WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT
JOSEPH M. STOWELL
CORNERSTONE UNIVERSITY

Dear adult student,

A college education is more important than ever—regardless of our age. So, at Cornerstone, we are thrilled to offer the ongoing opportunity for an outstanding college education through our Professional & Graduate Studies division. We welcome you to an educational community of around 800 students who are enrolled in adult degree completion studies, master's degree programs or our doctoral program.

No doubt you are already busy with your job, retraining for a new career as well as being engaged in other life situations that consume much of your time. Given the impossibility of you uprooting to move on campus for a full-time educational experience, Cornerstone is delighted to provide you the opportunity to achieve an associate, bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree that is time-sensitive, accessible, affordable, professional and experiential...all from a Christian worldview.

At Cornerstone University, we value you as an adult learner. Our prayer for all of our adult students is that you will grow both academically and spiritually through your studies. As a Christ-centered university, it is our aim to empower all of our students to understand their world through the lens of a Christian worldview and learn to apply the values of Jesus Christ to our rapidly changing culture. In fact, we would love to think that you would encounter Jesus here in an eternally personal and life enriching way. And while these kinds of outcomes are worth far more than the degree, you will graduate with a fully accredited degree that will affirm your learning and growth as you seek to pursue the goals of your life and career.

All the best,

Dr. Joseph M. Stowell
President

ABOUT CORNERSTONE UNIVERSITY

Our Identity, Mission and Vision

Our Identity: Who We Are – Cornerstone is a Christ-centered university with a passion for global influence through the transforming power of the gospel.

Our Mission: Why We Exist – We exist to empower men and women to excel as influencers in our world for Christ by offering a student-focused learning community where Jesus Christ is central.

Our Vision: What We Aspire To – We aspire to create a thriving community of fully devoted followers of Jesus in a spiritually contagious, academically excellent, richly resourced and culturally diverse learning environment that attracts outstanding students, faculty and staff who influence our world for Christ, his church and his kingdom.

The Cornerstone Confession

The Cornerstone Confession is the foundational doctrinal statement of Cornerstone University, reaffirmed annually by Cornerstone trustees, faculty, and staff. The Confession expresses our commitment to the key teachings of Scriptures as interpreted through the ecumenical creeds of the early church, the chief insights of the Reformation, and evangelical Christianity.

We believe in one sovereign, omnipotent, and fully omniscient God who eternally exists in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—who in love and for his glory created all things out of nothing and pronounced them good.

We believe that God has revealed himself in the sixty-six canonical books of Scripture, which are verbally inspired, truth without error, and serve as our final authority in faith and life. They lead us to Jesus Christ, who shows us the Father, and rightly interpreted, they enable us to understand God’s revelation in humanity, nature, and history.

We believe that God directly created Adam and Eve, the historical parents of the human race, distinct from the rest of creation in their bearing of God’s image and their stewardship over creation. Their union as man and woman models God’s design for marriage and perpetually stands as God’s loving and righteous will for all sexual intimacy.

We believe that our first parents forfeited their original righteousness when they succumbed to Satan’s temptation and rebelled against God’s revealed will. As a result, every human is born in sin, leaving us totally depraved, alienated from God, and destined to spiritual and physical death. As such, our sinful ways have corrupted God’s creation, resulting in discord to society and nature.

We believe that God’s plan to redeem fallen humanity and renew creation flows through his promises to the Jewish people. God’s promises to Abraham and David are fulfilled in Jesus, the mediator of the New Covenant.

We believe that the Son of God, while fully divine, became fully human through the virgin birth to save the world from sin. Living a sinless life in perfect obedience to his Father, Jesus proclaimed God’s reign in word and deed. In his mercy he atoned for our sins by dying in our place. Having satisfied the just wrath of God on our behalf, he rose bodily and triumphantly over sin, death, and Satan. He then ascended to heaven, sent his Spirit to lead and empower his church, and is seated at the Father’s right hand where he reigns and intercedes for his people.

We believe that the Holy Spirit descended at Pentecost to establish the church; that he uses the Word of God to give new life to those who repent of their sin and believe in Christ; and that all who by faith alone receive Christ’s finished work are by God’s grace united with Christ, justified by his shed blood, adopted into the family of God, forgiven of all their sin, indwelt and gifted by the Spirit, and added to the church.

We believe that the one, holy, and universal church is the body and bride of Christ. The church gathers in local assemblies to worship God and celebrate the gospel through the preaching of the Word, baptism, the Lord's Supper, prayer, and fellowship. It disperses to proclaim the gospel to a sinful world which must hear the good news of Jesus Christ in order to be saved. The church makes disciples of Jesus who, through persevering faith, embody the kingdom values of righteousness, peace, and joy. By loving God, serving others, and caring for creation, they anticipate the redemption of all things at Christ's return.

We believe that our Lord Jesus Christ will personally and gloriously return to deliver this world from Satan's rule and bring his reign to its ultimate fruition. Jesus will raise the dead to stand with the living before his judgment throne where he will determine the final state of humanity. The lost will experience everlasting conscious separation from God as the just punishment for their sin, and the redeemed will be welcomed into the unhindered joy of everlasting fellowship with him.

History of Cornerstone University

Cornerstone University, an evangelical Christian university, is committed to equipping students to effectively engage the cultures of our world for Christ. As a multi-denominational school, Cornerstone University offers traditional and undergraduate programs, as well as adult undergraduate and graduate programs through the Professional & Graduate Studies division (PGS), Grand Rapids Theological Seminary (GRTS), and Asia Biblical Theological Seminary (ABTS). The school also produces Cornerstone University Radio.

Founded in 1941 as the Baptist Bible Institute, the school offered evening classes twice a week in the educational wing of Wealthy Street Baptist Church in Grand Rapids, Mich. Over the years, the school continued to flourish, eventually developing into a four-year Bible college and seminary.

Under the visionary leadership of Dr. W. Wilbert Welch, the school relocated to its current 132-acre campus in 1964. That same year, the college became a member of the American Association for Bible Colleges. In 1972, the school was approved by the State of Michigan as a degree-granting college of arts and sciences, and five years later, the Higher Learning Commission granted accreditation. In 1993, Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music was joined to the institution for the preservation of its rich heritage and academic records. Also that year, the school launched the Adult and Continuing Education (ACE) program to serve the adult populations of Michigan. The following year, the name of the institution changed from Grand Rapids Baptist College and Seminary to Cornerstone College and Grand Rapids Baptist Seminary (now Grand Rapids Theological Seminary). Finally, in 1999, the institution was renamed Cornerstone University.

In 2004, the Adult and Continuing Education program became the Professional & Graduate Studies (PGS) division of Cornerstone University. Since its inception, PGS has endeavored to empower the adult learner to influence the world by providing a distinctive and academically excellent education from a Christ-centered worldview. PGS impacts students worldwide, offering degrees at the associate, bachelor's, master's and doctoral level with ever-growing programs in the fields of business, education, ministry, human services, TESOL and psychology.

Cornerstone University continues to grow and provide a Christ-centered education under the direction of its 11th president, Dr. Joseph M. Stowell III. The university currently enrolls 2,800 students on an annual basis and holds memberships with the following organizations:

- Higher Learning Commission (since 1977)

Failure to adhere to these standards will result in disciplinary action up to and including suspension, dismissal and possible referral for prosecution. In addition to prohibitions agreed upon in the lifestyle statement, municipal, state and federal laws strictly outline penalties for the illegal use, possession or distribution of alcohol and drugs. Specific references to the laws are available in the Student Development office located in the Corum Student Union on campus.

Students who need help or know someone who would benefit from these resources may contact the dean of student services in Professional & Graduate Studies, the counseling center or health services for more information.

Sexual Harassment and Discrimination

Believing that we are made in God's image and that harassment, in any form, is a violation of a person and the body of Christ, Cornerstone University does not tolerate harassment based on race, color, gender, national origin, age or disability.

This university community is fully committed to the moral teachings of Jesus Christ and to fostering an environment in which all persons have equal opportunity to work and pursue learning freely, whether in group settings or in close relationships between students, faculty and staff. Therefore, in accordance with biblical principles the university forbids and condemns any covert or overt acts of abuse, assault, harassment, or intimidation which interfere with these affirmations and commitments.

All new students are required to take the online Campus Sexual Violence Elimination (SaVE) Act training course, which can be found on the CU Portal under the Handbooks, Catalogs & Policies section on the PGS page. The Campus SaVE Act is a federal law which requires colleges and universities to provide training about recognizing and preventing sexual violence.

Definition of Harassment

Harassment is defined as discriminatory insult, intimidation, or ridicule based on age, disability, ethnic, gender, or racial harassment. It has the purpose, effect and potential to create an intimidating, offensive, or hostile environment, including stalking violations of the State of Michigan law and local ordinances. Additionally, it can unreasonably interfere with an individual's performance.

Sexual harassment includes behaviors that contribute to or create a hostile environment serving no scholarly, artistic, or educational purpose. It also includes such behaviors as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- submission to such conduct is explicitly or implicitly made a term or condition of employment, instruction, or participation in any university activity;

- submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis of evaluation in academic or employment decisions; or
- such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's academic or work performance, or of creating a hostile, intimidating or offensive environment.

Other forms of sexual harassment include:

- generalized sexist remarks or behaviors, such as demeaning remarks or actions that are directed at individuals or groups based on their gender;
- offensive sexual remarks or behaviors, such as lewd, obscene, or sexually suggestive remarks or actions which would be deemed offensive by a reasonable person in that situation, including displays of sexually offensive audio and visual materials; and
- sexual advances without intimidation that are accompanied by a promise of reward or a threat of punishment.

A student who encounters a situation in which harassment is believed to be involved should submit a report (either oral or in written form) to the dean of student services or to any other Professional & Graduate Studies administrator with which the student can speak comfortably. All such complaints will be promptly and thoroughly investigated by the university. However, if a report is not made on a timely basis, an investigation of such alleged activity may be hindered.

Campus Photography

All enrolled students at Cornerstone University give Cornerstone permission to use student images and/or photographs on its website and in other university-related electronic and printed materials and advertisements. If for any reason a student does not wish to grant this permission, he/she must sign a form in the university's marketing and communications office.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Mission and Purpose

The Professional & Graduate Studies (PGS) division of Cornerstone University exists to equip the adult learner to influence the world by providing a distinct and academically excellent education from a Christ-centered worldview.

Overall Curricular Goals

In accomplishing the mission of the university and the Professional & Graduate Studies division, faculty and staff are committed to preparing students to achieve the following learning outcomes:

I. Specialized Knowledge

Cornerstone students will demonstrate knowledge of, and proficiency in, the terminology, theories, concepts, practices and skills specific to their field of study.

II. Applied Knowledge and Collaborative Learning

Cornerstone students will exhibit competency in applying their knowledge to address real-life problems through both individual and group effort.

III. Intellectual Skills

Cornerstone students will demonstrate their ability to integrate both traditional and non-traditional cognitive skills, including analytical inquiry, information literacy, quantitative fluency and communicative fluency.

IV. Civic and Global Engagement

Cornerstone students will demonstrate intercultural competence in addressing civic, social, environmental and economic issues.

V. Biblical Worldview Integration

Cornerstone students will be able to articulate a Christ-centered worldview and its personal, professional and communal embodiment through Christian virtues.

Educational Effectiveness

The Professional & Graduate Studies division places a high value on the assessment of student learning and the responsibility to deliver on the promise to provide excellence in adult education. Assessment of student outcomes and the disclosure of educational effectiveness are not viewed as an externally imposed burden. Rather, it is understood as a task of stewardship, a process for organizational learning, and as a matter of legitimate accountability.

The effectiveness of PGS' educational programs is assessed in a disciplined and routine manner. Achievement of the intended student learning outcomes of PGS' curriculum, student and alumni satisfaction, student readiness for ministry, and vocational achievement of PGS graduates are assessed through a variety of instruments and processes.

The following provides a few highlights and demonstrates how PGS is delivering on its promise to provide excellence in adult education:

- 43 percent of students in associate degree programs, 69 percent of students in bachelor's degree programs, and 78 percent of students in master's programs graduate with their degree.
- 92 percent of PGS alumni believe that their education prepared them for the demands of their vocational life.
- 98 percent of associate degree program graduates are employed or continuing their education.
- 93 percent of bachelor's degree program graduates are employed or continuing their education.

- 92 percent of master's program degree graduates are employed or continuing their education.

The data shown above was taken from the results of a variety of surveys and other evaluative instruments administered in recent years at PGS.

Learning Model and Format

To meet the needs of the working adult, Cornerstone University offers programs through the Professional & Graduate Studies division with features that make earning a college education convenient, relevant and affordable.

Program Format

The PGS division offers programs in multiple formats: onsite, online, and blended (combination of onsite and online). In each format, programs are a series of accelerated courses designed to meet specific program objectives. New cohorts (generally 10-15 students) can begin at any time during the year and stay together until all courses in the program are completed. Students take only one course at a time, allowing them to focus on one subject.

Onsite classes meet once a week for four hours. Most graduate courses meet for six to eight weeks. When one course ends, typically the next course begins the following week. Each course in the program is a required component. This calendar structure means that students can finish their degree in relatively short time when compared to a traditional college calendar. Courses combine lecture and teacher/student interaction. Instructional methods in the programs integrate practical experience and theory through assignments, mini-lectures, case studies, simulations, small group discussions and projects related to the student's professional goals.

Online and blended programs use the Internet and Moodle, an online course-management system, to maximize learning. Students and instructors exchange assignments and feedback through discussion boards, e-mail and attachments. Active links within the course material enable students to do additional research on topics. Quizzes, exams and other assignments are built into the materials to assess student understanding of the concepts being presented.

A federally-generated and approved formula (credit hour justification) is used to create all PGS curricula and assess course work for each class against the standards for that program's credit hour requirements. All course work, including online discussion forum components occasionally utilized in onsite courses, has been accounted for in the credit hour justification calculation.

Convenience of Time and Place

Programs are offered at times and in locations that are convenient to working adults. Onsite classes are generally held in the evening when most adults are available. If possible, learning centers are located in places convenient to the student's residence or workplace.

Participative and Active Learning

Though the curriculum requirements are rigorous, the learning opportunity for all students is enriched by the extensive and diversified employment experience each individual brings to the classroom. Students who enroll are committed to completing the program, and they support one another in achieving their mutual goals.

The adult learner model places emphasis on the learner's active involvement in the learning process. This is possible when adults and facilitators come together and share their experiences as they relate to theory. Considering this emphasis on learning, course participation and attendance are expected.

Group Learning

In addition to class time, some classes may incorporate collaborative learning that requires students to meet outside of class time to complete projects. In collaborative and cooperative teams, students share strengths and improve weaker skills. They learn interpersonal skills and how to handle conflict. Through working as a team, they learn to appreciate diversity of learning styles.

If an official class assignment calls for collaborative learning outside of class time, students are expected to be active participants in their group. Individuals are accountable for their work, and the work of the team is also evaluated. At the end of each course for which an official group assignment has been required, students will be given an opportunity to evaluate the contribution of each team member. Groups required to work together may complete some or all of their team requirements in face-to-face meetings or online.

Curriculum

Individual courses in each degree program are created and revised by faculty who are academically qualified and professionals in their field. Each faculty member works with the PGS Curriculum Committee to ensure that each course meets the learning goals for each degree program, and the overall student learning outcomes for PGS. All courses in the program use a common curriculum guide. Instructors may expand and enhance the courses they teach with current resources and practices.

Faculty

Cornerstone is committed to using instructors who have a master's or doctoral degree from regionally accredited institutions, significant professional experience, teaching experience, an active Christian commitment and a theology that supports the mission and goals of the university. As practitioners in the field, they bring experience that enables them to merge theory with practice in the classroom. All Ed.D. faculty hold a terminal degree in a discipline related to their teaching area.

In addition to adjunct instructors, the Professional & Graduate Studies division has full-time faculty who oversee the academic quality of programs and provide support for the adjunct faculty. All faculty members teaching in the programs have completed a careful screening process, assessment and training. Surveys submitted by students at the end of each course are reviewed and used in the ongoing process of professional faculty development.

ADMISSION & REGISTRATION

Admission Process

Cornerstone University accepts students on the basis of their academic record and work experience. Students are required to complete and submit the appropriate application with an application fee. Refer to the admission requirements for each graduate program in the Graduate Academic Catalog & Student Handbook.

When all admission requirements have been satisfied, students will receive written notice that they may enter the program at full admission status. Students who are not at full status may be allowed to begin the program with tentative admission status. These students are allowed to attend class pending official verification of required admission documents.

Students interested in degree completion programs may obtain information by contacting an enrollment counselor. For information about admission to programs, access the Professional & Graduate Studies' web site at: cornerstone.edu/admissions/pgs-apply-now/.

Continuous Enrollment for Ed.D. Program

All Ed.D. students are required to maintain continuous enrollment throughout the doctoral program. Continuous enrollment for the Ed.D. program is defined as progressing with the cohort and taking core courses in the sequence presented on the cohort calendar.

Courses are offered in a planned sequence; if a student needs to withdraw from a class, they do so knowing that the class will not be offered again for approximately 12 months. If a student fails to maintain continuous enrollment, he or she will be subject to dismissal from the program. Dismissal from the program does not necessarily exclude students from readmission at a later date.

International Students

International students are required to complete the entire application process as well as meet some additional requirements. Proof of financial support is required by completing the financial support form available from the admissions office. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange necessary financial support for all expenses at Cornerstone University. International students from countries where English is not the primary language are also required to successfully complete the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination or the International English Testing System (IELTS) before admission can be granted.

Non-Degree Admission

Persons interested in enrolling at Cornerstone University on a part-time, non-degree basis must complete a non-degree application for admission. A non-degree application is available online at <https://www.cornerstone.edu/admissions/pgs-apply-now/>. A maximum of 12 total credit hours may be taken as a non-degree graduate student. Non-degree students are not eligible for federal, state or institutional financial assistance. A student wishing to be admitted as a degree-seeking student must complete the full application process.

Readmission to a Program

If more than 12 months have elapsed since the last enrollment, the following policies will apply:

1. Students must complete a regular application for admission available from an admissions counselor. A $25 fee must accompany the application. Depending on the length of time since the last enrollment, new college transcripts since high school may be required.

2. Official transcripts from each post-secondary institution attended since the student was last enrolled at Cornerstone University must be submitted at the time of application for readmission. An updated transfer-credit evaluation and assessment profile will be completed and distributed to the student.
3. Students readmitted after 12 months have elapsed will follow the university catalog and policies in force at the time of readmission. For the Ed.D. program, all original, first-time admission requirements apply.
4. Tuition and fees will be charged at the current rate at the time of readmission. The student will be charged for any course that is repeated.

If less than 12 months have elapsed since the last enrollment, the following policies will apply:

1. The student must complete the Application for Readmission form available from the student services office or online. No fee is required with this application.
2. Any delinquent payments must be resolved before the student can be considered for readmission.
3. Student services will contact the registrar's office to verify the student has no incomplete grades from the previous enrollment at Cornerstone University. Incomplete grades must be made up before a student may be re-admitted.
4. The student must be at full admission status before he/she can be re-admitted. The student will be notified in writing and may then join the group following the last course successfully completed.
5. Tuition and fees will be charged at the current rate at the time of readmission. The student will be charged at the current rate for any course repeated.
6. For the Ed.D. program, all original, first-time admission requirements apply.

A student that has been academically suspended from Cornerstone University or was on probation at the time he/she left must be approved by the dean of student services prior to readmission. A copy of the acceptance letter will be sent to the student financial services office to document conditions of the student's continued enrollment and financial aid eligibility.

Reservation Procedure

New and re-admitting students are notified five weeks prior to orientation regarding class reservation. Students must complete the class reservation form located at <https://www.cornerstone.edu/admissions/pgs-apply-now/adult-and-graduate-tuition-and-fees/> and the reservation fee payment of $30 before he or she is officially enrolled. The class reservation fee is due three weeks prior to the night of orientation.

University Lifestyle Expectations

Students who apply to the university's PGS programs must agree in writing to certain lifestyle expectations. While enrolled in the Professional & Graduate Studies Division, the student's ability to understand and articulate increasingly complex ideas and feelings is intentionally developed. Consequently, both oral and written communication should reflect and demonstrate this search for precision and accuracy. The use of crude, vulgar or offensive language is unacceptable in this community. Cornerstone University discourages involvement in any activity that may be of an immoral or degrading nature. The historic and current commitment to the ideal of intellectual, spiritual and physical wellness precludes the use of tobacco, alcohol or any other controlled substance during university activities.

Violation of Lifestyle Expectations

The Student Behavior Committee may place on probation, suspension, or dismissal a student for violating Lifestyle Expectations or causing a pattern of disruption in the learning environment. Decisions of the Committee will be communicated to the student in writing. Appeal of these decisions may be made to the PGS Appeals Committee.

Students “lock in” a tuition rate when starting a degree completion program. However, if the student withdraws from the first cohort and returns later to another cohort, he/she must pay the rate in effect for the new cohort. The guaranteed tuition rate does not include any “drop-in” courses the student may take to meet general education or elective requirements. When there is a change in tuition rates, the lower tuition rate applies to students who retake a course due to a “leave of absence.” Program fees are generally reviewed on an annual basis. In some cases it may be necessary to adjust a fee prior to an annual review. The adjustment will be reflected in the subsequent catalog.

Students should also budget for additional personal expenses related to their enrollment. These may include, but are not limited to, transportation (gasoline and maintenance), child care, meals, snacks and miscellaneous personal supplies.

Educational Resource Fee

The educational resource fee is designed to cover the cost of textbooks as well as various costs associated with providing educational resources. These costs include supplemental materials, binders, book bags, copyright fees and sales tax on texts and materials. This fee is calculated as an average cost of materials throughout the program and does not reflect the exact cost per course. The PGS division views the direct delivery of all resources to the classroom as a service that is essential to student success. Students who do not wish to take advantage of this service and wish to purchase their own textbooks may do so by signing an opt-out form available from student financial services. Sometimes a PGS course will contain books or other materials that are only available through the PGS bookroom. Students will need to purchase these materials through PGS. The educational resource coordinator maintains the list of PGS-specific resources and can assist students who need them. They are denoted on the current list of course materials posted monthly on the CU Portal under the PGS, "All Docs" tab. Students will be billed for these resources and the student financial services office will add this charge to the student's account. If students opt out after receiving items that will be used in multiple courses, they will pay pro-rated fees for use of the materials for subsequent courses. A student is able to opt back in to the PGS program by filling out a form through the student financial services office.

Any student who opts out of the textbook delivery a second time during their program will forfeit the opportunity to opt back in again for the remainder of their program. A complete listing of textbooks and retail costs is available to enrolled students on the CU Portal PGS page in the All Docs section.

Technology Fee

The university has and will continue to invest many resources in technology at its on-campus and off-campus sites to enhance the learning experience. The following are included in this fee: Moodle learning management system, wireless upgrades, technology support, library support, electronic databases, e-mail accounts and classroom technology. Beginning July 1, 2018, the Technology Fee will be included in the cost of the course.

Payment Policies

- The class reservation fee is due two weeks prior to the date of orientation.
- A student starting a new cohort must be financially ready or full payment made by two business days before the first class date. To be financially ready, the student financial services office must have received the student's valid FAFSA Information (ISIR), any requested documents to complete the financial aid file, Master Promissory Note, Student Loan Entrance Counseling and Student Financial Success Guide. A student who has not met these requirements may be approved as a conditional start by agreement of the director of enrollment and the associate director of student financial services, provided the student has filed the FAFSA. If the issue is not resolved by the next to last class period of the first course, the student will be administratively withdrawn at the end of the course.
- For continuing students, tuition, technology and educational resource fees are due two weeks before the start of each course. This includes students who are taking drop-in courses.
- Continuing students paying using financial aid must be financially ready two weeks before the start of each course. If financial aid will not fully cover the student's costs, a payment plan must be in place for the remaining balance. If the student is not financially ready, he/she must pay in full for the course.
- If a continuing student is not financially ready or full payment is not received by the start of a course, the student will be administratively withdrawn at the end of the course.
- Notice from a student that he/she will be receiving employee reimbursement is not acceptable as payment.

If a student is employed by an organization that will pay the tuition, technology and/or educational resource fees directly to Cornerstone University, the employer must make payment to the PGS student financial services office on or before the first session of each course. The employer must also provide a voucher or letter of "intent to pay" for any courses(s) that will be covered under the organization's direct bill policy. A voucher, which can have any number of courses listed, must be received in the PGS student financial services office on or before the first session of class of the earliest courses being submitted. For new students, the PGS student financial services office must receive the voucher or letter two business days prior to orientation.

- Transcripts and diplomas will not be released until the student's account is paid in full.

Payment Options

Payments may be made by cash, check, credit/debit card, cashier's check or money order at the PGS reception desk or at the accounting office on the main campus. Off-campus students may mail their payments to the attention of the PGS student financial services office, Cornerstone University, 1001 E Beltline Ave. NE, Grand Rapids, MI 49525. Electronic check payments can be made through the student portal on WebAdvisor, which can be found through the CU Portal. Students may also make credit card payments through WebAdvisor or by calling the PGS student financial services office. There is a 2.5% processing fee for all credit and debit card transactions.

Financial Aid Plan

A student may apply for financial aid online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Any student interested in financial aid must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and provide any additional requested information to complete a financial aid file. In addition, a student interested in student loans must complete a Master Promissory Note and entrance counseling at www.studentloans.gov. It is very important that the student applies in a timely manner and that he/she follows up on any aid or loan if a response has not been received within four to six weeks. Financial aid guidelines are strict and if all information is not submitted within certain time limits, the student will be ineligible for any aid. Also, students will need to reapply by filing a FAFSA for each year for the balance of their educational program. Students are responsible for any charge not covered by their financial aid. Students should contact their financial aid specialist for more information.

Federal regulations for non-term programs require that a student successfully complete a minimum amount of credit hours before a next disbursement can be scheduled. Therefore, if any course is not completed (due to course withdrawal, leave of absence, an incomplete or failing grade) federal awards may be reduced or future disbursements may be delayed.

Any change in the student's academic plan (scheduled break, leave of absence, program change, drop-ins, etc.) may affect financial aid. Students will receive a revised award letter after returning from a leave of absence, or in the case of other changes, after the change is processed. Students desiring to know how aid will be affected prior to making a change in schedule should contact student financial services.

Incoming students who have filed a FAFSA will receive a financial aid estimate letter approximately 4-5 weeks before their scheduled cohort start. They will receive their award letter at orientation. Continuing students who file a FAFSA will receive an award letter by mail within 4-6 weeks after their financial aid file is complete.

Textbook Refunds

Unused textbooks and materials purchased for courses for which the student did not attend or textbooks that are already owned by the student (or spouse) may be returned for a refund under the following conditions:

- The book is in new condition and the shrink-wrap has not been removed; that is, it is ready for resale.
- The book is returned with one week after the start date of the course.
- The book is a current edition and will continue to be used in the program.
- The total book refund does not exceed the educational resource fee for the course.

The student's account will be credited when written notice is given to the PGS student financial services office. In the case of a student withdrawal, the student's account will be credited or a refund check will be issued when the associate director of student financial services receives a copy of the signed withdrawal form.

E-Book Refunds

E-books purchased for courses not attended may be returned for a refund of the cost of the e-book under the following conditions:

- The E-book must be returned within five days after the delivery of the e-book(s). The student must also contact the educational resources coordinator and delete the e-book(s) from their Kindle bookshelf.
- The total e-book refund does not exceed the educational resource fee for the course.

Refund of Tuition

Once a student participates in a course online or attends a course on campus, tuition is refunded based on when the student is withdrawn or when the student notifies the PGS office that he/she is withdrawing. A student will be charged again for any course that is retaken.

Students who withdraw

will be refunded

- Before the second session of a course 100%
- After the second class, but before the midpoint of the course 50%
- After the second class, but only attended one night (regardless of notification date).....50%
- After the midpoint of the course 0%

Refund of Overpayment on Student Account

If a student’s account is overpaid and a credit balance currently exists on the account (from non-Title IV sources), the student may keep those funds on his/her student account to be applied for other expected expenses or may request a refund of the credit balance.

If the student’s account was partially or fully paid by a third party, e.g. employer assistance, the refund to the student will not exceed the amount that the student paid. Any credit balance over the amount that the student paid will be refunded to the third party.

Return of Financial Aid Funds

Students receiving federal financial aid who withdraw prior to the end of a period of enrollment may be required to return some of those funds to the financial aid program. To determine the portion of financial aid a student is eligible to receive, a calculation will be made based on the amount of time from the student’s enrollment to the student’s withdrawal date. It is important that the student consult with the Student Financial Services office when considering withdrawal.

- For Federal Title IV aid, if a student withdraws before completing 60 percent of the period of enrollment for which aid was received, a portion of the funds must be returned.

For more information or examples, please contact your financial aid specialist.

Financial Appeals

Students may appeal a billing that they believe is in error or unjust by following the appeal steps outlined below:

Step 1: The student will contact the associate director of student financial services and attempt to resolve the issue. In the event the issue is not resolved, the student moves to step 2.

Step 2: The student presents his/her appeal in writing to the Financial Appeals Committee. The committee consists of the vice president for adult learning, the dean of student services, and the director and associate director of student financial services. All issues relating to billing, financial aid, fee and tuition payments are within the purview of this committee. The committee’s decision is final. A written response will be sent to the student as soon as a decision has been reached.

Purpose of Financial Aid

Financial aid is available to assist students who can benefit from further education but cannot do so without additional financial resources. It is important to keep in mind that the primary responsibility for financing a college education rests with the student and the student’s family. The Cornerstone University financial aid office is committed to assisting students in receiving the maximum amount of financial assistance for which they qualify under federal and state programs.

All students wishing to receive financial assistance through federal aid programs must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students must complete the required financial aid forms each year.

It is important that all requested information is submitted to the student financial services office in a timely manner. Failure to do so will create delays. Upon receipt of all requested information the student financial services office makes an evaluation to determine student aid eligibility. Students are informed of their awards in writing.

Requirements to Receive Federal Financial Aid

Statement of Educational Purpose

To receive financial aid, a student must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student. A student must sign a statement indicating that all federal financial aid will be used for expenses related to study at Cornerstone University as part of filing the FAFSA.

Statement of Refund and Default

To receive federal financial aid, a student must not owe a refund on any federal grant or loan. A student must not be in default on any loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay any defaulted loan and have not borrowed in excess of the loan limits under federal programs, at any institution.

Selective Service Registration

Prior to receiving federal financial aid each year, male students born after December 31, 1959 are required to comply with selective service registration regulations.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards

Federal regulations require that in order for a student to be eligible for financial aid, the student must earn Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) toward the completion of a degree. SAP is evaluated at the end of each payment period for which a student is enrolled. A payment period is the amount of time that it takes to complete half of an academic year, which is 9-12 completed credit hours for graduate programs.

Graduate Programs

Qualitative Requirements: {Concerning cumulative grade-point average (GPA)}

A student must meet the following cumulative GPA requirements:

CREDITS COMPLETED	MINIMUM GPA
1 - 49+	3.0

Quantitative Requirements: {Concerning the rate at which courses are successfully completed (Pace)}

Pace is determined by dividing the total number of credit hours successfully completed by the total number of credit hours attempted. The resulting percentage must reach the following minimums:

CUMULATIVE CREDITS COMPLETED	MINIMUM PERCENTAGE COMPLETED
1 - 24	65%
25 - 48	70%
49+	75%

All Programs

Criteria for Successfully Completing a Course: Grades of A, B, and C- are considered passing and meet the criteria for successfully completing a credit hour for master's degree programs. For doctoral programs, a grade of C or above is necessary. Grades of D, F, CR, I, and W do not meet the criteria for successfully completing a credit hour and must be considered attempted credits.

Incompletes: An incomplete is considered an attempted credit until the student has met the criteria for successfully completing the course. It is the student's responsibility to notify student financial services of the updated grade so that the credits can be correctly calculated for SAP.

Withdrawal: If a student withdraws from a course which he/she has attended, the credits for the course will be considered attempted credits but not completed credits.

Repeated Courses: If a student repeats a course, the higher grade replaces the lower grade in determining GPA. A student may not receive federal aid for a repeated course if he/she has previously passed the course. Credits received for both an original and a repeated course are considered attempted credits, but only the credits from the course with the higher grade are considered successfully completed.

Transfer Credits: Transfer credits are included in the total number of credit hours successfully completed. Because Cornerstone University does not transfer in G.P.A., transfer credits do not count toward cumulative G.P.A.

150% Rule

SAP standards require that a student receiving financial aid complete his or her degree within a time-frame that is 150% of the published length of the program, which is measured in credit hours. A student may reference the Cornerstone PGS Academic Catalog to see how many credit hours his program requires and then multiply that number by 1.5 to determine the maximum number of credit hours allowed.

Credits to include in the 150% calculation:

1. Credits from all terms, whether or not financial aid was received.
2. Repeated courses.
3. Transfer credits if the transfer credits apply to the degree the student is working toward.

Financial Aid Warning

All regularly accepted and continuing students who do not meet SAP standards for the first time will be placed on Financial Aid Warning for the next payment period. During Financial Aid Warning, a student is eligible for financial aid. If a student fails to meet SAP standards at the completion of his or her payment period on Financial Aid Warning, the student will be placed on Financial Aid Suspension.

Financial Aid Suspension A student is placed on Financial Aid Suspension when he or she fails to meet SAP standards at the end of his or her payment period on Financial Aid Warning. During Financial Aid Suspension, a student is not eligible for financial aid. A student on Financial Aid Suspension may have opportunity to regain eligibility or appeal the suspension.

Financial Aid Suspension Appeals

A student may appeal a Financial Aid Suspension if he or she has suffered extenuating circumstances. To appeal, a student must submit to the vice president for adult learning a written explanation including:

1. The extenuating circumstances which prevented him from achieving SAP.
2. How the student's situation has changed to allow the student to achieve SAP at the next evaluation.
3. An academic plan on how the student will regain eligibility within a reasonable time period.

All appeals must be submitted to the vice president for adult learning by the deadline indicated in the suspension letter the student received. The academic appeals committee will then determine the student's academic status and financial aid eligibility. If the student is granted financial aid eligibility, he or she must meet the conditions outlined by the Academic Appeals Committee for the eligibility to continue.

Financial Aid Probation

If a student placed on Financial Aid Suspension has been granted both re-admission and financial aid eligibility by the Academic Appeals Committee, the student is placed on Financial Aid Probation for one payment period. If SAP is not met at the end of the probation period, the student will be placed on Financial Aid Suspension without the opportunity to appeal.

Regaining Eligibility

Withdrawals: If a student completely withdraws from Cornerstone University and has received federal financial aid for the payment period from which he/she withdraws, the student must be readmitted and meet SAP standards before he or she will be eligible for financial aid in any subsequent payment periods.

Inadequate SAP: If a student is denied financial aid because of SAP, he or she will not be eligible for any type of federal or state financial aid until SAP is achieved. To regain financial aid eligibility, the student may:

1. Complete the necessary coursework to satisfy the GPA and/or pace requirements of SAP by continuing at Cornerstone University at his/her own expense.
2. Transfer in credits to support the progress of the student's academic plan.

Once financial aid eligibility is reinstated for a student on Financial Aid Suspension, financial aid will be awarded based upon the availability of funds and the student's financial need. A student who has financial aid eligibility reinstated because he or she transferred in credits may be admitted under the status of Financial Aid Probation.

Federal Financial Aid Programs

Eligibility for federal student financial aid is determined through the submission of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students may view the institution's federal financial aid policies and procedures in the Student Financial Services office.

Federal Direct Loan Program

This federal loan program is available to all students. The maximum loan eligibility each year is based on total credit hours earned and dependency status. For those who qualify for a subsidized (need-based) loan, the government pays the interest while the student is in school. The student is responsible for the interest while in school with the unsubsidized loan.

Repayment of both principal and interest begins six months after the student graduates or ceases to be enrolled at least half time. The lifetime limit on Direct Loans for graduate students is $138,500, including all loans taken as an undergraduate.

ACADEMIC POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Academic Advising

After acceptance, each student is assigned an academic advisor who is available to meet and discuss an educational plan leading to graduation. While the school offers help with planning a student's program, each student is responsible for meeting his or her graduation requirements.

Academic and Grade Review Process

Students may appeal a grade issued by an instructor if the student believes that the grade has been miscalculated or graded unfairly (beginning with step 1 below). Students have a period of four months from the day grades are issued by the registrar's office to question the accuracy and completeness of the official grade submitted. Questions should be directed to the registrar's office. The academic record after that period will be considered final.

Students may also appeal decisions related to probation, dismissal, suspension, satisfactory academic progress and academic integrity (beginning with step 2 below).

- Step 1* The student approaches the instructor within six weeks from the time the instructor issued the grade and attempts to resolve the issue. In the event the issue is not resolved, the student moves to step 2.
- Step 2* The student presents the grievance and supporting data in writing to the appropriate dean of the course within two months from the time the instructor issued the grade. If the issue is not resolved at this level, the student moves to step 3.
- Step 3* The student presents the grievance and supporting data in writing to the vice president for adult learning within four months from the time the instructor issued the grade. The academic and grade review committee will be convened by the appropriate program dean within three weeks after the appeal is received. A written response will be sent to the student. If the student is not satisfied with the review process, the student can present the case to the PGS appeals committee. The decision of the appeals committee is final.

Academic Integrity

As a Christian institution of higher education, Cornerstone University seeks to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. The faculty trusts the integrity of Cornerstone students and encourages them to maintain the integrity of the faculty-student relationship. Academic dishonesty, therefore, is a serious breach of university standards and will result in substantial penalties. Violations of academic integrity include:

Plagiarism: Willfully submitting as part or all of one's own work material that is copied or paraphrased from another source, including online sources, without proper acknowledgment of that source.

Cheating: Using unauthorized material or study aids for assistance on examinations or other academic work. Examples include but are not limited to looking at a peer's exam, altering a graded exam and using notes without permission.

Fabrication: Submitting altered or contrived information in any academic assignment. Examples include but are not limited to falsifying data, text material, or sources.

Facilitating academic dishonesty: Helping another student violate this policy. Examples include but are not limited to allowing one's work to be copied, working together on an assignment where collaboration is not allowed and doing work for another student.

Violations of the academic integrity policy will result in the following actions:

First offense:

- The faculty member will file a written report with the PGS program dean and send a copy to the student. The student should receive a substantial reduction or no credit for the assignment or test on which he or she has been dishonest. More severe penalties may be imposed if such penalties are announced in the course syllabus.
- The dean will create a file recording the student's violation of the policy.

Second offense:

- The faculty member will file a written report with the PGS program dean and send a copy to the student.
- The PGS dean will update the student's file recording the violation of the academic integrity policy. Written notification will be given to the faculty member who reported the policy violation indicating that the student who violated the academic integrity policy should receive no credit for the assignment or fail the course.
- The student must provide a written account of the academic integrity violation and the steps they will take to prevent future instances.

Third offense:

- The faculty member will file a written report with the PGS program dean and send a copy to the student.
- The dean will update the student's file to reflect a third violation of the academic integrity policy. Written notification will be given to the faculty member who reported the policy violation indicating that the student who violated the academic integrity policy should fail the course and may face a suspension or dismissal from the university, depending on the severity of the violation.
- A student may be suspended or dismissed for violating PGS academic integrity standards. The dean of student services will send a recommendation for suspension or dismissal to the program dean, who in turn reviews and approves each suspension or dismissal.
- If students are permitted to continue in their program, they must provide a written account of the academic integrity violation and the steps they will take to prevent future instances.

Appeal Process

A student who feels that he or she has been unfairly accused or unjustly treated may appeal the decision to the PGS appeals dean. Such appeals shall be made in writing within seven days of notification of the violation of policy. If a faculty member or student deems that the case has not been resolved satisfactorily and that a more comprehensive university response is needed, he or she may appeal to the PGS appeals committee. The decision of the appeals committee is final. In the case of a successful student appeal, the record of the offense will be expunged from the student's file.

Notification Regarding Academic Integrity Policy

Professional & Graduate Studies shall make all students and faculty aware of this policy by publishing it in the Student Handbook and the Faculty Handbook. Faculty will reference the policy in their course syllabi; however, ultimate responsibility for knowledge of and compliance with this policy rests with the student.

Record Expunged Upon Graduation

Upon graduation from the PGS program, the record of the violations of the academic integrity policies will be expunged from the student's file.

Attendance

Faithful attendance in an accelerated degree completion program is a prerequisite for student success. While the expectation and desire is attendance at all class meetings, there may be occasions in which an absence is unavoidable. For this reason, the following attendance policy has been established for each course.

Class Meeting Attendance

A student is allowed one absence from a class meeting. If a second absence occurs, the student must generally repeat the course. Under unusual circumstances, the instructor may permit a second absence. Absences must be arranged with the instructor before the class meets. The student may be required to complete make-up assignments for any absences. A deduction in grade is possible with or without a make-up assignment.

Ed.D. Residencies

Students are expected to attend and be present at all doctoral residencies. This includes showing up on-time, being present for all class sessions, and staying through the last class session (i.e., not leaving early). Only in the most extenuating circumstances might an exception be made. Any exceptions or absences from a residency must be approved by the vice president for adult learning and must include a formal request with documentation for the extenuating circumstance.

Children/Guests/Pets

In order to promote a learning environment free of distraction, children are not permitted in the classroom during class time. Adult guests are generally not allowed to attend during class time unless permission is given by the faculty member or one of the PGS deans. The only pets allowed in class are those required for physical and/or cognitive assistance. These requests and approvals will need to be processed through the student disability services office.

Online Attendance Policy

Attendance in an online class session is determined by activity during the class either through discussions or submission of assignments. A student is reported absent for a class session if there is not at least one submission or posting of an assignment or participation in a discussion forum assigned during that class session. Participating in discussions does not guarantee full participation points. The criteria for full participation points will be determined by the faculty member.

Make-Up Assignments

Make-up assignments are determined by the instructor. In their assignments, students must demonstrate that they have interacted with and applied the theories and concepts for each class missed. These assignments do not void absences, but are intended to enable the student to meet course objectives.

Attendance and Grading

The instructor has the authority to establish procedures and grade adjustments regarding attendance, tardiness and early departure. Absences from class meetings must be considered by the faculty member in the grading process. Specific policies will be issued in writing to each student on or before the first night of class.

Lack of Adherence

In most cases, students who do not meet minimum attendance requirements in a course will receive a failing grade. At the student's written request, a leave of absence from a degree completion program may be granted. Generally, a leave of absence can be granted for a maximum of two courses. Exceptions will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The student should contact the student services department as soon as he/she becomes aware of a potential need for a leave of absence.

Program Attendance Policy

If a student is not in attendance for 14 calendar days (except while on a leave of absence or scheduled break), the university must determine if the student should be withdrawn. The student should respond to inquiries about his or her attendance or risk being administratively withdrawn due to lack of attendance. A student who is not in class for over 150 days in any 12-month period (including scheduled breaks and leaves of absence) will be withdrawn effective the last date of attendance prior to the break that caused the student to exceed the limit.

Audio/Video Recording

Recording devices may be used in the classroom with the permission of the instructor for personal use (but not for publication or quotation). When recording has been deemed a reasonable accommodation by student disability services, students will be given a letter which should be provided to each instructor identifying recording of lectures as an accommodation.

Cohort Dissolution

Cornerstone University reserves the right to dissolve a cohort with fewer than six members. This policy will assure a minimum number of students for appropriate interaction in class and at least two learning groups with a minimum of three students per group. If a cohort is dissolved, every effort will be made to enable the remaining students to pursue their educational goals with as little interruption as possible.

Course Retake Policy

Students are permitted to retake a course in which an unsatisfactory grade was achieved during a previous period of enrollment. In such situations, registration for the course and payment of the related tuition and fees at the current tuition rates are required. The grade achieved by the retake course replaces the initial grade in relation to the grade point average (GPA) calculation, though the initial grade will remain on the permanent transcript record. A student cannot receive financial aid for retaking a course for which they previously received a passing grade, even if that grade does not meet the minimum grade requirements for the student's program.

For students in the Ed.D. program, any course with a final grade below a C must be retaken and all repeated courses must be taken at Cornerstone University. To successfully complete the program, students must earn a minimum 3.0 GPA overall.

Drop-In Program

Students enrolled in the Professional & Graduate Studies degree programs at Cornerstone University often “drop-in” to a cohort other than their own to take one course or a series of courses. Graduate students who are eligible to “drop-in” will fit into one of the following categories:

- Students who need to make up a course due to a leave of absence.
- Students who fail a course in a program and must retake the course.
- Students who have completed an appropriate non-degree application form.

Each quarter, schedules are distributed to cohorts and are available at any time in the Professional & Graduate Studies office. Students must submit a completed drop-in enrollment form to student services at least four weeks prior to the first night of class to allow time for processing and ordering of educational resources. The enrollment form may be obtained from an academic advisor or student services staff member in the Professional & Graduate Studies office.

Enrollment Status

For federal financial aid calculations, all degree-seeking students are considered to be enrolled full-time. Aid is calculated based on formulas related to a student’s academic year, federal payment periods and the federal award year.

General Graduation Requirements

Participation in Commencement

To be eligible to participate in the May commencement ceremony, students must have six semester hours or less to complete the graduation requirements for their degree by the Thursday before the ceremony. Those who have six credits or less to finish must have a written plan on file with their academic advisor by March 1 of the same year documenting how those credits will be completed by the August graduation date of the same year. Graduate students may have up to nine credits to finish and a plan on file with their academic advisor in order to participate in the May commencement ceremony.

Graduation Dates & Diplomas

- There are three graduation dates during the year: May, August and December. Transcripts and diplomas will specify one of these dates. Students who complete all degree requirements by the last day of class in the spring session (traditional program calendar) will receive a May date on their diploma. Students who complete their degree requirements after the May graduation date, but by the August graduation date (which changes annually) will receive an August graduation date. Students who complete their degree requirements after the August graduation date, but by the December graduation date (which changes annually), will receive a December graduation date.
- Students taking credit at an institution other than Cornerstone University for completion of Cornerstone University’s degree requirements must have their final, official transcript from that institution on file in the registrar’s office by the following August 15 to maintain a May graduation date; by the following November 15 to maintain an August graduation date; by the following March 15 to maintain a December graduation date. Receipt of the transcript after that date will necessitate moving the graduation date to the next regularly occurring graduation date.
- Students must submit a graduation/diploma application and order form to the registrar’s office by November 1 for December graduates or February 1 for May or August graduates. The form is available on the Cornerstone website.
- All financial obligations must be met. No diploma will be released if any balance remains on the student’s account.
- Students who find they will not complete their requirements by the anticipated date may call or write the registrar’s office to request a change in their graduation date.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

GPA is computed by dividing the total number of credits attempted (not including transfer credits) into the total number of honor or quality points. Credits and honor points are not given for courses in which the grade “I” (incomplete) has been received.

Grade Reports

Current students can access grade information and unofficial transcripts at any time online by logging on to WebAdvisor through the CU Portal, accessing the Student section, and selecting "Academic Profile". Grades will not be given over the phone, via fax or e-mail due to university policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). If further instructions are needed, contact an academic advisor or the Professional & Graduate Studies office.

Grading System and Honor Points

Cornerstone University uses the alpha grading system in which the alpha grades are given numerical weight for the purpose of determining grade point averages. Grades and numerical weights are as follows:

A	=	4.00	B -	=	2.70	D+	=	1.30
A-	=	3.70	C+	=	2.30	D	=	1.00
B+	=	3.30	C	=	2.00	D-	=	0.70
B	=	3.00	C-	=	1.70	F	=	0.00

C – Indicates satisfactory or average work.

D – Indicates passing but below average work.

F – Indicates unsatisfactory work. No credit is given, but the number of hours is included when computing grade point average.

W – Indicates that the student withdrew from the program after the second class of a course.

I – Indicates a temporary grade given for work that is passing in quality but lacking in quantity to meet course objectives, not for unsatisfactory work or failure to submit work through negligence.

CR – Indicates credit received.

NC – Indicates no credit.

Graduation (Latin) Honors

Master's and doctoral degree graduates are not eligible for Latin honors.

Incomplete Grade

This is a temporary grade given for work that is passing in quality but lacking in quantity to meet course objectives. It may be assigned by the instructor with the permission of the vice president for adult learning under the following conditions:

1. A student is unable to complete his/her work due to illness or other physical impairment or other unavoidable circumstances; and
2. The student has done satisfactory work in the course and, in the instructor's opinion, can complete the work in a satisfactory manner.

This grade cannot be given for unsatisfactory work. The student is responsible to initiate the process of securing permission to receive an incomplete by contacting the instructor. For each "I" (incomplete), the instructor informs the student of the specific work to be completed and requires a scheduled completion date which is within six weeks of the end of the course. If the incomplete work is not finished and submitted in the time specified by the instructor or within six weeks of the end of the course, an F grade or the letter grade specified at the time the incomplete was first given will be assigned. A "change of grade" is possible if it is processed within one calendar year from the receipt of the initial incomplete.

Late Paper Policy

Written reports and other assignments received past the due date may be marked down at the discretion of the instructor unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.

Learning Assistance

Online resources and tutorials are available on the CU Portal's PGS page in the Academic Resources section and in the PGS Student Resources folder within PGS's online learning management system, Moodle. These resources offer help with the mechanics of Moodle math, writing and biblical studies. PGS offers a 24/7 online tutoring service accessed through Moodle. Academic advisors can provide more information about these resources. Writing and Excel Workshops are available to PGS students free of charge. The writing workshops are offered both online and at the Grand Rapids campus. The Excel workshops are offered online. Students are encouraged to use these resources to ensure they are prepared for the academic demands of their PGS program.

The four writing workshops are: APA, Grammar, Punctuation and Paragraphs.

Three Excel workshops are offered:

Excel: The Basics – teaches basic navigation, formatting, how sheets and workbooks work and basic calculations.

Excel: The Next Steps – covers how to hide content, use tables and graphs, do more advanced calculations and insert comments.

Excel: Moving Forward – covers pivot tables, conditional formatting, filtering, locking files and setting up print options.

Whether enrolled in an accelerated onsite, online or blended program, students should expect a fast-paced program in which they will spend significant hours per week reading materials, completing assignments and preparing for tests. Weekly class participation is required, meaning assigned readings and other work must be completed prior to coming to class. Therefore, falling behind in reading will negatively affect students' test grades as well as their ability to actively participate in classroom and group discussions based on textbook and outside reading assignments. Accommodations, such as extra time on tests and papers, do not alter academic expectations. Students with learning disabilities are encouraged to consider seriously the accelerated nature of the program when they weigh their educational program options.

Leave of Absence

At the student's written request, a leave of absence from a degree completion program may be granted. Generally, a leave of absence can be granted for a maximum of 120 days. Exceptions will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The primary criteria for granting a leave of absence are (1) a circumstance that prohibits the student from continuing, and (2) the realistic probability that the circumstance can be remedied during the time of the leave of absence, enabling the student to continue. If a student believes he/she qualifies for a leave of absence, a Request for Leave of Absence form must be completed and returned to the student services office.

Because a student is expected to return to his/her original enrollment at the conclusion of a leave of absence, a leave of absence will not be granted for the last course in the student's program.

Letter Grade Equivalencies

A = Student illustrates excellent performance. Has unusually sharp insight into material and initiates thoughtful questions. Understands the complexity and alternative views of a given issue. Communicates effectively in multiple situations. Writes logically and clearly. Integrates ideas previously learned from this and other disciplines; anticipates the next steps in the progression of ideas.

Example: "A" work should be of such a nature that it could be put on reserve for all students to review and emulate. The "A" student is an example for others to follow.

B = Student demonstrates a solid comprehension of the subject matter and accomplishes all course requirements. The student is an active participant and listener and communicates orally and in writing at an acceptable level for a graduate student.

Example: "B" indicates a good quality of performance and is given in recognition for solid work; a "B" is considered a good grade and is awarded to those who submit work somewhat less than exemplary.

C = Student produces a quality and quantity of work in and out of class that are below average and minimally acceptable for a graduate student, but only for a class or two. Has marginal comprehension, communication skills, or initiative.

Example: "C" work is passing by a slim margin but is unacceptable if repetitive in nature.

D or F = Student produces a quality and quantity of work in and out of class that are unacceptable for a graduate student.

Example: This work does not qualify the student to gain credit for the course. Coursework must be repeated.

Online Elective Courses

Cornerstone University's online courses are designed for students that desire to begin or finish a degree or simply take a course or two. Students participate in online courses with the convenience of working from home, office or virtually any place in the world.

Students generally complete their coursework one week at a time asynchronously. Class activities and assignments can be completed at the convenience of the student with specific due dates for each. Communication and other interactions are conducted within Cornerstone’s learning management system which is accessible from a student’s web browser. Typical interactions include weekly discussion forums, required reading and completion of academic assignments including papers, projects and quizzes that are relevant to the field of study. Students receive individual feedback from their professor on assignments and have the opportunity to frequently interact with their classmates and professor throughout the course.

Generally registration procedures and requirements are the same as those for on-site courses. For more details, visit the website at www.cornerstone.edu/cu-online.

Scheduled Breaks

A break from one or two courses (6-8 credit hours maximum) may be granted to a student when transferred course work duplicates a course(s) in the student’s degree completion program. Programs are divided into master’s and doctoral level. Courses accepted for transfer in the graduate programs must have been completed in the last seven years.

A transferred course may replace a course in the student’s degree completion program only if:

- The course was completed prior to enrollment at Cornerstone University; and
- The course duplicates a course in the student’s degree completion program (master’s or doctoral).

Students who are granted a scheduled break for courses in a degree completion program will be required to meet the residency requirement as stated in the graduation requirements section of the university catalog and the Student Handbook.

Students may request and be granted a scheduled break for more than seven credit hours, and it is not required that the duplicate course (or a course that meets a general education requirement) be completed prior to their enrollment at Cornerstone University.

Scholastic Probation, Academic Suspension and Dismissal

At the end of an enrollment block, the student’s academic standing is reviewed by the registrar’s office and deficiencies are reported to the dean of student services. Any student who does not earn the minimum cumulative GPA for his/her classification will be placed on academic probation. Classifications and minimum GPA requirements are as follows:

Graduate	3.00 GPA
Doctoral*	3.00 GPA

The dean of student services may place on probation, suspension or dismissal a student who is not making satisfactory academic progress. The student will be notified of the decision in writing. Students may appeal the decision to the academic and grade review committee.

*For students in the Ed.D. program, any course with a final grade below a C must be retaken and all repeated courses must be taken at Cornerstone University. To successfully complete the program, students must earn a minimum 3.0 GPA overall.

Student Disability Services (SDS)

The university will make reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities, in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The purpose of accommodation is to provide equal access to educational opportunities to students affected by disabilities and the university does not intend that the standards be altered or that the essential elements of programs or courses be changed.

Students with documented disabilities may apply for accommodations online through student disability services. Student disability services is part of the Cornerstone University Center for Student Success and is located in Miller Hall on the main campus. Disability accommodations for students from the Cornerstone University traditional undergraduate program, Professional & Graduate Studies programs and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are addressed centrally in student disability services. Accommodations are granted on the basis of determined need and appropriate documentation of disabilities. Students must complete the application and submit appropriate documentation, which will be reviewed by the accommodations officer and the Accommodations Review Committee. Upon acceptance, the student will meet with the director of student success to develop an Individualized Student Accommodation Plan (ISAP) based on the committee recommendations. Onground students will be given a green verification form to give to their professors and should schedule a meeting with each professor at or prior to the first class session to discuss their needs. Students attending classes online will provide a PDR copy of the verification form to their professor before the class begins.

In the event that students have questions regarding whether they are eligible for accommodations, how they might provide appropriate documentation of disabilities, or how they might handle a disagreement with a professor over questions of accommodation, the director of student success should be contacted immediately at (616) 222-1596 or at student.success@cornerstone.edu. If a disagreement arises surrounding eligibility for services or the manner in which a specific accommodation is being implemented, the student has a right to informal and formal grievance procedures. A copy of the grievance procedures is available at the Center for Student Success in Miller Hall or online at: www.cornerstone.edu/academics/student-disability-services/grievance-policy/

Please note that the process for determining eligibility for accommodations may take 5-6 weeks, so students should complete an application and submit appropriate documentation well in advance of the start of the program in which accommodations are required to begin. To be deemed appropriate documentation, testing and assessment of disability must have been completed no more than five years prior to the application for accommodations at Cornerstone University.

Student Grievance/Complaint Procedure

Occasions may develop in which students feel they have exhausted their efforts to resolve a concern they have experienced at Cornerstone University. Should this occur, students have the option of registering a formal complaint with the vice president for adult learning for the Professional & Graduate Studies Division of Cornerstone University. Unresolved complaints with any aspect of the educational or student experience may be included in a formal complaint.

A formal complaint will include the following elements:

1. A written, hard copy of the complaint including notification that the document constitutes a formal complaint;
2. The nature and description of the complaint including all parties involved;
3. Efforts taken so far to resolve the complaint; (It is expected that the student will have made every effort to resolve the complaint informally with the appropriate faculty member, staff member, supervisor, director, or dean, before submitting a formal complaint to the vice president for adult learning. If this effort has not been made, the complainant may be asked to do so before the vice president for adult learning makes effort to resolve the complaint.)

The vice president for adult learning and members of the leadership team (as needed) will attempt to resolve the issue by discussing the issue with the parties involved and render a final decision regarding the complaint. The vice president for adult learning will respond in writing to the student within 30 days of receiving the complaint. The decision of the vice president for adult learning is final.

The university's accreditation agency requires that a list of formal complaints and the university's efforts to resolve them be provided during accreditation visits.

State Authorizations

Cornerstone University has been approved by the State of Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (NC-SARA). NC-SARA is a voluntary, regional approach to state oversight of postsecondary distance education. By participating in NC-SARA, Cornerstone University is able to offer online degree programs and courses to residents in other NC-SARA participating states.

For additional information on state authorization, visit www.cornerstone.edu/state-authorization.

Technology Requirements

Students enrolled in Cornerstone University's Professional & Graduate Studies Division must have a desktop and/or laptop computer with reliable access to high-speed Internet. E-mail and Internet connections are a primary means of participating in courses and are thus necessary and significant contributors to academic success at Cornerstone University. Please review your computer's specifications to determine whether they meet or exceed the minimum requirements listed on the following page.

Additional Technology Requirements by Degree Program

Ed.D. in Organizational Leadership & Development

Doctoral students are expected to complete capstone projects using mainstream quantitative or qualitative data analysis software (SPSS, JMP, LISREL, Minitab, NVivo, WINKS). If a student knows how to use open-source software (such as R), he or she will be permitted to do so, but assignments and data analysis must conform to normative output, reporting procedures, and criteria. Moreover, the student will be responsible for knowing and demonstrating mastery of the software program.

Textbook Information

In compliance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, a listing of the textbooks used in PGS programs is located on the PGS page of the CU Portal, which is accessible to all students. The listing includes the course in which the book is used, the title of the book, publisher, ISBN and retail price.

Transcripts

There are three ways to order a copy of your official Cornerstone University transcript. Requests submitted in person at the Registrar's Office or by mail have a $5.00 fee per transcript, paid with cash or check. A request form can be found on the Registrar's page of the Cornerstone website. Requests can also be made online through the National Student Clearinghouse. The Clearinghouse charge is $7.25 per transcript or $9.00 for a pdf. The Registrar's Office typically processes transcript requests within 2-3 business days.

No transcript will be released if any unpaid balance remains on the student's account. If specific terms or specific course grades are to be included, that information should be noted so the transcript is not sent before the data is posted to the record.

Unofficial transcripts are available to current students by logging into WebAdvisor on the CU Portal, accessing the Student section, and selecting "Academic Profile".

Transfer Credit

Ed.D. Transfer Credit:

With approval of the Ed.D. Admissions Committee, up to eight (8) semester hours of graduate credits (2 classes) can be transferred into the Ed.D. program.

Transfer of coursework may be granted for the Ed.D. program if the following requirements are met:

1. Courses must be comparable to the corresponding Ed.D. courses.
2. Courses must carry a grade of at least a B.
3. Coursework must have been completed within the five years prior to the student's date of admission.

The following courses cannot be transferred into the Ed.D: EDL-900, EDL-901, RES-910, RES-915, RES-920, and RES-925. It is the responsibility of each applicant to supply transcripts along with a request to have the credit applied to the degree program. Students may be requested to submit the syllabus for any coursework being considered for transfer along with a rationale of why the student believes that the course meets the program's requirements. Transfer credit is not automatic.

Non-Ed.D. Transfer Credit:

Applicants who are transferring from other colleges/universities are required to have a transcript from all previously attended colleges/universities sent directly to the Professional & Graduate Studies admissions office at Cornerstone University. After being accepted for admission, an official credit evaluation is placed in the student's file with copies provided to the student and the academic advisor.

Cornerstone University will accept transfer credit from the following types of institutions:

1. Cornerstone University agrees to participate in the Michigan Transfer Agreement as a receiving institution. For more information, visit www.macrao.org or contact the PGS admissions office at 1.800.947.2382.
2. All regionally accredited institutions.
3. All Accrediting Association of Bible colleges, accredited institutions or institutions with a G listing or higher in the AACRAO Information Bulletin.
4. The following non-accredited institutions due to the nature of their relationship to Cornerstone: Bob Jones University, Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music, Spurgeon Baptist College and Word of Life Bible Institute.

If a student wishes to take a course at another institution after transcript evaluation is complete, he/she should contact a Professional & Graduate Studies academic advisor and complete a Guest Application/Transfer Credit Pre-Approval form before the beginning of the class in order to verify the acceptance of these courses.

The evaluation of foreign educational credentials for possible transfer credit to Cornerstone University must be evaluated by an outside agency. The student is responsible for following the procedure required by the agency and for paying the required fees. Cornerstone University recommends the following agency:

Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc.
P.O. Box 514070
Milwaukee, WI 53203-3470
Phone: (414) 289-3400
Fax: (414) 289-3411
E-mail: eval@ece.org

Course Duplication

A maximum of six to eight semester hours (2 courses; 500 or higher course number) may replace courses in a student's master's degree program. Students are scheduled for a break from their program when transferred course work duplicates a course(s) in the student's program.

A transferred course may replace a course in the student's degree completion program only if:

1. The course was completed prior to enrollment at Cornerstone University; and

2. The course duplicates a course in the student's degree completion program. Courses accepted for transfer in the graduate programs must have been completed in the last seven years.

A course must be at least two semester hours to meet equivalency requirements. Since most Cornerstone University courses are 3 credits, a student may have to take an additional course to meet the total credit requirement for the program. Duplicate courses accepted for transfer in the graduate program must have been completed in the last seven years. Students must still meet the residency requirement as stated in the graduation requirements section of the university catalog and the Student Handbook.

Veterans

Cornerstone University cooperates with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs in processing benefits for the training of honorably discharged and active duty service members. Veterans who wish to use the benefits should obtain the necessary forms and instructions from the nearest office of the Veterans Affairs or the Cornerstone University student financial services office.

In order for a student to be eligible for financial aid or VA benefits, he/she must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student. Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for financial aid or VA benefits.

A student who applies to a degree program and is accepted to the PGS division will be considered a degree-seeking student.

Verification of enrollment for VA benefits is processed when the student has submitted the Application of Education Benefits form or the Request for Change of Program or Place of Training form to the student financial services office. Cohort dates must be determined prior to processing. Initial certification will be processed upon attendance confirmation.

It should be understood by veterans that under some benefits, such as chapters 30, 35, 1606 and 1607, the student will be reimbursed directly by the Department of Veterans Affairs. Veterans should plan to pay their bills in accordance with the payment schedule provided by the student financial services office.

If the Department of Veterans Affairs is paying the school directly, the student financial services office must have all required paperwork. If the Department of Veterans Affairs is reimbursing the student, bills should be paid in accordance with the university payment schedule.

The grade point average of veterans will be monitored at the end of each payment period. Veterans who are placed on academic probation and fail to change this status within one additional semester will be reported to the Department of Veterans Affairs. This action may result in the termination of benefits by the Department of Veterans Affairs. If benefits are terminated, a veteran may reapply to the university for re-certification of veteran's benefits after the probationary status has been removed.

Certification of each class will be recorded in the Department of Veterans Affairs system as the veteran progresses through the program.

Eligibility for VA benefits is determined solely by the Department of Veterans Affairs. Cornerstone University is responsible only to verify the student's enrollment.

For more veteran information, refer to cornerstone.edu/veterans-benefits.

Withdrawal Policy

To withdraw enrollment from a degree completion program, the student must complete a withdrawal form that is available from the student services office. Withdrawal from a program may jeopardize financial aid for the rest of that academic year due to federal and state government regulations. Timely withdrawal of students is imperative for compliance with these federal regulations. Before withdrawing from a program, students are advised to consult with the student financial services office about their particular situation.

Academic credit will be given for completed courses as follows:

- If a student withdraws before the second class of a course, no grade is given and no tuition is charged.
- If a student withdraws after the second class session of the course but before the end of the course, a grade of W will be given and the student will be charged according to the refund of tuition schedule.
- If a student withdraws after the course is completed, a grade of F will be given and the student will be charged full tuition for the course.

LMS: MOODLE

Moodle is Cornerstone's learning management system. Each course is available to students and faculty on Moodle.

Accessing Moodle

To use Moodle, access the Internet using a recent release of either Firefox or Google Chrome web browsers. Go to Cornerstone University's portal home page at portal.cornerstone.edu and log on using Cornerstone's assigned Network Account Username and password. The Network Account Username consists of the first initial of the student's first name (lowercase), number zero, and the last 6 digits on the Student ID card (e.g., d0123456 or r0054321). From the portal, select the link to Moodle, located in the upper right corner of the webpage. If you would like to log into Moodle directly, access Moodle at moodle.cornerstone.edu and click (LOG IN) where indicated.

Users may reset their password by calling Technology Support. For security purposes, users will be prompted to change their network password every 180 days. The network password and Moodle password are synchronized, so changes are immediately reflected on all CU systems.

Upon successful login, the Moodle web page will list the classes in which you are enrolled. If a course is available for student viewing, it will be listed. Users can click on the name of the course to access the course information. Students are enrolled in classes approximately two weeks prior to the start date. Following enrollment, courses will be listed under the tab (future) until closer to the start date when they will move to (In progress) on the Moodle home page. Completed classes will move to the (Past) tab approximately one week after the class is completed.

If a course does not appear, it is possible the faculty member has not yet made it available for student access and viewing. Generally, faculty members will not release the course to students until one week prior to the first day of class. If it is within this time frame and the course doesn't appear, students should contact their faculty member.

Students experiencing technology problems related to Moodle can contact Moodle Support 24x7 by selecting the help link found at the top and bottom of every Moodle webpage. If you have technology problems with other Cornerstone University systems or technology, please contact Technology Support at technology.support@cornerstone.edu, 888-272-4001, or 616-222-1510.

Basic Functions of Moodle

The basic functions of Moodle include:

- Viewing/downloading course documents (e.g., syllabus, class notes, presentations);
- listening to podcasts (mp3s);
- uploading assignments;
- watching videos;
- viewing grades;
- participating in discussion forums and live class meetings;
- contributing to group projects; and
- completing online tests, quizzes and surveys.

Moodle functions are used for independent study and learning group interactions.

Distance Education Policy

Miller Library is committed to helping the distance education community acquire knowledge by offering access to, instruction in and interaction with information resources.

Individuals eligible for distance education library services are those Cornerstone faculty, staff and students who do not regularly attend or teach classes at the Grand Rapids campus. This includes individuals who might come to campus a few times a year, but not frequently.

In addition to accessing all of the resources mentioned above, distance education students, faculty and staff can have library items shipped directly to them (note: return postage is the responsibility of the borrower and must be postmarked by the due date to avoid any fines).

Instructions:

1. Choose Interlibrary Loan (under Services), and select the Interlibrary Loan button
2. Enter your Cornerstone ID and password
3. Create a new request for physical items and make a note in the comments section that you would like the books mailed to you

Borrowing

Loan Periods

The standard loan period for circulating materials for students, alumni and guest patrons is four weeks (28 days). The faculty and staff loan period is one semester. Items checked out from the DVD and video collections have a seven day loan period regardless of patron type.

Renewals

If materials are needed longer than the normal borrowing period, they may be renewed at Miller Library, online at the Miller Library website, or over the phone with user verification.

Holds for Requested Material

A hold enables a borrower to reserve the next use of an item that is currently in circulation. If several patrons place a hold on the same item, a queue sorted by request date will be used to distribute the item fairly. A patron will be notified via email of the item's availability when it is returned.

Overdue Material

Items that are not returned by the due date are considered overdue. An overdue notice will be emailed to the patron three days after the item is due. If the item is still not returned within 11 more days, (14 total) a replacement bill is sent. This will include a $40 default cost for any item, a $30 processing fee, and a $5 billing fee, for a total of $75. The patron's borrowing privileges are suspended at this time. If the material is later returned, the charges would be removed except for the $5 billing fee, per item. Unpaid fines of more than $5 can result in blocking of registration, diploma, transcripts and library privileges.

For further library help or questions, please contact jeff.lash@cornerstone.edu. He can direct you to available instruction and resources.

GROUP GUIDELINES

Throughout students' degree programs, individual courses may require collaborative learning assignments designed to accomplish course objectives. These assignments may include projects, presentations, papers, worksheets, discussion questions and others. Effective collaboration and communication is necessary to complete these assignments, if assigned. Groups may utilize face-to-face meetings, electronic/online communication, or telecommunication to meet the project objectives. It is at the discretion of the team members to determine how their communication will occur.

Outcomes

Many outcomes are possible from the collaborative learning process and from attending classes as part of a cohort of similar professionals. The following outcomes are those considered most important to the adult learning experience.

Strengthen Decision-Making Ability

Through active participation, students learn the dynamics of how groups and teams make decisions and solve problems. Any group of three or more individuals follows a different process in reaching a conclusion than occurs when a person works independently. It is possible that the group may reach a conclusion that differs from what any of its members would have reached individually. The group provides a realistic laboratory for the exploration of group and team dynamics.

Build Self-Confidence in Dealing with Real-World Problems

An individual's role as a member of a group extends beyond the working environment to include family, friends and organizations. The student's participation in a collaborative learning group extends his or her ability for participation in a variety of other groups.

Learn How to Work with Others Under Pressure

As a student gains confidence, anxiety concerning group participation is reduced. An understanding of group and team dynamics removes the uncertainty or fear of participation in groups. The amount of work assigned and the deadlines imposed mirror the working environment in a way that is very results-oriented. As the student learns how to interact within the learning group, the ability to work effectively in other group situations improves.

Learn to Lead and to Follow Others

As feedback within the team makes students more sensitive to personal characteristics and behavior of themselves and others, students gain self-understanding and achieve a greater capacity for self-assessment.

Achieve a Higher Level of Quality and Performance in Class Projects

The student can sometimes learn more from a group than from working individually. The group makes use of the strengths of each individual and reduces weaknesses by offering support, camaraderie, incentive and direct assistance.

Share Teaching as Well as Learning Responsibilities

Comprehension of conceptual material improves through group discussion. The interaction and involvement in asking and answering questions strengthen understanding of material. Those more knowledgeable about a subject gain new insights by sharing their knowledge with others; less knowledgeable members receive explanations and input that improve their understanding.

Develop Interpersonal Communication Skills

By observing others' communication methods and by implementing a variety of interpersonal communication strategies, students learn how to differentiate effective and ineffective behavior. These experiences help students improve their personal communication skills.

Group Dynamics

The process employed by collaborative learning in the accomplishment of projects is as important as the learning outcomes. Both the faculty member and students should understand the methods used by the teams and the dynamics that help or hinder these teams in accomplishing their tasks. This section describes some key elements of team dynamics.

Creating a Positive Environment

Although the faculty may play a role in establishing a positive environment, nothing is more important than individual student commitment to emotional and social maturity in setting the proper tone for the group process at the beginning of the course. An atmosphere that encourages positive feedback and creates mutual trust and support should be established as quickly as possible.

Uncovering Hidden Agendas

Obstacles to achieving a positive learning environment are the hidden agendas students may bring to the group. If students have goals or personal issues that are inconsistent with the group's goals, friction and conflicts may result, undermining the learning process. Hidden agendas can be dealt with easily if collaborative learning group responsibilities and tasks are clearly understood. Groups must recognize and address individual needs. If the individual needs are not fulfilled, group performance is likely to suffer. However, the needs of one or more individuals should not be allowed to override the needs of the group.

Handling the Non-Contributor

Non-contributors can also create obstacles for the group. If an individual does not accept his or her share of the workload, or fails to complete work on time, the group faces a choice. It can decide to carry that share of the work, or it can confront the non-contributor. The best approach is to let the non-contributor know that his or her performance is hurting the group.

When Uneven Contributions Occur

Uneven contributions within the group present a different issue. It is normal to expect some members to provide more input than others based upon experience and/or capability. Roles may shift from one subject area to another since members have differing backgrounds and levels of knowledge to contribute. However, when one student consistently contributes less than other members, it is up to the members to determine the cause. If the individual displays effort but his or her abilities do not match those of the other group members, the other members should encourage and help the individual. This strengthens the group, and the end product is stronger.

Leadership

When group members contribute equally and are comfortable with the group's goals, all members function as a leaderless group. Under these circumstances, the group's purpose and priorities may be established quickly and the tasks agreed upon jointly. Generally, the leaderless group evolves over time as members rely on one another and come to understand that they benefit from the harmony of strengths and weaknesses within the group. When a leader does emerge, it is because he or she is viewed as competent in helping the group achieve its goals.

Conflict Resolution

If conflict in the collaborative learning group cannot be resolved through discussion of the problem between group members, assistance may be sought from the faculty member. Faculty members may request further help from the dean of student services if a resolution cannot be reached.

Faculty Member's Role

Positive Tone

Generally, the faculty member should avoid interfering in the dynamics of the cohort or of collaborative learning groups. His or her role is that of the facilitator. The faculty member is responsible for establishing a positive tone, monitoring implementation and guiding the team process. A positive tone concerning the cohort and collaborative learning groups must be established. Students will take their responsibilities more seriously when they understand the importance of collaborative learning.

Monitoring Implementations

The "Group Evaluation" form, which can be found at the end of this section, has been developed for the faculty member to use in grading collaborative learning groups and can be used by each group member at the completion of each course. The evaluation form allows each member to focus on the group's productivity in achieving the project's learning outcomes and to discuss any problems with individual contributors. This provides a non-threatening outlet for students to use in expressing concerns. The faculty member can use the individual ratings as part of the grading criteria.

"Splintering"

One team behavior that must be avoided is “splintering.” This happens when a learning group splits up the work on its project in the first meeting and works on its tasks as individuals without group involvement. While teams inevitably assign certain tasks to individuals to support the team process, the give-and-take of the process itself, carried out in a series of meetings, forms the essence of the learning group learning experience. “Splintering” negates this valuable aspect of learning group interaction and deprives students of the primary value inherent in group interaction. “Splintering” can be discouraged by advising students that the project must flow together conceptually. This is possible only when the group builds its strategies and solutions as a cohesive, problem-solving unit.

Grading

Individual faculty members will determine how to grade collaborative learning assignments. Students should not expect equal grades, especially if unequal contributions were made to a project or assignment. Faculty members should communicate to students how they plan to grade individual and group participation.

Group Rules

Clear Roles

Typically, success in collaborative learning groups depends on several factors, but clear roles for each person is paramount.

Team Size

Groups should be no fewer than three and no more than five members for required projects.

Group Expectations

When formal assignments are expected of groups within a class, the following expectations should be used to establish boundaries for the group:

- What attendance policy should team members be expected to follow? What happens when a team member fails to attend a learning group meeting?
- Does the team expect members to be on time for scheduled meetings? What happens when someone is late or leaves early?
- Will the team set an agenda for each meeting and how strictly will it adhere to that agenda?
- How does the team deal with members who fail to contribute to meetings, who do not carry their “weight” in team assignments, or who tend to dominate the team meetings?
- What procedures will the team follow when conflicts arise within the team?
- How will the team handle a member who does not respect others’ opinions?
- How would the team handle a serious personality conflict within the group?
- What measure will be taken when a team member fails to abide by the team constitution?

Emergencies

On Campus

If an actual or potentially life-threatening or other type of emergency arises, call 9-1-1 first and Campus Safety second. To report an incident, request a service or make an inquiry 24/7 contact Campus Safety by dialing “0” (zero) from an on-campus telephone or 616-949-5300 from any other phone. When reporting an emergency, please state the location of the emergency, the nature of the emergency, and remain on the line to answer dispatcher questions. Do not hang up the phone until you are instructed to do so by the dispatcher unless your and/or the safety of others is imminent.

Please note that each building on the Grand Rapids campus, including the PGS building at 300 East Beltline, is equipped with an Automated External Defibrillator (AED) available for use by anyone during a medical emergency. Information on campus AED’s is available at Campus Safety.

Occasionally, there may be an emergency at home in which it will be necessary for someone to reach a student while in class on the Grand Rapids campus. Family members should be advised to call 616-949-5300 (University-Campus Safety Switchboard). The caller should clearly state that this is an emergency followed with the name of the individual he/she needs to contact, the building, and the room number where the student can be reached. It is recommended that this number be left by the phone at home along with the room number and building. The switchboard is staffed 24/7/365.

Off Campus Locations

Follow posted procedures.

Fire Safety

When an alarm sounds, doors and windows must be closed and the building must be evacuated immediately. After leaving the building, individuals must travel to and remain at least 200 feet away from the building – and even further if possible when glass windows and doors are nearby. Individuals may return to the building only when the alarm has stopped and permission to re-enter has been given by Campus Safety, fire department, and/or law enforcement personnel.

Fire protection equipment such as extinguishers and alarms are located in each building on the Grand Rapids campuses and off-site locations.

Dining Commons

The university’s Dining Commons, located in the Corum Student Union, is open September through April for dinner (except during undergraduate seasonal breaks). Meal tickets can be purchased at the Accounting and Finance Office in the Welch Administration Building on the main campus or by cash/check at the Cashier Stand of the Dining Commons for $8.00.

Replacement identification cards may be obtained at the campus switchboard in Warren Faber Hall for a nominal fee.

Inclement Weather Conditions

In case of inclement weather, students should check announcements on the CU Portal at portal.cornerstone.edu/pgs after 3 p.m. the day of class. If students are still uncertain, they may call the Professional & Graduate Studies office between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. on the day of class. Even if day classes on the main campus are cancelled, students should not assume that night classes are also cancelled.

Tornado Watch

If a tornado watch forecast is given via TV, radio, or telephone, an official officer of the university will declare what immediate action is to be taken. Students will be notified by campus safety if class is to be canceled.

Tornado Warning

A tornado warning is usually signaled by a continuous siren from the fire station. Due to the nature of the buildings on Cornerstone's campus, safety can best be secured by getting to an inside hallway, kneeling with head down, and crossing hands over the back of the head.

Lost and Found

PGS lost and found items are located at the PGS building receptionist desk on the upper level. Other places on the CU main campus to locate lost items include the Student Development Office in the upper level of the Corum Student Union, Miller Library, Bernice Hansen Center and the Campus Safety Office in Warren Faber Hall.
