all individuals can seek unity regarding these issues. Each of these evening events involves a lecture followed by Q & A, and concludes with a dessert buffet to provide a time of fellowship.

EXEGETICAL / BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

The Bible Division of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to the fundamental importance of Scripture in ministry. Pastors, missionaries, educators and other Christian workers must be able to interpret and apply Scripture for effective ministry in the modern world.

The Old Testament and New Testament departments offer courses in the background, languages, books and themes of the Bible. The objective of these courses is to develop a methodology for lifelong biblical study. Seminary studies are an introduction to the disciplines that are necessary for exegetically accurate and culturally relevant Bible exposition. Therefore, the exegetical/biblical theology courses provide the formative tools and skills students will need for ministry. The student must sharpen these tools and skills through continued study and ministry beyond seminary.

OLD TESTAMENT

The Old Testament department seeks to equip students with foundational knowledge and skill in interpreting and applying the Hebrew Scriptures. Depending upon the specific program of studies, courses focus upon learning biblical Hebrew, the primary language of the Old Testament, developing skills in exegeting biblical texts, understanding the historical and cultural worldview of the Old Testament and tracing the historical development of key concepts of Old Testament biblical theology. Specific studies are offered in the various parts of the Old Testament in the context of God's completed revelation.

NEW TESTAMENT

New Testament studies seek the fundamental skill of enabling the student to make reasoned judgments about the meaning of the New Testament text. Such skill includes the knowledge of biblical languages, the historical background of the text, the principles for interpreting the text and the skills to apply these tools. The key theological ideas of the New Testament are traced through their historical development in the text.

COURSES

BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics 3

An introduction to the process of determining the original meaning and contemporary significance of biblical texts. The course includes lecture, discussion and individual research. This course is available both on campus and by distance education, and must be completed within the first 15 credits of enrollment.

BBL-502 Old Testament Biblical Theology 3

A study of Old Testament history, literature and theology with emphasis upon the historical development of key concepts of Old Testament biblical theology. This course is available both on campus and by distance education.

For students with Hebrew, the course involves exegesis of selected portions of Hebrew text. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics
- BBL-635 Former Prophets 3
A study of the message of the books of Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings (English texts) in their contexts, with emphasis on interpretive method as well as the importance of these books for understanding the history of ancient Israel and the trajectory of the biblical story of redemption. For students with Hebrew, the course involves exegesis of selected portions of Hebrew text. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics.
- BBL-637 Minor Prophets 3
A study of the message of selected Minor Prophets in their original contexts (English text), with emphasis on interpretive method as well as relevance for spiritual formation and engagement with contemporary culture. For students with Hebrew, the course involves exegesis of selected portions of Hebrew text. The following two groupings are offered regularly. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics.
- Amos and Hosea*
A study of the message of two prophets who ministered as judgment dawned on the northern kingdom, calling Israel back to its covenantal obligation to social justice and loving devotion to God.
- Micah, Zephaniah, Habakkuk*
A study of the message of three prophets who served at crisis points in the history of the southern kingdom, calling the nation's leadership to account and offering hope to the faithful remnant who suffered in the face of national calamity.
- BBL-640 Old Testament Studies I: Introduction to Hebrew Exegesis 3
An introduction to the methods of Hebrew exegesis, including textual criticism, syntactical and discourse analysis, and lexical studies, with further development of skills in translating and understanding Hebrew narrative. Prerequisite: BBL-516 Hebrew I and BBL-517 Hebrew II.
- BBL-641 Old Testament Studies II: Exegesis in the Pentateuch 3
A study of the content and biblical theology of Genesis through Deuteronomy, including exegesis of selected texts from various literary genres. This course engages questions of composition, ancient history and culture, New Testament correlation, contemporary challenges to religion and ethics in the Old Testament, as well as the relevance and communication of the canonical message of these texts to contemporary culture. Prerequisite: BBL-640 Old Testament Studies I.
- BBL-642 Old Testament Studies III: Exegesis in the Prophets and Writings 3
A study of the content and biblical theology of Joshua through Malachi, including exegesis of selected texts from the Prophets, Psalms, and wisdom literature. This course engages questions of composition, ancient history and culture, New Testament correlation, as well as the relevance and communication of the canonical message of these texts to contemporary culture. Emphasis is placed on the message of Isaiah, Psalms, and selected wisdom themes. Prerequisite: BBL-640 Old Testament Studies I.
- BBL-650 Gospel of John 3
Study and analysis of the purpose, structure, emphases and significance of the English text of the fourth Gospel. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics
- BBL-651 1 Corinthians 3
A detailed study of the text of 1 Corinthians with emphasis on the relevance of this epistle for the contemporary church. This course is available both on campus and by distance education. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics
- BBL-672 New Testament Studies I: Introduction to Exegesis 3
An introduction to the theory of translation and practice of exegesis. Selections in the Pauline epistles are used to apply grammatical and hermeneutical principles of Greek exegesis. The life and writings of Paul are introduced. Prerequisites: BBL-510 Greek I and BBL-511 Greek II

BBL-677 New Testament Studies II: The Gospels

An introduction to the study of the Gospels, emphasizing exegetical method. Students will become aware of the rudiments of historical, source, form, redaction and literary critical methods. They will also develop their own skills in the exegesis of Gospel texts with a view to biblical theology and the ministry of the word. Prerequisites: BBL-510 Greek I, BBL-511 Greek II and BBL-672 New Testament Studies I: Introduction to Exegesis or permission of the instructor

BBL-678 New Testament Studies III: The General Epistles

An introduction to the study of the general Epistles (Hebrews-Revelation), emphasizing Greek exegesis and biblical theology. Students will consider the historical setting of these books and develop their exegetical skills by working with selected texts. Growth in doing biblical theology and expository ministry is also targeted. Prerequisites: BBL-510 Greek I, BBL-511 Greek II and BBL-672 New Testament Studies I: Introduction to Exegesis or permission of the instructor

BBL-742 Biblical Aramaic

Guided translation and exegesis in selected texts. The student will improve exegetical skills, read widely in constructive approaches to biblical criticism, and will write an exegetical commentary on a selected text.

BBL-870 Grammar and Translation

The student will be expected to have a working knowledge of Greek grammar and to have translated the entire Greek New Testament.

BBL-872 New Testament Introduction and Historical Background

The student will be expected to know the basis, history and methodology of textual criticism. The student must have a general awareness of those significant historical developments from the Persian period through the Bar Kokhba's revolt which form the backdrop for the New Testament.

BBL-874 Exegesis of the Gospels and Acts

The student will sight-read the Greek text and discuss the exegetical issues with the major professor. He/she will also prepare a list of major exegetical problems for each book.

BBL-876 Exegesis of the Pauline Epistles

The student will sight-read the Greek text and discuss the exegetical issues with the major professor. He/she will also prepare a list of major exegetical problems for each book.

BBL-877 Exegesis of the General Epistles and Revelation

The student will sight-read the Greek text and discuss the exegetical issues with the major professor. He/she will also prepare a list of major exegetical problems for each book.

BBL-880 Enrichment

The student will select, with the guidance of the academic advisor, an enrichment module outside the program major.

BBL-890 Th.M. Thesis

The student will write a 60-100 page thesis on a significant and approved topic in the major field. The thesis format should be governed by A Manual For Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations (current edition) by Kate Turabian, along with supplemental materials and/or instructions provided by the seminary. The thesis will be supervised by a thesis advisor and defended before a faculty committee. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional fee of $115.00 for thesis review and binding.

HISTORICAL / SYSTEMATIC / PHILOSOPHICAL / MORAL THEOLOGY

Building on the foundation of exegesis and biblical theology on the one hand and the context of the proclamation of the Gospel to the whole world on the other, the courses in this department aim at integration and wholeness. This division serves the other divisions by reminding them of the total context of the Bible as developed by God's people in the history of the church and in contemporary cultures. This task is accomplished in historical, systematic, moral and philosophical theology.

Historical Theology

This department emphasizes the history of Christian thought rather than institutional history. The focus is upon the church struggling with the meaning of Scripture and defending itself against attack by means of an increasingly full and accurate statement of theological truth as it proclaims the Gospel in worship, prayer and witness. These courses address post-canonical Christian thought. The leading thinkers, documents, ideas and movements are examined in their historical context. Students gain an understanding of their Christian heritage and evaluate examples of theology in historical and cultural contexts.

Systematic Theology

Building upon exegetical theology, biblical theology and historical theology, systematic theology aims at a logical synthesis of the major themes of the Bible in the context and language of contemporary cultures. The systematic theology sequence confronts the student with theological methodology and the content and interrelationships of the individual doctrines. It is fundamental to the rest of the theological curriculum. Students without formal biblical courses should take BBL-502 Old Testament Biblical Theology and BBL-503 New Testament Biblical Theology. Students who have completed upper level systematic theology in college may, with the approval of the departmental chairman, be permitted to move directly into the theology seminars.

Moral and Philosophical Theology

Moral Theology is a logical and coherent synthesis of the imperative statements of the Bible on the foundation of systematic theology. These courses aim to present a biblical alternative to legalism, antinomianism and natural theology.

Philosophy has a significant contribution to make to the Christian thinker. It tests and challenges confused and inconsistent theological thought, and it forces theology toward precision and consistency. It provides language to express theology. It drives theology toward the wholeness of a Christian worldview.

COURSES

THE-501 Program Introduction Seminar 2

This course serves as an introduction to graduate theological education at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. It prepares students for the rigors of graduate scholarship by honing the skills of graduate research, reading and writing. Embedded within the course are the administration of several entering student assessment instruments. This course is generally required for resident students within the first semester and must be completed by all students, with the exception of Master of Arts in Counseling students, within the first 15 credits of enrollment.

THE-515 Historical Theology I: The Early Church 3

The church from the close of the New Testament canon through Augustine in the West and the council of Chalcedon in the East.

THE-516 Historical Theology II: The Medieval Church 3

The medieval church, primarily in the West, from Augustine through the forerunners of the Reformation.

THE-517 Historical Theology III: The Reformation Church 3

The reformation and post-reformation church from Martin Luther through the Puritans.

THE-518 Historical Theology IV: The Modern Church 3

The modern church from the first Great Awakening to the present.

THE-540 Systematic Theology I:
Invitation to Theology 3

This course introduces and practices a metanarrative for doing theology. The biblical narratives and propositions are heard in the context of the story that begins with creation, is centered in Jesus' first coming and reaches its culmination in the new heavens and earth. The doctrines of the Scriptures and God are studied, and the foundation laid for THE-640 Systematic Theology II and THE-641 Systematic Theology III.

THE-572 Christian Worldview 3

An elaboration of the Christian perspective upon all of life and reality with emphasis on basic matters such as method, being, knowing and doing. This course is available both on campus and online.

THE-584 Thesis Readings: Theology 1-3

An independent readings course in preparation for writing a master's thesis in a focused area of theological study. The student will read approximately 2,000 pages and structure a thesis proposal under the guidance of a thesis advisor and in accordance with seminary standards for form and style. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.

THE-640 Systematic Theology II:
Christian Worldview 3

This course continues our metanarrative theology by examining the Christian story of creation, fall, redemption and consummation, with special attention given to the nature and task of humanity, the distortion of the world through sin and the redemptive work and person of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. Prerequisite: THE-540 Systematic Theology I

THE-641 Systematic Theology III:
Kingdom of God 3

This course will examine in detail the doctrine of salvation (soteriology), the church (ecclesiology), the basic elements of pastoral theology (internal and external call to the ministry, ordination, ministry of the word and sacraments, church discipline and pastoral spiritual formation) and the four last things (death, judgment, heaven and hell). Prerequisites: THE-540 Systematic Theology I

THE-673 Moral Issues in Christian Life and Ministry 3

This course will help students apply the processes of critical moral reasoning to various problems commonly encountered in pastoral care, spiritual direction and Christian counseling. Prerequisites: THE-540 Systematic Theology I and THE-640 Systematic Theology II.

THE-792 M.A. Thesis 3

The student will write a 50-75 page thesis under the supervision of a faculty thesis advisor on a significant approved topic in the major field. The thesis format should be governed by A Manual for Writers of Papers, Theses and Dissertations (current edition) by Kate L. Turabian, along with any supplemental materials and/or instructions provided by the seminary. Registration for this course requires advisor approval. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional fee of $90.00 for thesis review and binding. Prerequisite: THE-584 Thesis Readings: Theology.

MASTER OF THEOLOGY COURSES

Master of Theology courses are research-based, involving regular meetings with a professor for guidance and evaluation. The guided research and reading is particularized to the specific goals of each student in the program.

THE-810 Philosophy and Methodology of History 4

This course contains two components. First, it studies the major philosophies of history and of church history with a view to the student's development of a philosophy of historical theology. Second, it introduces the methods and tools of historical-theological research.

THE-811 The Early Church 4

Broad reading of primary and secondary literature from the close of the apostolic age to the Council of Chalcedon.

THE-812 The Medieval Church 4

Broad reading of primary and secondary literature from the Council of Chalcedon to the Fifth Lateran Council.

THE-813 The Reformation Church 4

Broad reading of primary and secondary literature from Martin Luther through the Puritans.

THE-814 The Modern Church 4

Broad reading of primary and secondary literature from the Enlightenment and the 18th century awakening to the present.

THE-840 Theological Prolegomena 4

A study of the nature, necessity and method of systematic theology and its relationship to encyclopedia and the ministry of the church. This is set in the context of a study of theological language, the problem of evil and the relationship of theology to the sciences, tradition, mysticism, religion and verification.

THE-841 Theological Systems: Historical 4

The student will study one of the great theologians with a view to understanding historical setting, assumptions, center, structure, interrelationships and influence.

THE-843 Theological Locus 4

The student will develop one of the eight theological loci to demonstrate ability to do systematic theology. This will include the place of that locus in systematic theology (the method, the turning points and the structure).

THE-844 Special Studies in Systematic Theology 4

Intense study of a theological theme based upon the student's interest and/or need.

THE-845 Theological System: Personal 4

The student will produce the outline of his/her theological system with attention to assumptions, center, order and inter-relationships.

THE-880 Enrichment 4

The student will select, with the guidance and approval of the academic advisor, an enrichment module outside the program major.

THE-890 Th.M. Thesis 6

The student will write a 60-100 page thesis on a significant and approved topic in the major field. The thesis format should be governed by A Manual For Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations (current edition) by Kate Turabian, along with supplemental materials and/or instructions provided by the seminary. The thesis will be supervised by a thesis advisor and defended before a faculty committee. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional fee of $115.00 for thesis review and binding.

MINISTRY THEOLOGY

The courses in Ministry Theology enable the student to integrate biblical and theological studies into a philosophy of ministry for Christian service in the multifaceted cultures of our contemporary world. Ministry Theology encourages the student to bring all other biblical and theological study to bear on doing theology through the proclamation of Scripture, the spiritual formation of believers and the extension of biblical witness to the cultures of our world.

Pastoral Ministries

The Pastoral Ministries concentration is intended to develop the skills of preaching, governance and counseling. Organizational Leadership (MIN-510) is basic to the concentration with added skills developed in preaching, administration and relational skills. Electives in this concentration enable the student to pursue breadth for ministry.

Educational Ministries

The Educational Ministries curriculum is intended to develop the basic competencies necessary to engage effectively in the church's educational mission of making disciples. Course work is designed to enable the student to develop a distinctly Christian philosophy of education. Attention is given in each course to the understanding and application of contemporary educational theory in light of sound biblical exegesis and theology. A special effort is made to develop the competencies necessary to enact educational ministry in a manner relevant to given cultural and social contexts.

Intercultural Ministries

Studies in missiology focus on the propagation of the church's mission through communication of biblical truth with cultural understanding. A study of principles of church planting and church multiplication is necessary to an understanding of intercultural ministry. An analysis of other-culture living and ministry is imperative for field preparation. The study of intercultural development of church leaders is an integral part of establishing biblically sound churches.

COURSES

MIN-500 Christian Spiritual Formation 3

An investigation into the meaning of biblical Christianity and its relationship to faith and practice within contemporary cultural contexts. Special attention is given to the corporate dimensions of spirituality and spiritual formation. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional $150.00 for specialized course materials. The fee will be automatically charged to the student's account upon registration. This course is available both on campus and by distance education, and must be completed within the first 15 credits of enrollment.

MIN-510 Organizational Leadership 3

This course sets a foundational framework of knowledge and critical thinking skills needed to develop intercultural and international organizational leaders. Students examine theories, issues and skills of leadership, motivation, decision-making and communication from a transcultural biblical values perspective using case studies and texts. Class exercises apply skills in specific problem-solving situations that help identify requisite thinking processes and abilities necessary for transitioning ministries and organizations from leader to leader consistent with cultural norms and expectations.

MIN-525 Introduction to Chaplaincy 3

A foundational study of the chaplain ministry. This course is available on an individual basis and by special arrangement.

MIN-526 Basic Clinical Pastoral Education 3

One unit of basic clinical pastoral education accredited by the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education may be credited for three hours of field ministry or three hours in the pastoral concentration. Students wishing to take this unit must be approved by one of the area training centers. Information concerning application is available in the office.

MIN-529 Administration and Care of the Church 3

This course is designed to develop both knowledge and skill in administration and pastoral care of persons. Administrative principles are developed and applied to ministry. A second focus develops the pastor's ability to care for people in both individual and group settings. This course is available only by distance education

MIN-530 Pastoral Competencies 3

This course provides for the pastoral specialization an introduction to the broad range of skills that a pastor must develop in the everyday work of the ministry. This includes the administration of ordinances, conducting weddings and funerals, caring for the sick and grief stricken, ministerial ethics, church service development, a preaching calendar, knowledge of the annual liturgical calendar and church life, financial integrity in one's personal life, church staff and officers development, cultivating life habits of professional development and song leading capacity, along with numerous timeless items that contribute to the science and art of pastoral ministry. The student will have contact with regional pastors in the acquisition of these skills and attitudes.

MIN-534 Evangelism/Discipleship Ministries 3

This class is designed to develop the ministry leader's knowledge and skill in evangelism and discipleship ministries. The course will examine personal as well as corporate models of evangelism and discipleship.

MIN-543 Christian Formation in the Church 3

This course develops and serves as an introduction to understanding the nature and mission of formational ministry for the Church. Biblical, theological, historical, and developmental foundations allow students to form a coherent strategy for nurturing the whole faith community.

MIN-545 Teaching & Learning for Christian Formation 3

A consideration of the various factors which influence the teaching and learning process. Students will engage in a critical analysis of how faith is formed through the teaching ministry of the church. This highly interactive skills course allows opportunity to practice various methods of creatively teaching the Bible.

MIN-548 Teaching Ministry of Jesus 3

Adherents of various world religions agree that Jesus was a master teacher. An examination of first-century Jewish education may assist in gaining a clearer perspective on Jesus' own education and his strategy for advancing his mission. Careful attention will be given to the message, motives, motifs and methods of Jesus' teaching ministry with clues for Christian teaching today.

MIN-553 Sociology of Adolescence

The course is designed to foster an intellectual understanding of the evolution of adolescence in Western society and current influences that shape its constitution. Special attention will also be given to application of this understanding toward effective ministry with youth.

MIN-554 Theology of Women in Ministry

This course provides an in-depth opportunity for critical reflection about the roles of women in the church, home and community informed and governed by the text of scripture. Substantial attention is given to examining and defining issues related to gender, understanding the impact of culture on identity development and seeking what God intends for women in ministry. Further emphasis is placed on understanding a historical context that reflects the experiences of women throughout the ages beginning with studying the women of the Bible.

MIN-557 Introduction to Women's Studies

This course provides an introduction to the interdisciplinary field of women's studies from a Christian Worldview. A historical and global perspective will be emphasized that is based on a breadth of theoretical constructs. Students will also have an opportunity to learn and critically examine how culture is a part of influencing identity formation in women. Within this course the contributions of women throughout history will be studied and analyzed. This course is available only on-line.

MIN-560 Global Impact: Biblical Theology of Mission

This course is designed to help students develop a biblical theology of mission that shapes how the church intersects with the 21st Century world. Students will consider the essence of mission Dei (the sending of God) and of mission ecclesia (the sending of the church) as rooted in the biblical narrative. Simultaneously, students will consider global trends and the implications of those trends for life and ministry. Students will examine the validity of traditional and emerging models for global missions in light of the above.

MIN-565 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement

A comprehensive presentation of the tasks of world mission and evangelization through a development of the biblical, historical, strategic and cultural perspectives of Christianity in the world. The lectures are delivered by a variety of individuals with reputation in academic and ministry settings. This course is offered at Calvary Church in Grand Rapids and available to students through a cooperative agreement.

MIN-567 Missional Church: Church and Culture — Past and Present

This course is designed to provide a historical overview of the church's engagement with culture including and leading up to the recent cultural shift from modernity to postmodernity. As well as a historical perspective on the church and culture, the centerpiece of the course is a close-up look at the emerging cultural shifts and their influence on how the church should live out her mission.

MIN-584 Thesis Readings: Ministry

An independent readings course in preparation for writing a master's thesis in a focused area of ministry. The student will read approximately 2,000 pages and structure a thesis proposal under the guidance of a thesis advisor and in accordance with seminary standards for form and style. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.

MIN-625 Theology and Practice of Christian Worship

This course will examine the biblical basis for Christian worship and the major patterns of corporate worship and related devotional practices (public prayer and fasting) found in the early church, medieval period, Protestant Reformation, Puritan tradition, evangelical revival and contemporary Pentecostal and charismatic movements. Through critical reflection upon this historical material, students will develop an account of Christian worship, its structures and leadership which is relevant to their own church context and integrates theological and practical components.

MIN-630 Small Group Ministries

The design of this class is to give the pastor an understanding of group dynamics, to develop small groups in church ministry and to develop leadership skills in the congregation.

- MIN-636 Homiletics I 3
An introduction to homiletics with attention to philosophy and purpose. Emphasis is given to study of available methods for gathering the biblical and non-biblical materials needed for sermons. The course includes a laboratory that allows basic instruction and evaluation regarding the student's communication style in the homiletical situation. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics.
- MIN-637 Homiletics II 3
A concentrated study of the organization of sermonic material with emphasis given to its application in expository preaching. Various types of expository sermons are examined and attention is given to responsibilities related to the pulpit ministry. The laboratory allows instruction in and application of a variety of delivery techniques. Prerequisite: BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics and MIN-636 Homiletics I.
- MIN-640 Educational Ministries for Children 3
An investigation of the developmental aspects of children and societal influences on childhood. Special attention will be given to the church's and parent's task in nurturing Christian faith for this important age group. Students will also gain a foundational overview of leading and programming effective ministries for children.
- MIN-641 Theology of Youth Ministry 3
Students will seek to integrate a theologically-informed perspective with sound principles to create a philosophy of youth ministry. Special attention will be given to exploring how adolescent faith is nurtured.
- MIN-643 Educational Ministries for Adults 3
The course engages students in readings, critical reflection, on-line discussion, and reflective and critical writing in areas foundational to adult religious education. Consideration is given to the nature of knowing, adult learning theory, learner-centered teaching, diverse learning styles, and methods of instruction that facilitate adult learning. The course culminates for the student in the development of a written philosophy of adult religious education.
- MIN-644 Curriculum Planning 3
Analysis of the concept of curriculum planning with special focus on the local church context. The various curriculum models that have shaped contemporary thought are investigated with a view towards their suitability to Christian Education. A paradigm for producing a curriculum design at any level will be developed and the student will be expected to draft a curriculum design for a particular ministry application
- MIN-557 Introduction to Women's Studies 3
This course provides an understanding of the essential aspects of developing various ministries for women within the church and culture. An emphasis is placed on learning the process of building a ministry that is geared towards the specific needs of the women in the community being served. Administrative and leadership skills are addressed from a systems perspective. The student will learn how to assimilate, integrate and apply the organizational skills necessary for cultivating an innovative and successful ministry.
- MIN-660 Cultural Intelligence: Multicultural Understanding 3
This course is designed to give leaders an introductory grasp of cultural intelligence, a person's ability to adapt successfully to different national, organizational, and professional cultures. Literature from the fields of anthropology and sociology are used as well as studying cultural engagement in light of the biblical narrative, as a way to develop missional communities of incarnational ministry.
- MIN-667 Urban and Local Development: Exegeting Our Own Communities 3
This course studies the brokenness in our own neighborhoods and explores practical ways for the church to embody the gospel in response to social inequities like racism, inequitable distribution of wealth, illiteracy, abuse, etc. It considers the literature of urban transformation and the use of measures like casework, education, microlending/microenterprise development, etc.
- MIN-685 MR Ministry Residency I 2
The first course of four designed for the MR Ministry Residency. The student will get acquainted with their specific ministry culture. Through the student's ministry, interaction with their mentor, contact with other MR residents, and their own personal reflection, the student will lay a foundation for their journey in a ministry context while gaining feedback that will help them in preparation for ministry. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to articulate goals for personal growth and ministry competency; track and evaluate their time management; establish the discipline of journaling and reflection; apply regular feedback and guidance given from their mentor; and be relationally connected with their ministry context as they invest time and relational energy, establishing relationships and rapport. Prerequisite: Approval from the MR Executive Director.

MIN-686 MR Ministry Residency II 2

The second course of four designed for the MR Ministry Residency. This course builds upon the competency goals defined in MIN 686 and begins to explore ministry topics that pertain to small group dynamics, working with elders/boards, pastoral duties (leading communion), strategic planning and staff meetings. Upon successful completion of this course students will gain experience leading/facilitating a small group; become familiar with leading communion/a communion service; establish a ministry initiative and strategic plan for implementation; grow in interacting with staff members; and gain experience attending board/elders meetings. Prerequisites: MIN-685 Ministry Residency I. If MR site for MIN-686 is different than your previous site for MIN-685, you will need approval from the MR Executive Director.

MIN-694 Advanced Topics: Ministry 3

A formal class which addresses the interests of students and faculty. Courses may include current issues related to ministry practice and other subjects which call for special analysis.

MIN-711 Program Completion Seminar 1

This course serves to aid students in the transition from student life in the seminary to practice in vocational ministry. Particular focus is given to ministerial identity formation, resume development, ministry search process and resources, and ordination and licensure. Embedded within the course are the administration of several exiting student assessments. The course is required for most resident degree programs during the last semester of enrollment.

MIN-720 Advanced Clinical Pastoral Education 3-9

Up to nine hours of elective credit may be given for any of these three units. No more than a total of 12 hours will be given for basic and advanced units including hours of field ministry. Students wishing to take advanced units must have completed the basic unit and must be approved by one of the area training centers. Information concerning application is available in the office.

MIN-781 MR Ministry Residency III 2

The third course of four designed for the MR Ministry Residency. This course builds upon the competency goals of the previous two courses and attempts to extend ministry experience into areas of classroom teaching, board/elders meetings, pastoral duties (weddings), implementing a ministry initiative, leadership and pastoral counseling. Upon successful completion of this semester of residency, students will become familiar with preparing for and officiating a wedding; implementing a ministry initiative and strategic plan; learn to recruit, shepherd, and lead a team of volunteers serving their ministry initiative, and navigate pastoral counseling concepts and strategies. Prerequisites: MIN-685 and MIN-686. If MR site for MIN-781 is different than your previous site for MIN-686, you will need approval from the MR Executive Director.

MIN-782 MR Ministry Residency IV 2

The fourth course of four designed for the MR Ministry Residency. This course builds upon the competency goals of the MIN-781 and brings completion to the student's residency experience. The student's final semester as a MR Resident will focus in areas of personal solitude (through a one-day retreat), preaching, pastoral duties (funerals, dedications/baptisms), assessing and leading a developed ministry initiative, leadership development, "on call" counseling and referrals, gift assessment and strength finder, and summary evaluation of one's calling and next steps beyond formal ministry training. Upon successful completion of this course, the student will gain experience through preaching opportunities and receive feedback; prepare for and, if the occasion arises, lead a funeral service; prepare for and lead a baptism/dedication service; evaluate their ministry initiative and strategic plan and determine its next steps; evaluate and assess their spiritual gifts and leadership strengths; and intentionally schedule, plan and implement a personal, one-day retreat. Prerequisites: MIN-685, MIN-686, and MIN-781. If MR site for MIN-782 is different than your previous site for MIN-781, you will need approval from the MR Executive Director.

MIN-792 Independent Study: Pastoral Ministries 1-3

Supervised independent study for advanced students in Pastoral Ministries. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.

MIN-793 Independent Study: Educational Ministries 1-3

Supervised independent study for advanced students in Educational Ministries. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.

- MIN-794 Independent Study: Intercultural Ministries 1-3
Supervised independent study for advanced students in Intercultural Ministries. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.
- MIN-795 Independent Study: Chaplaincy 1-3
Supervised independent study for advanced students in the Chaplaincy ministry. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.
- MIN-797 M.A. Thesis 3
The student will write a 50-75 page thesis under the supervision of a faculty thesis advisor on a significant approved topic in the major field. The thesis format should be governed by A Manual for Writers of Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (current edition) by Kate L. Turabian, along with supplemental materials and/or instructions provided by the seminary. Registration for this course requires advisor approval. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional fee of $90.00 for thesis review and binding. Prerequisite: MIN-584 Thesis Readings: Ministry.

TESOL Program Option

The Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) program of Cornerstone University is designed to equip students with the knowledge and skills to teach English in local and international settings. The emphasis of courses in the TESOL program is on the practical aspects of teaching and ministry opportunities at home and abroad. Most courses in the program are offered on-line, with module courses offered on campus each summer. Courses from the TESOL program can be included within the Master of Arts in Intercultural Ministries, the Master of Divinity, or the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership degree program.

COUNSELING

Counseling addresses the need for persons to be competent to counsel in the context of the church's ministry to the community of the redeemed as well as to the unbelieving community. Counseling is a set of skills acquired through knowledge and practice. Competency in the use of these skills enables the practitioner to bring the content of biblical theology to the counseling situation. Persons competent to counsel in the context of church ministry should develop proficiency in doing theology which provides the content that the skill of counseling enacts in its ministry. The goal of this ministry concentration is to enact authentic Christian truth for the spiritual formation of the people of God.

COURSES

COU-500 Counseling Philosophy 3

The course aids the student in developing an integrated and comprehensive philosophy of counseling informed by a Christian Worldview. Personal beliefs that impact the delivery of counseling services are identified and critiqued. Discussions will include the roles of the counselor and client.

COU-501 Counseling Theories 3

This course provides a survey of various theoretical approaches to counseling. Students engage in research and offer a class presentation of a significant counseling theorist. Through study and interaction with the diverse theoretical models, students are given opportunity to evaluate the models and refine their personal counseling philosophy.

COU-502 Counseling Ethics and Issues 3

The course is a study of the legal requirements and ethical codes for the professional counselor. Discussions include problems commonly encountered within the counseling profession. Consideration is given to the challenges associated with the set-up and supervision of counseling practices and programs. This course also provides foundations for graduate level research and writing in the social sciences and theological disciplines, and it must be taken within the first 15 credits of enrollment in the Master of Arts in Counseling.

COU-510 Consulting 3

An introduction to theories and skills of working with clients during counseling sessions. Opportunities are provided for the development of helping skills through case studies and supervised practice. Emphasis is on students learning consultation skills to manage counseling session dynamics.

COU-520 Child and Adolescent Counseling 3

This course is designed to provide an understanding of the unique developmental issues of the child and adolescent years. Included are strategies necessary for a successful counseling ministry with these important groups.

COU-521 Marriage and Family Counseling 3

The course is focused on issues currently impacting marriage and family, including divorce and single parent situations. Consideration will be given to the subject matter from a theological, sociological, and psychological perspective. Students will perform basic research in this important area, and they will participate in learning activities that foster skill development and strategy formation.

COU-525 Multicultural Counseling 3

This course will examine substantive and theoretical constructs concerning the inherently complex dynamics involved in counseling people from diverse cultural contexts. An emphasis will be placed on expanding awareness about diverse cultures and personal bias in the effort to enhance cultural sensitivity and diffuse potential barriers in the counseling relationship and process. Current research about cultural specific issues will be addressed including race, ethnicity, socioeconomic class, gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation and disability.

This course is designed to help students learn the concepts and skills necessary to counsel women of all ages effectively. Counseling philosophy, theory and ethical standards are studied. The content includes a developmental framework exploring the various dimensions of a woman involving her cognitive, emotional, physical and spiritual health. Students will learn to be equipped to intervene with issues related to life adjustment and crisis situations.

COU-584 Thesis Readings: Counseling

The course is a guided readings and research course and serves as the foundation for writing a literature based master's thesis in the discipline of counseling. Under the guidance of a thesis advisor, the student will identify and justify a topic for study within the discipline, read approximately 2,000 pages related to the topic, and outline and draft a thesis proposal. The proposal must conform to the American Psychological Association (APA) format and must be approved by the thesis advisor to complete the course and before the student can proceed into COU-792. Registration for the course requires advisor approval and submission of the "special enrollments" form.

COU-601 Testing Procedures

An introduction to group and individual psychometric instruments. Commonly used personality tests are reviewed with suggested applications for counseling purposes. Principles of test assessment are highlighted.

COU-610 Counseling Techniques

An exploration of various methods useful during the counseling process. Included is an introduction to and evaluation of counseling approaches, techniques of rapport-building, problem assessment and diagnosis, and treatment plans.

COU-611 Career Development

This course seeks to prepare the counselor to facilitate client focused employment searches, career development, and professional and life coaching. Emphasis is given to understanding of and ministry to the unemployed and underemployed, and their families. Occupational and educational informative resources are included. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional fee of $50 for specialized course materials. The fee will be automatically charged to the student's account upon registration.

COU-612 Group Counseling Techniques

This course will focus on techniques of group counseling. A variety of group types and styles will be reviewed. Applications of the material are designed for use in a variety of group counseling settings. Group leadership skills will also be emphasized.

COU-651 Clinical DiagnosticAssessment of Addictions

This course will provide the clinical knowledge that is necessary to facilitate an initial intake and diagnostic orientation for the client in the counseling process. Students will learn the diagnostic skills necessary to administer a comprehensive and thorough evaluation for the purpose of determining effective treatment plans for clients who are suffering from diverse addictive and compulsive disorders. An emphasis will be placed on integrating and analyzing current research in the field of addictions counseling assessment from a Christian worldview. This course is administered through an online format.

COU-652 Sociology of Addictions

This course provides an introduction to the sociological perspective of addictions counseling by relying on studying systems perspective from a Christian Worldview. The environmental context of the client will be considered in order to promote cultural competence and an awareness of the sociopolitical and economic aspects of addictions. Special attention will be devoted to expanding awareness about collaboration, consultation, case management, client education, service coordination and how to develop a referral network in the community. This course is administered through an online format.

COU-653 Addictions Counseling:Treatment and Intervention

This course is designed to help the student become more knowledgeable about counseling philosophy, techniques, theory and professional/ethical standards that are most effective in counseling clients who have been diagnosed with an addictive or compulsive disorder. Current research about the most effective and practical theoretical counseling models that foster personal growth, recovery, healing and change are studied and critiqued from a Biblical perspective. There will be a concentration on documentation/record keeping, crisis intervention, treatment planning and the important aspects of clinical supervision. Students will also have an opportunity to learn and critically examine how their intrapersonal awareness can enhance the counseling process. This course is administered through an online format.

COU-660 Abnormal Psychology	3	COU-782 Practicum: Counseling	3
This course provides an introduction to the study of human psychopathology from a Christian Worldview. A broad array of theoretical perspectives about abnormal behavior as they relate to the definition, etiology, and treatment of mental disorders will be emphasized. Diagnostic classification, behavioral, and biological features of the major syndromes of psychopathology will be an integral part of the curriculum. This course is administered through an online format.		A supervised field ministry experience for students pursuing counseling careers. This course provides, on a limited basis, some of the activities that licensed professional counselors would be expected to perform. Opportunities in individual and group counseling, along with supportive ministries are included.
COU-662 Human Growth and Development	3	Prerequisites: COU-500, COU-501, COU-502, COU-510, and COU-610. Registration for this course requires advisor approval and the submission of the GRTS special enrollments form with attached proof of student liability insurance and signed code of professional ethics.
This course is designed to introduce students to a meaningful exploration of human development throughout the lifespan from a Christian Worldview. Core themes from the discipline of developmental psychology will be emphasized with consideration to a multicultural context. Special attention will be devoted to studying broad theoretical perspectives about the various aspects of optimal human development as well as factors that impede or diminish a persons' ability to thrive and flourish. This course is administered through an online format.		COU-784 Internship I: Counseling	3
COU-670 Diagnostic and Clinical Assessment of Mental Disorders	3	An extended supervised "field ministry" experience that allows the counseling student opportunities to practice all activities that a licensed professional counselor performs. Prerequisites: COU-500, COU-501, COU-502, COU-510, COU-610, COU-782. Registration for this course requires advisor approval and the submission of the GRTS special enrollments form with attached proof of student liability insurance and signed code of professional ethics.
This course provides an in depth study of the complex nature of the diagnostic process from a clinical and practical perspective with the use of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorder (DSM-5). Special attention will be devoted to cultivating the clinical skills necessary for Counselors to formulate a multiaxial diagnosis for clients that meet the criteria for mental disorders. Students will have an opportunity to develop a diagnostic framework from a Christian Worldview that will be foundational to learning the professional skills necessary for the treatment planning process. This course is administered through an online format.		COU-785 Internship II: Counseling	3
COU-700 Research Methods	3	An extended supervised "field ministry" experience that allows the counseling student opportunities to practice all activities that a licensed professional counselor performs. Prerequisites: COU-500, COU-501, COU-502, COU-510, COU-610, COU-782, prior completion or simultaneous enrollment in COU-784. Registration for this course requires advisor approval and the submission of the GRTS special enrollments form with attached proof of student liability insurance and signed code of professional ethics.
This course is a presentation of the basic research designs used by counselors. This course emphasizes the use of current studies and journals with particular emphasis upon critiquing journal articles.		COU-789 Advanced Topics: Counseling	3
COU-780 Field Ministry: Counseling	3-6	A formal class which addresses the interests of students and faculty. Courses may include current issues in counseling and other subjects which call for special analysis.
This supervised field education in counseling is intended to develop the student's competencies through ministry involvement in a local church or parachurch setting. The field ministry is coordinated under the direction of the Counseling Program Director. The student may fulfill this requirement during a given semester, over the summer months or through a combination of semesters. Registration for this course requires approval of the advisor and counseling program director.		COU-791 Independent Study: Counseling	1-3
		Supervised independent study for advanced students in counseling. Registration for this course requires advisor approval.
		COU-792 M.A. Thesis: Counseling	6
		Under the supervision of a thesis advisor, the student will write a 60-80 page literature-based thesis on an approved topic significant to the discipline and practice of counseling. The thesis should conform to the American Psychological Association (APA) format and must be approved by the thesis advisor and second reader for course completion. Registration for this course requires advisor approval and submission of the "special enrollments" form. Each enrolled student will be charged an additional fee of $90.00 for thesis review and binding. Prerequisite: COU-584 Thesis Readings: Counseling.

ONLINE COURSES

A wide range of courses are available to students through online delivery. These courses are generally applicable to the various degree programs at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. While the availability of specific courses varies, online courses are generally offered both Fall and Spring semesters, with some online courses available during the summer semester. In compliance with the accrediting standards of The Association of Theological Schools (ATS), students are limited to five courses completed online within their respective degree program. All of the online courses are created and offered by faculty of the seminary and delivered through the Odyssey learning environment.

X. CERTIFICATION AND SIGNATURE (to be completed by applicant)

Have you read, and are you in agreement with the Cornerstone Confession as found in the admissions section of the academic catalog?

☐ Yes ☐ No

Students, by virtue of their enrollment, agree to live within the framework of the school's standards of conduct. While some may not have personal convictions concerning all of these standards, agreeing to them obligates the student to assume responsibility for honorable adherence to them while enrolled at the seminary. It should, of course, be understood that any behavior, either on campus or away, which indicates that a student has disregard for the spirit of the schools standards would be sufficient reason to ask him/her to withdraw from the school.

Students of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, agree to:

1. Honor biblical teaching in order to maintain a right relationship with God, people, and creation. Exhibit integrity in academic pursuits, professional work, personal finances and relationships.
2. Practice discernment in the areas of media and entertainment. Avoid behaviors clearly prohibited in Scripture including but not limited to drunkenness, immoral sexual behavior, lying, and stealing.
3. Support Cornerstone University's commitment to maintain an alcohol-free and tobacco-free campus. This means that the consumption of alcohol or use of tobacco will be prohibited in, on, and around all campus properties and at University events. Due to the public and personal health hazards posed by tobacco, students shall avoid the habitual use of tobacco.
4. Actively participate in a local evangelical church.

Each student, by virtue of enrollment, agrees to comply with the policies, procedures, and regulations set forth in the Student Handbook and the Grand Rapids Theological Seminary Academic Catalog. The fulfillment of these expectations will to help create an edifying community life consistent with biblical values, thus helping implement the mission of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary.

I understand that GRTS reserves the right to perform a criminal background check on students of the university. By signing below I am authorizing the university to perform a criminal background check.

I understand that accounts not paid in accordance with school policies may be submitted to a collection agency. In addition, I understand that I am responsible for all collection costs if my account is submitted to a collection agency.

I certify that all my answers on this application are complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsifying any part of this application may result in cancellation of admission and/or registration.
