WELCOME TO GRAND RAPIDS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY!

Dear student,

The LORD has placed a calling on your life. Whatever your age, your background, your story—He invites you to pursue it.

By opening this book, you have taken the next step toward transformation. That is what an education at Cornerstone University will do.

For over 80 years, CU has prepared and equipped individuals like you for your vocation, whether you are in school for the first time or studying for an advanced degree. We are committed to providing our students with well-rounded programs that cultivate knowledge, skill, and professionalism, all within a Christ-centered and student focused learning environment.

WHY WE EXIST:

Cornerstone University exists to empower men and women to excel as influencers in our world for Christ by offering a student-focused learning community where Jesus Christ is central.

WHAT WE ASPIRE TO:

We aspire to create a thriving community of fully devoted followers of Jesus in a spiritually contagious, academically excellent, richly resourced and culturally diverse learning environment that attracts outstanding students, faculty and staff who influence our world for Christ, His church and His kingdom.

MISSION AND PURPOSE

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is a graduate school that prepares biblically and culturally informed ministry leaders for service through Christ's church.

The seminary exists to achieve the following six purposes:

1. To advance biblical, theological and ministry knowledge and skill.
2. To nurture theological, spiritual and leadership formation.
3. To encourage the development of critical thinking and worldview formation governed by biblical teaching.
4. To nurture a global ministry perspective.
5. To enhance the cultural relevance of ministry practice within the bounds of a distinctively Christian theological framework.
6. To encourage lifelong and collaborative learning.

CORE VALUES

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary enacts its mission based on eight core values.

1. Biblical worldview: We engage theological education from a high view of biblical authority, with appreciation for the flow of the biblical story and with a commitment to exegete the whole Bible in its original languages.
2. Spiritual transformation: We understand and pursue ongoing spiritual transformation as a communal redemptive process of growth in faith, a process fostered by knowledge of the Word of God and expressed in character development, ethical transformation and greater love for God and people.
3. Critical thinking: We believe critical thinking requires a strong commitment to scholarship, engagement with diverse viewpoints and appreciation for the tension of ideas associated within the developmental process.

4. Christ's church: We exist to serve Christ and His worldwide church as partners in the development of ministry leaders through a variety of formal and non- formal means.
5. Disciplinary integration: We nurture skillful integration of the theological disciplines to foster holistic growth in theory and practice, while affirming the value of specialization in the theological disciplines.
6. Lifelong collaborative learning: We foster a disciplined approach to lifelong learning and view it as a shared journey with others.
7. Cross-cultural understanding: We affirm cross- cultural interdependence with the diverse cultures and perspectives of the world and recognize the importance of cultural exegesis and sensitivity for effective service.
8. Diverse community: We value an academic community which includes men and women of diverse ethnic, socioeconomic and Christian theological traditions.

GRTS MOTTO

The motto of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is "Learning, Serving, Leading." The motto provides insight concerning the identity, values and mission of GRTS and is worthy of further consideration.

LEARNING:

Student learning is central to the mission, values and overall culture of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Through a disciplined and rigorous learning environment, faculty members temper the challenge with grace and support. The core curriculum is designed to enable students to conduct disciplined interpretation and application of the Bible; articulate a coherent understanding of Christian theology; and demonstrate basic knowledge, values and competencies associated with spiritual, worldview and leadership formation. In addition to the core curriculum, the various degrees include areas of specialization, equipping students for a wide range of ministry and human services vocations.

GRTS conceives of learning in holistic terms, seeking to foster growth of the whole person. Traditional classroom teaching, interaction with faculty scholars, a battery of student assessments and an extended field education experience (i.e., Ministry Residency or Counseling Practicum and Counseling Internships I and II) combine to foster cognitive, affective and behavioral learning. Since ministry and other forms of human service are always engaged as whole persons, the preparation must foster holistic learning and growth. GRTS understands this and structures a diverse set of learning experiences that foster maturation of the whole person.

SERVING:

In addition to working with faculty scholars to develop exegetical skills and theological understanding within traditional classroom settings, GRTS offers students the opportunity to work with seasoned ministry and human services professionals to refine their gifts, confirm their calling and mature in character within the context of authentic service and/or practice.

Through Ministry Residency or Counseling Practicum and Internships I and II, and as part of the degree program requirements, students serve side by side with experienced ministry leaders and professional counselors within local church, parachurch and other vocational contexts. The sustained nature of the Ministry Residency experience, throughout the duration of the degree program, enables students to establish a life pattern of learning and serving, the necessary foundation for mature and effective vocational service.

LEADING:

At GRTS, we believe that ministry leadership emerges from the mastery of learning and serving.

Leadership, or influence, in ministry is not inherent to a position or established by exerting authority but by the authentic confession of faith, affirmation of gifts, demonstration of commitment and competence, expression of care and credibility of character.

At GRTS, we believe that ministry leadership is best understood as stewardship, consisting of a stewardship of truth, of persons and of organizations. Ministry leaders, regardless of position, are responsible to accurately represent God and His Word, nurture the faith and contribution of others and foster a mature and responsive faith community.

Effectiveness and influence in life and ministry require a sustained commitment and engagement in learning and serving. Leadership flows from the expertise and credibility derived from such commitments and actions. GRTS understands itself and its mission in these terms, endeavoring to nurture life patterns of learning, serving and leading.

HISTORY

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary of Cornerstone University traces its founding as a degree-granting institution to 1948, when the state of Michigan authorized it to grant the Bachelor of Divinity degree (now called the Master of Divinity). The first graduating class in 1949 boasted two graduates. The institution originally opened in January 1941 as an evening Bible institute at Wealthy Street Baptist Church. In 1944, a day school was started that became the seminary four years later, at which time the school was renamed Grand Rapids Bible Institute and Theological Seminary. The institute became a state-approved, degree-granting Bible college in 1963, moved to its present location in 1964 and transitioned into a Christian liberal arts college in 1972. In 1999, the entire institution acquired state-approved university status. Today, Cornerstone University and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary share a 123-acre campus located four miles from downtown Grand Rapids. The seminary is housed in the Leon J. Wood Seminary Building which opened in 1977. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, its administration and faculty operate under the authority of the board of trustees of Cornerstone University.

GRAND RAPIDS

Grand Rapids is an excellent locale for a seminary. A quiet, sprawling city with a greater metropolitan area population of more than 1,000,000, it has been called “the city of churches” and “the center of orthodoxy.” Several hundred conservative evangelical churches within 50 miles of the school offer many opportunities for Christian service and fellowship.

Grand Rapids has affordable housing, and the cost of living is lower than in many cities its size. Many seminarians live in off-campus apartments or houses.

As the commercial center of West Michigan, Grand Rapids’ banks, offices, hospitals, school systems and factories provide ample employment opportunities for students and their spouses.

Additionally, Grand Rapids is home to four well-known religious book publishers—William B. Eerdmans Publishing Company, Zondervan, Baker Book House and Kregel Publications. Grand Rapids Public Library’s main location includes extensive religious holdings, making it a valuable resource for theological students. Also available are the library collections of two other area seminaries, in addition to the thousands of rare theological volumes held in Cornerstone University’s Miller Library.

Cultural opportunities include ArtPrize, the Grand Rapids Art Museum, Grand Rapids Public Museum, Grand Rapids Symphony, Grand Rapids Ballet, Opera Grand Rapids, professional and collegiate sports teams, professional-quality community theatre groups and many traveling artists, concert performances and events held at DeVos Performance Hall, Frederik Meijer Gardens and Van Andel Arena. The unique neighborhoods of Grand Rapids are all full of eclectic history, culture and experiences which will further enrich your experience as a graduate student.

CORNERSTONE UNIVERSITY

Cornerstone is a Christ-centered university with a passion for global influence through the transforming power of the gospel. Cornerstone University exists to empower men and women to excel as influencers in our world for Christ by offering a student-focused learning community where Jesus Christ is central. Founded in 1941, the university is a four-part academic enterprise composed of the traditional undergraduate college (TUG) and Professional & Graduate Studies (PGS) which serves working adults through undergraduate and graduate degree programs along with two graduate theological schools: Grand Rapids Theological Seminary (GRTS) and Asia Biblical Theological Seminary (ABTS), based in Thailand. The school owns and operates WCSG, an adult contemporary Christian music radio station serving the Grand Rapids and West Michigan area.

EDUCATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

Assessment of student learning is highly valued at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. We take seriously our responsibility to deliver on the promise to provide excellence in graduate theological education. At GRTS, assessment of student outcomes is not an externally imposed burden. Rather, assessment of student learning and the disclosure of educational effectiveness is a task of stewardship, a process for organizational learning and a matter of accountability.

The effectiveness of our educational programs is assessed in a disciplined and routine manner. Through a variety of instruments and processes, we assess the achievement of the intended student learning outcomes of our curriculum, student and alumni satisfaction, readiness for vocational service of our students and vocational achievement of our graduates.

CORNERSTONE CONFSSION

The Cornerstone Confession is the foundational doctrinal statement of Cornerstone University, reaffirmed annually by Cornerstone trustees, faculty and staff. The confession expresses our commitment to the key teachings of Scripture as interpreted through the ecumenical creeds of the early church, the chief insights of the Reformation and evangelical Christianity.

WE BELIEVE in one sovereign, omnipotent and fully omniscient God who eternally exists in three persons—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—who in love and for His glory created all things out of nothing and pronounced them good.

WE BELIEVE that God has revealed Himself in the 66 canonical books of Scripture, which are verbally inspired, truth without error and serve as our final authority in faith and life. They lead us to Jesus Christ, who shows us the Father, and rightly interpreted, they enable us to understand God’s revelation in humanity, nature and history.

WE BELIEVE that God directly created Adam and Eve, the historical parents of the human race, distinct from the rest of creation in their bearing of God’s image and their stewardship over creation.

Their union as man and woman models God’s design for marriage and perpetually stands as God’s loving and righteous will for all sexual intimacy.

WE BELIEVE that our first parents forfeited their original righteousness when they succumbed to Satan’s temptation and rebelled against God’s revealed will. As a result, every human is born in sin, leaving us totally depraved, alienated from God and destined to spiritual and physical death. As such, our sinful ways have corrupted God’s creation, resulting in discord to society and nature.

WE BELIEVE that God’s plan to redeem fallen humanity and renew creation flows through His promises to the Jewish people. God’s promises to Abraham and David are fulfilled in Jesus, the mediator of the New Covenant.

WE BELIEVE that the Son of God, while fully divine, became fully human through the virgin birth to save the world from sin. Living a sinless life in perfect obedience to His Father, Jesus proclaimed God’s reign in word and deed.

In his mercy He atoned for our sins by dying in our place. Having satisfied the just wrath of God on our behalf, He rose bodily and triumphantly over sin, death and Satan. He then ascended to heaven, sent His Spirit to lead and empower His church and is seated at the Father’s right hand where He reigns and intercedes for His people.

WE BELIEVE that the Holy Spirit descended at Pentecost to establish the church; that He uses the Word of God to give new life to those who repent of their sin and believe in Christ; and that all who by faith alone receive Christ’s finished work are by God’s grace united with Christ, justified by His shed blood, adopted into the family of God, forgiven of all their sin, indwelt and gifted by the Spirit and added to the church.

WE BELIEVE that the one, holy and universal church is the body and bride of Christ. The church gathers in local assemblies to worship God and celebrate the gospel through the preaching of the Word, baptism, the Lord’s Supper, prayer and fellowship. It disperses to proclaim the gospel to a sinful world which must hear the good news of Jesus Christ in order to be saved. The church makes disciples of Jesus who, through persevering faith, embody the kingdom values of righteousness, peace and joy. By loving God, serving others and caring for creation, they anticipate the redemption of all things at Christ’s return.

WE BELIEVE that our Lord Jesus Christ will personally and gloriously return to deliver this world from Satan’s rule and bring His reign to its ultimate fruition. Jesus will raise the dead to stand with the living before His judgment throne where He will determine the final state of humanity. The lost will experience everlasting conscious separation from God as the just punishment for their sin, and the redeemed will be welcomed into the unhindered joy of everlasting fellowship with Him.

The following provides a few highlights and demonstrates how GRTS is delivering on its promise to provide excellence in graduate theological education.

VOCATIONAL READINESS

GRTS students are assessed for their vocational readiness at the mid-point of their degree program and the end of their degree program. The process engages the student with the academic dean, associate dean, faculty adviser, practicum/internship supervisor or ministry residency mentor and the practicum/internship faculty supervisor or ministry residency director to assess student progress holistically as they prepare to serve in their respective vocations. The potential outcomes of the process include the following: (1) The student is making good progress in vocational readiness; (2) the student is making progress in vocational readiness but with specific concerns (with reservation); or (3) the student is not making sufficient progress in vocational readiness. The three-year average outcomes by degree from fall 2016 to spring 2019 are as follows:

- 91% of Master of Divinity students achieved the highest outcome (i.e., fully affirmed/making good progress in vocational readiness) at the mid-point assessment and 98% at the exit assessment.
- 89% of M.A. in clinical mental health counseling students achieved the highest outcome (i.e., fully affirmed/making good progress in vocational readiness) at the mid-point assessment and 98% at the exit assessment.
- 82% of M.A. in Christian studies (formerly interdisciplinary studies) students achieved the highest outcome (i.e., fully affirmed/making good progress in vocational readiness) at the mid-point assessment and 100% at the exit assessment.
- 67% of M.A. in ministry leadership and M.A. in biblical studies students achieved the highest outcome (i.e., making good progress in vocational readiness) at the mid-point assessment and 100% at the exit assessment.

DEGREE COMPLETION

- The six-year completion rate from 2013 to 2019 for students who began in the M.A. in clinical mental health counseling program and graduated with an M.A. in clinical mental health counseling degree is 56%. Another 2% graduated with a different degree from GRTS.
- The six-year completion rate from 2013 to 2019 for students who began in the Master of Divinity program and graduated with the Master of Divinity degree is 51%. Another 11% graduated with a different degree from GRTS.
- The six-year completion rate from 2013 to 2019 for students who began in the M.A. in Christian formation or M.A. in interdisciplinary studies program and graduated with the same degree is 46%.
- The six-year completion rate from 2013 to 2019 for students who began in the M.A. in ministry leadership program and graduated with the same degree is 59%. Another 7% graduated with a different degree from GRTS.
- The six-year completion rate from 2013 to 2019 for students who began in the M.A. in biblical studies program and graduated with the same degree is 62%. Another 8% graduated with a different degree from GRTS.

VOCATIONAL OUTCOMES

- 74% of Master of Divinity alumni surveyed reported being vocationally employed in a ministry context.
- 67% of Master of Divinity alumni have achieved licensure and/or ordination as a minister.
- 75% of M.A. in Christian formation alumni surveyed reported being vocationally employed within six to 12 months of graduation. The additional 25% continued for further study beyond the M.A. in Christian formation degree.
- M.A. in clinical mental health counseling alumni surveyed 18 months post-graduation reported a 100% employment rate as clinical mental health counselors in 2018. Of the respondents, 50% indicated they pursued further education toward additional certification beyond state licensure. The five-year alumni survey distributed in 2016 for all alumni of the M.A. in clinical mental health counseling program (for the past 20 years) indicated a 96% employment rate.
- 100% of graduates of the M.A. in ministry leadership/M.A. in biblical studies degree have obtained professional employment. 80% of graduates of the M.A. in ministry leadership/M.A. in biblical studies degree are vocationally placed in ministry-related positions.
- 60% of graduates of the M.A. in ministry leadership/M.A. in biblical studies degree have obtained licensure and/or ordination as a minister.

Please note: Data above was taken from the results of a variety of surveys and other evaluative instruments administered in recent years at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary.

NATIONAL COUNSELOR EXAMINATION

The National Counselor Examination (NCE) pass rate recorded for graduates of Cornerstone University/ Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is 100%. The state of Michigan provides NCE pass rates for any counselor who has a Michigan license (limited or full) but does not track NCE pass rates for those who have never applied for a license. The NCE is offered through the National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC).

PROGRAM FEATURES

ENROLLMENT OPTIONS

In recognition of the diversity of life circumstances, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary provides a wide range of enrollment options to students. Typically, students progress through degree programs by participating in a combination of the enrollment options. To assist students in mapping their academic program, GRTS maintains a four-year course planner which provides a broad view of the next four years of course rotations. The diverse set of enrollment options available at GRTS are described in greater detail below.

COURSE MODALITY

GRTS offers HyFlex (hybrid-flexible) courses. This means courses are delivered through a variety of methods (i.e., modalities) and in combinations of delivery methods within the same classroom as outlined below.

Bimodal:

A course delivered in a combination of any two delivery modalities (e.g., On-Site and Live) at the same time. Both modalities form one classroom where all students interact together according to the requirements of their selected modality.

Trimodal:

A course delivered in a combination of all three delivery modalities (i.e., On-Site, Live and Anytime). All three modalities form one classroom where all students interact together according to the requirements of their selected modality.

ON-SITE—A course delivered in a traditional classroom environment (i.e., face-to-face) at a regularly scheduled time. Course resources can be accessed online via Moodle.

LIVE—A course delivered online (Moodle) with regularly scheduled same-time engagement with the professor and other students via video conferencing technologies such as Microsoft Teams, Zoom or Google Meet.

ANYTIME—A course delivered online via Moodle with no specific same-time obligations. Rather students interact and engage with course content, faculty and other students via recorded lectures, readings, assignments, discussion forums and other online activities anytime during the week before established due dates.

TRADITIONAL SEMESTERS

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is a semester-based school with the fall semester running from late August or early September to mid-December and the spring semester running from the third week of January to late April or early May. Residential courses are scheduled Monday to Friday with morning, afternoon and evening options. Residential courses are available during the traditional semesters as full-block courses. Full-block courses meet once per week. See the Seminary Resources webpage for the current and/or most recent course schedule.

EVENING COURSES

In response to the recommendations of working professionals desiring seminary education, GRTS offers a variety of evening courses during the traditional fall and spring semesters. The evening courses meet one night per week throughout the 15-week semester, are available on an audit or credit basis and can be applied to a variety of seminary degree programs. See the Seminary Resources webpage for the current and/or most recent semester course schedule.

J-TERM

An eight-day, bi-modal intensive (On-Site and Live) J-term is available each year during the second and third weeks of January. Given the structure of these courses, students are able to enroll in a morning and a separate afternoon course. See the Seminary Resources webpage for the current and upcoming J-term course offerings.

MULTI-DAY INTENSIVE/HYBRID COURSES

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers a number of hybrid courses that require a three-day intensive on campus, followed by online learning and engagement via Moodle for the duration of the semester. Most of these courses are offered in relationship to the M.A. in clinical mental health counseling degree program. See the Seminary Resources webpage for the current and upcoming multi-day intensive course offerings.

SUMMER SEMESTER

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary offers additional graduate courses in various delivery methods (i.e., On-Site, Live, Anytime) and durations (e.g., multi-day intensives, seven weeks, 15 weeks) during a summer semester which runs from early May through late August. See the Seminary Resources webpage for the current and upcoming summer course offerings.

MODULES: MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The Master of Theology degree program is primarily delivered to students through course modules. The course modules are coordinated on an individual basis with the supervising professor. For specific course requirements, consult the Master of Theology degree listing and related course descriptions in this catalog.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

The faculty employ a number of instructional methods to foster student learning. Together, the range and kinds of methods utilized attend to the diverse learning styles of students while seeking to facilitate competency in the various domains of Bloom's taxonomy (i.e., knowledge, comprehension, application, analysis, synthesis and evaluation). A sampling of the various kinds of instructional methods routinely in use at GRTS are outlined below.

- Lecture
- Assigned readings
- Research papers
- Critical review papers

- Theological confession writing
- Written thesis
- Small group discussion

MINISTRY RESIDENCY

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to equipping students and elevating their integration of theological discipline with ministry experience.

The Ministry Residency program at GRTS prepares students for vocational ministry by providing avenues for them to connect with ministry coaches and to invest in local ministries.

If you are a student pursuing a Master of Divinity or Master of Arts in Christian formation, you will invest 8 credits of your degree toward serving alongside a mentor in a local ministry. Through the Ministry Residency program, we are committed to assisting your preparation and implementation of this aspect of your program.

GRTS is committed to giving you a solid theological framework that will allow you to assess and grow in an integrated, local ministry context. This is highly valued at GRTS, and we are committed to assisting you in your preparation for ministry.

PROGRAM SCOPE: LEARNING, SERVING, LEADING

Ministry Residency at GRTS is a tangible expression of the high value we place on integrating solid theological thinking with hands-on ministry experience. We desire to graduate thoughtful leaders who champion theological integrity and who are beginning to demonstrate proven ministry effectiveness.

The Ministry Residency program works to connect students with their local ministry interests, establishing a ministry context in which a student can worship, serve in a ministry capacity and be mentored by a seasoned ministry leader.

PROGRAM SPIRIT: THEOLOGICALLY INFORMED MINISTRY PRACTICE

It is the spirit of GRTS to work alongside the church to assist in preparing ministry leaders for theologically informed ministry practice and who are theologically competent and ministry capable. GRTS continues to enjoy a growing heritage of ministry leaders in multiple fields, expressing the gospel through pastoring, teaching, counseling and leading.

It is in these expressions that we find our greatest sense of impact and success.

YOUR DEGREE JOURNEY

MINISTRY GROWTH THROUGH MINISTRY RESIDENCY

The Ministry Residency program is designed as an extended, contextual immersion with a local ministry (8 credits over two years). Our heartbeat is to develop a missional web between GRTS, graduate students and local churches in order to equip emerging leaders as they prepare to serve God through the church.

The Ministry Residency program at GRTS is committed to assisting students in developing their potential and refining their calling as Christian leaders.

- The Ministry Residency program is founded on an educational philosophy intent on encouraging students to extend their theological training into actual ministry environments.
- Residency allows each student program at GRTS to remain dynamic in response to our rapidly changing world and to the contexts in which our graduates endeavor to minister.
- Students' connection with GRTS and Ministry Residency gives them an opportunity to express their calling through theological reflection, through coaching feedback and through actual ministry opportunity.
- Partnerships with proven, local ministries and coaches provide contexts encouraging GRTS students to develop as creative leaders, reflective shepherds, effective practitioners and thoughtful theologians.

MINISTRY COMPETENCY THROUGH MINISTRY RESIDENCY

The goal of Ministry Residency is to provide students the opportunity to explore their ministry calling in a local ministry while growing in their ministry competency.

We have identified ministry competencies that will guide a resident's learning and will be used to track one's growth in these areas. Ten of these competencies are:

- Time management and allocation.
- Contemplation and reflection (e.g., spiritual disciplines, soul care).
- Ministry task and administration.
- Teaching, preaching and facilitating.
- Volunteers (e.g., leading, staffing, team dynamics).
- Pastoral/ministry duties.
- Strategic planning/programming.
- Counseling/on call.
- Personal leadership (e.g., identifying gifts and passions).
- Specialized ministry.

THEOLOGICALLY INFORMED MINISTRY PRACTICE THROUGH MINISTRY RESIDENCY

Competencies focus on tangible outcomes of applied knowledge and value. The Ministry Residency program seeks to encourage experience and reflection upon competencies based on the following values. These values will enhance students' reflection papers as directed in the course syllabi.

Theological Reflection: The student develops a growing ability to navigate ministry situations through the theological matrix emerging through their academic disciplines and ministry experiences. Academic rigor will affect ministry practice and ministry experience will motivate theological study. A student who values theological reflection is able to bring theology into life situations and will constantly be pursuing theological clarity as their knowledge and experiences expand.

Communal Interdependence: The student values the necessity of a local community where they invest and are invested in. They recognize their essential connection with their local church and are responsive to the counsel, support and feedback of their ministry coach and academic advisers committed to speaking into their lives. A student with communal interdependence values the necessity for community and is able to receive and contribute freely in this context.

Spiritual Transformation: The student develops ongoing disciplines that foster a deepening love for God and a maturing worldview that allow for personal and professional choices to flow out of thoughtful reflection and a teachable heart. They recognize the need for continually seeking God and His purposes and are vigilant in watching their life and doctrine closely. A student who values spiritual reformation is thoughtful, reflective and eager to mature in their following of Jesus.

Missional Identity: The student reflects on their own development, discovering and refining their gifts, abilities, passions and limitations. Through their academic interaction and ministry experiences, the student grows in how God is calling them to contribute to His redemptive mission. One would expect the student to grow in written and verbal communication, leadership qualities, counseling experience and pastoral care. A student with missional identity begins to envision their next steps in God's calling and is aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

Contextual Vision: The student grows in wisdom and compassion and seeks to understand their world (i.e., social, environmental, economic and cultural setting) in which they minister and live. As servant leaders, they seek ways to love others through understanding them before prescribing formulaic answers. Further, the student gains a broader perspective of the world and the necessity for understanding the global church and the issues surrounding missions, multiculturalism and true partnership. A student with contextual vision is embracing a realistic view of their world (through listening and learning) and is envisioning (and desiring) what God might want it to truly be.

GETTING INVOLVED WITH MINISTRY RESIDENCY

As students enter their degree program, they should spend their first semester connecting relationally with a church or ministry while they immerse themselves in theological study. When the student approaches their final four semesters of their program, they will invest with the local ministry, serving eight to 10 hours a week in order to bring their training to a local context and their ministry experiences back to the classroom.

By the end of the program, a student graduates with theological understanding, ministry experience and valuable feedback from faculty and ministry coaches.

MINISTRY RESIDENCY OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

The Ministry Residency program has connections to over 80 area churches, parachurch ministries and mentors who in the past have served or are willing to serve as a residency site.

The Ministry Residency program at GRTS is working hard to partner with these quality churches, parachurch ministries and coaches to offer diverse opportunities for students to serve in a local ministry setting.

For a general list of ministries connected with Ministry Residency and open to exploring Ministry Residencies with students, contact the administrative assistant to the Ministry Residency program.

THE URBAN COHORT PROGRAM

In an effort to serve the urban centers of West Michigan and beyond, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary initiated the Urban Cohort program in 2008. The program, a cohort-based educational model, is designed to provide advanced biblical, theological and ministry leadership education to urban ministry leaders. At GRTS, we believe that urban ministry leaders are community leaders, possessing the position and potential to foster significant redemptive influence. Our vision for the program is to further equip these leaders to facilitate needed changes within urban contexts and to do so from a theologically informed perspective. After serving for over two decades in urban ministry, Rev. Dr. Royce Evans joined GRTS in 2008 to provide leadership to the Urban Cohort program and currently serves as associate dean of the Urban Cohort program and executive director of Ministry Residency.

The program curriculum is built around a seven-course core (i.e., foundational courses in Bible and theology) and delivered in a one night per week format (On-Site or Live via videoconferencing technology) to a cohort of students (15-25 per cohort). Upon completing the seven core courses, the Urban Cohort student with an existing accredited bachelor's degree can complete the remaining five courses and achieve the Master of Arts in ministry leadership or the Master of Arts in biblical studies.

For those Urban Cohort students without an existing accredited bachelor's degree, five of the seven core courses can be applied to one of several bachelor's degrees offered by the Professional & Graduate Studies division of Cornerstone University. Thus, the program is designed to foster learning and growth for enhanced ministry impact, while enabling the urban ministry leader to move to the next level of credential in their educational journey.

For more information concerning the Urban Cohort program, please review the Urban Cohort program section of the GRTS website.

THE PIRSIG FELLOWSHIP

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to the local and global church. Our mission, in part, is to contribute to the growth and vitality of local churches by preparing and equipping students to serve in ministry and leadership. With this commitment in view, Grand Rapids Theological Seminary has established a fellowship program for Master of Divinity students that is uniquely focused on preparing them to serve in diverse ministry contexts. This fellowship was made possible through a generous gift from the late Julius and Barbara Pirsig who had a heart for assisting seminarians in preparing to serve the Lord. The Pirsig Fellowship features three primary emphases.

SCHOLARSHIP

One goal of the Pirsig Fellowship is to make the M.Div. degree more affordable and reduce student debt, providing students more freedom for future ministry opportunities after graduation. The program offers a generous 50% tuition scholarship to qualified students (see eligibility requirements below).

COMMUNITY

Pirsig fellows join a distinct cohort and participate in cohort activities offered by the seminary. The cohort structure allows for intentional community to form among students. Cohorts enter the program at the same time, take many classes together and have numerous shared experiences along the way.

ENHANCEMENTS

Pirsig fellows participate in extracurricular enhancements aimed at spiritual formation. These experiences include small group discipleship, retreats, workshops and more. The goal of the enhancements is to nurture students' personal discipleship to Christ, strengthen their ability to disciple others and gain skills and insights valuable for ministry and leadership.

ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION CRITERIA

Pirsig fellows are men and women from diverse contexts who feel a calling to serve the church locally or globally in a variety of ways. They are growing in their love for Jesus Christ, are committed to helping others know Him and His Word and are eager to give their gifts and talents in service to the kingdom. Pirsig fellows are chosen in accordance with the following requirements and criteria.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Pirsig fellows must exhibit the following characteristics:

- Completed bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 3.0/4.0. (Students in the final year of their bachelor's degree are encouraged to apply.)

- Acceptance in the Master of Divinity program. (This fellowship is only available to new and transfer students.)
- Ministry calling and gifting. The following forms of ministry are preferred: pastoral ministry, discipleship/spiritual formation, chaplaincy, urban ministry and missions.
- Love for the church (global and local) and compassion for people.
- Growing in Christlike character.
- Demonstrated academic performance and commitment to completing the M.Div.

OTHER RELEVANT SELECTION CRITERIA

The following criteria are taken into consideration when awarding Pirsig Fellowships.

- Diversity: GRTS desires to be a diverse and reconciling community. Therefore, priority is given to building diversity into all cohorts. Candidates who believe they will contribute to that commitment are encouraged to apply.
- Age: The early years of one's career are pivotal for developing a long-term ministry. Therefore, priority is given to candidates 35 years old and younger. Recent college graduates are encouraged to apply.
- Financial need: GRTS recognizes the high financial cost of education, especially for those who cannot expect their income to increase through work in ministry. Therefore, priority is given to those with limited financial resources.

COMMITMENT DURING SEMINARY

Pirsig fellows affirm the following commitments:

- Maintain 3.0 cumulative GPA in seminary.
- Complete the M.Div. in five years or less.
- Participate in all fellowship enhancements.
- Meet annually with fellowship director.
- Encouraged to "give back" to the Pirsig Fellowship in the future (as the Lord leads).

ANCIENT WORLD OF THE BIBLE STUDY TOUR

In addition to the traditional classes offered at GRTS, the Ancient World of the Bible Study Tour provides a way for students to experience the land of the Bible firsthand. The Ancient World of the Bible Study Tour involves extensive travel within Israel, Palestine and Jordan along with on-site exploration of archaeological remains and a detailed study of the history, culture and geography of the region with an emphasis on illuminating the world of the Bible. The 10-12 day trip is led by GRTS professors, in cooperation with our overseas partners, and held each J-term as the credit offering BBL-601/BBL-604 Experiencing the Ancient World of the Bible. The course (or the on-campus alternative BBL-506) is a program requirement for all Master of Divinity students who began their program since fall 2013 and for Master of Arts in biblical exegesis students but is open to students in any degree program. Thanks to generous donor support, a number of Study Tour Scholarship spots are available each year, allowing for participation at a subsidized rate (paid as a course fee), with priority given to M.Div., M.A. in biblical exegesis and Urban Cohort students, though any enrolled M.A. student is eligible to apply. Students' spouses, family and friends of GRTS are also welcome to participate as audit students. For further information about the study tour, see cornerstone.edu/israel-study-tour.

THE HESSE MEMORIAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL LABORATORY

Located on the campus of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary at Cornerstone University, the Hesse Memorial Archaeological Laboratory exists to facilitate research, train students and serve as a platform for public outreach and education. It is named in honor of Brian Hesse (1944-2011) of The Pennsylvania State University, a pioneer in the application of "zooarchaeology" (the archaeology of animal bones) to the field of biblical archaeology and teacher, mentor, colleague and friend of the current lab director, Dr. Jonathan S. Greer.

RESEARCH

Current research includes the analysis of a large collection of animal bone remains from the site of Tel Dan in northern Israel on loan from the Nelson Glueck School of Biblical Archaeology at the Hebrew Union College of Jerusalem. This analysis will be included in the final excavation volumes for the Tel Dan project currently being prepared, and it now benefits from collaboration with Dr. Elizabeth Arnold of Grand Valley State University's Department of Anthropology.

TRAINING

Consistent with the commitment of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary to provide rigorous training not only in original language exegesis but also in the historical-cultural backgrounds of the Bible, the Hesse Memorial Lab is utilized for training students in methods of scientific archaeology (i.e., zooarchaeology).

Elective courses BBL-600 Biblical Archaeology and BBL-603 Methods and Archaeology are offered regularly as small group, hybrid or independent study courses and utilize the lab extensively. The lab is equipped with appropriate manuals, scientific instruments (including a digital microscope and photography station) and an ever-growing reference collection of comparative faunal remains. The space has also provided a setting for pre-dig training for students participating in the excavations at Tel Dan. Dr. Greer serves as associate director for these excavations.

OUTREACH

The lab will cohost public lectures on topics related to biblical archaeology that will be advertised on the website and elsewhere as events are finalized. The lab is also open for tours for interested public and private school groups and religious institutions. Please contact Dr. Greer to arrange a tour.

CURRICULAR PRIORITIES

HISTORICAL/GRAMMATICAL EXEGESIS

The Master of Divinity degree is the historical standard in academic preparation for both vocational ministry and advanced theological study. The program develops essential biblical competencies in leaders who must be skilled in interpreting Scripture. Because of this, GRTS requires three semesters of exegesis in both Hebrew and Greek, in addition to two semesters of basic instruction in each language. There are at least four reasons for this.

First, detailed and close scrutiny of the biblical text in the original languages offers the opportunity for greater interpretive accuracy. The flourishing of God's people depends upon them faithfully attending to what God has said. Ministers, therefore, must be skilled and accurate interpreters who can communicate God's Word to God's people.

Second, the logic of God's work in the world and the precise and varied contours of the gospel are communicated by the linguistic thought-forms and verbal expressions of biblical Hebrew and Greek.

Skilled interpreters will pick up nuances of meaning and shades of expression that translations cannot capture. Because of this, skilled interpreters who know the languages can penetrate into the truth more effectively and communicate with greater freshness the hope held out in Scripture.

Third, translations into any language inevitably shape the biblical text to some extent according to the values, thought-forms and worldviews of the receptor language. Skilled interpreters who know the languages have a greater opportunity to allow Scripture to critique contemporary cultural values and corrupted mindsets.

Fourth, God calls ministers to faithfully lead His people in the midst of cultural pressures and unanticipated challenges. These leaders need to have confidence that they have rightly understood what God has said and the promise to which He calls His people. Interpreting the biblical text by skillfully working in Hebrew and Greek offers a more strategic opportunity for ministers to faithfully fulfill God's call.

We affirm the excellent and essential work of translators and publishers of translations so that the Word of God is in the hands of as many people as possible. We also affirm the fruitful and God-blessed ministries of many diligent and God-honoring people who have not learned Hebrew and Greek. We remain strongly committed to training ministry practitioners who excel in interpretation of the Bible in the original languages.

CHRISTIAN WORLDVIEW

The faculty of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to a curriculum that places emphasis upon Christian worldview formation rooted in biblical exegesis. We believe that effective ministry requires biblical and theological precision.

We firmly believe that sloppy theology represents poor stewardship of truth and is often counterproductive in ministry.

At GRTS, students are taught to think according to the flow of redemptive history through the meta-narrative approach to theology: creation–fall–redemption–consummation. Consideration is first given to God's design at creation: What did God intend? After establishing the ideal, thought is given to the impact of human rebellion at the fall of man: What are the implications of the fall? Once rebellion, brokenness and incompleteness are considered, thought is given to the influence of Christ's redemptive work: How has Christ brought restoration? Finally, and with a spirit of anticipation, thought is given to God's plan for complete restoration: What will human existence be like without the presence of sin? This biblically based pattern of thought serves as an invaluable guide for biblical and exegetical work and ministry practice.

This meta-narrative approach to doing theology and ministry is embedded within a variety of GRTS courses, though the central focus is within the three-course Systematic Theology sequence (THE-540, THE-640, THE-641) and the two-course Theology for Counseling sequence (THE-550, THE-551).

CHRISTIAN SPIRITUAL FORMATION

In Jesus Christ, God is restoring us to our original righteous orientation to God and renewing our relationships with others and with the earth itself. The Spirit of God is empowering God's people to grow in wholeness; to overcome sinful temptations; and to develop attitudes, behaviors and social structures oriented by genuine fellowship with God and enjoyment of mutually genuine relationships with others. Christian spirituality, through Scripture, prayer and other spiritual disciplines restores our relationship with God, our fellow human beings and the earth itself. Within the context of a faith community, we should explore and seek to creatively embody the attitudes, behaviors, social dynamics and life patterns which are appropriate for this process of reorientation. This requires identifying idolatry, attitudes, behaviors and perverse social practices that embody self-destructive selfishness and brokenness and replacing them, by God's grace, with attitudes, behaviors and social practices that honor God, serve others and steward the earth. Nothing less is appropriate for those who follow Jesus Christ in their journey of being conformed to His image.

At GRTS, we seek to advance this biblically informed understanding of personal spiritual formation through the Bible and theology core and facilitate the habits, practices and soul-posture necessary for growth in faith in select ministry courses and other programmatic structures. Our intentions in this area are evident across the entire curriculum (Bible/ theology/ ministry/counseling) but most focused in the following areas.

- MIN-500 Christian Spiritual Formation: A required course that engages students in a biblical and historical overview of spiritual formation, a battery of personal assessments and a spiritual direction process. The course culminates in the development of a personal growth plan.
- MIN-543 Christian Formation in the Church: A core course that fosters knowledge and competency to lead individuals and groups in the processes associated with spiritual formation within the context of the local church.
- MIN-630 Small Group Ministries: An elective course that engages students in a small group experience as a means to foster personal spiritual formation and to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to lead others in small group ministry.
- Ministerial Formation Enhancement in Spiritual Formation: Associated with the Pirsig Fellowship, this enhancement utilizes teaching and small group experiences to facilitate personal spiritual formation for future ministry leaders.
- GRTS Chapel: A weekly gathering of the GRTS community to worship and praise God and to fellowship with one another.
- Ministry Residency: A core requirement (four semesters) for all Master of Divinity and M.A. in Christian formation students in which progress in personal spiritual formation is assessed and further cultivated.
- Mid-Point and Exit Assessments: Personal spiritual formation is an important consideration in determining whether a student is making "sufficient progress" in "vocational readiness," which occurs at the mid-point and end of the program.

LEADERSHIP FORMATION

The faculty of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is also committed to a curriculum that places emphasis upon leadership formation. We embrace a biblically based, servant-leader model of leadership. Pastors and others engaged in vocational ministry must be, first and foremost, humble servants. At the same time, they are called upon to render a stewardship of biblical and theological truth, of people and of church or parachurch organizations. Such a calling requires specialized competencies in theological leadership and organizational leadership.

The curriculum of GRTS provides opportunity for the development of these necessary competencies through an extensive series of courses in biblical exegesis and systematic theology and through the ministry leadership core of the Master of Divinity. Students are further encouraged to develop these needed competencies while in seminary through required ministry involvement and through various required ministry residencies, practicums and internships.

CULTURAL EXEGESIS AND MULTICULTURAL COMPETENCY

Individuals, families, communities and organizations possess complex and varied narratives that are deeply embedded. Effectiveness in ministry requires the skills of cultural exegesis and multicultural sensitivity, which means that ministry leaders must be able to make meaning of the narratives of individuals and communities and to do so with knowledge, respect and honor. The curriculum at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary attends to these important areas. For the Master of Divinity and Master of Arts in Christian formation degree programs, students complete a number of case study assignments across the curriculum using the GRTS Ministerial Model. This model aids the ministry leader in making meaning of complex problems from a number of perspectives, including the perspective of culture and context. In addition, students complete assessments and process the results for self-awareness and vocational fit (MIN-500 Christian Spiritual Formation) and cultural intelligence (MIN-560 Global Impact) as a means to facilitate growth in these vital areas. For the Master of Arts in clinical mental health counseling degree program, competency in multicultural counseling is facilitated across the entirety of the core curriculum but most prominently in COU-525 Multicultural Counseling. In addition, the Intercultural Studies Lecture Series offers an opportunity for all GRTS students to engage with Christian leaders and scholars from diverse backgrounds.

CONTEXTUAL LEARNING

A common element of the various GRTS degree programs is the high value placed on fostering student growth and development within authentic vocational contexts: contextual learning. A large majority of students enrolled at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are engaged in, or aspire to be engaged in, local church ministry, parachurch ministry or one of the many vocational expressions of the counseling profession. Therefore, it is vital that our students develop the applied skills necessary for effective vocational service in these contexts. For the Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian formation and Master of Arts in Christian studies degree programs, Ministry Residency (8 credits over four semesters) provides applied learning within a ministry context under the mentorship and supervision of a qualified and experienced local church or parachurch ministry leader. For the Master of Arts in clinical mental health counseling degree program, students are mentored by a licensed professional counselor, develop primary counseling skills and form professional identity within a professional counseling setting via the practicum (3 credits) and two internships (6 credits).

EXEGETICAL/BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

The Bible Division of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to the fundamental importance of Scripture in ministry. Pastors, missionaries, educators and other Christian workers must be able to interpret and apply Scripture for effective ministry in the modern world.

The Old Testament and New Testament departments offer courses in the background, languages, books and themes of the Bible. The objective of these courses is to develop a methodology for lifelong biblical study. Seminary studies are an introduction to the disciplines that are necessary for exegetically accurate and culturally relevant Bible exposition. Therefore, the exegetical/biblical theology courses provide the formative tools and skills students will need for ministry. The student must sharpen these tools and skills through continued study and ministry beyond seminary.

OLD TESTAMENT

The Old Testament department seeks to equip students with foundational knowledge and skill in interpreting and applying the Hebrew Scriptures. Depending upon the specific program of studies, courses focus upon learning biblical Hebrew, the primary language of the Old Testament; developing skills in exegeting biblical texts; understanding the historical and cultural worldview of the Old Testament; and tracing the historical development of key concepts of Old Testament biblical theology. Specific studies are offered in the various parts of the Old Testament in the context of God's completed revelation.

NEW TESTAMENT

New Testament studies seek the fundamental skill of enabling the student to make reasoned judgments about the meaning of the New Testament text. Such skill includes the knowledge of biblical languages, the historical background of the text, the principles for interpreting the text and the skills to apply these tools. The key theological ideas of the New Testament are traced through their historical development in the text.

HISTORICAL/SYSTEMATIC/ PHILOSOPHICAL/MORAL THEOLOGY

Building on the foundation of exegesis and biblical theology on the one hand and the context of the proclamation of the Gospel to the whole world on the other, the courses in this department aim at integration and wholeness. This division serves the other divisions by reminding them of the total context of the Bible as developed by God's people in the history of the church and in contemporary cultures. This task is accomplished in historical, systematic, moral and philosophical theology.

HISTORICAL THEOLOGY

This department emphasizes the history of Christian thought rather than institutional history. The focus is upon the church struggling with the meaning of Scripture and defending itself against attack by means of an increasingly full and accurate statement of theological truth as it proclaims the Gospel in worship, prayer and witness. These courses address post-canonical Christian thought. The leading thinkers, documents, ideas and movements are examined in their historical context. Students gain an understanding of their Christian heritage and evaluate examples of theology in historical and cultural contexts.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Building upon exegetical theology, biblical theology and historical theology, systematic theology aims at a logical synthesis of the major themes of the Bible in the context and language of contemporary cultures.

The systematic theology sequence confronts the student with theological methodology and the content and interrelationships of the individual doctrines. It is fundamental to the rest of the theological curriculum. Ideally, students who have not previously taken formal biblical courses should take BBL-501 Biblical Hermeneutics and BBL-508 Biblical Theology before taking the systematic theology sequence. Students who have completed upper-level systematic theology in college may, with the approval of the departmental chair, be permitted to move directly into the theology seminars.

MORAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL THEOLOGY

Moral theology is a logical and coherent synthesis of the imperative statements of the Bible on the foundation of systematic theology. These courses aim to present a biblical alternative to legalism, antinomianism and natural theology.

Philosophy has a significant contribution to make to the Christian thinker. It tests and challenges confused and inconsistent theological thought, and it forces theology toward precision and consistency. It provides language to express theology. It drives theology toward the wholeness of a Christian worldview.

Any former student who has not been enrolled for one semester or more must apply for readmission. Official academic transcripts of all studies that have been completed in the interval must be submitted. Updated reference forms may also be required. Any student who has not been enrolled for more than three academic semesters will be required to submit a full application with all necessary supporting documents.

Non-degree students who possess an accredited undergraduate degree may take courses for graduate credit, while those without a baccalaureate degree will be limited to enrollment by audit.

- Audit non-degree students must only submit an application for admission.
- Credit-seeking non-degree students are required to complete a non-degree application, submit official academic transcripts from all previous undergraduate and graduate schools and sign a general statement of Christian faith.

GUEST STUDENTS

GRTS welcomes guest students from other institutions for limited enrollment. A non-degree/guest application with authorization from the home institution is required for admission. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that the home institution will accept the transfer credits. Upon the completion of a given course, an academic transcript can be requested from the Registrar's Office for the transfer of credits to the home institution.

ADMISSION STATUSFULL ADMISSION

An applicant is given full admission to Grand Rapids Theological Seminary when the criteria for application and admission have been fulfilled. Applicants are notified concerning full admission on a rolling basis throughout the year.

In some cases, students can be admitted pending receipt of official documentation to complete their application file. The student's admission status is complete when all documentation arrives at the GRTS Admissions Office and meets all admission and degree program standards. The university reserves the right to reverse an admission decision if the documentation is inconsistent or the admission and degree program standards are not fully met.

CONDITIONAL ADMISSION

A limited number of students whose cumulative undergraduate GPA does not meet the minimum degree program admission standard (2.5/4.0) may be granted conditional acceptance upon the recommendation of the GRTS Admissions Committee. In such cases, the conditions of the conditional acceptance and terms for the removal of this status will be provided to the student in writing during the admission process and monitored by the Academic Office. Those students admitted on a conditional admission basis must achieve a minimum 2.5 GPA. See the section Academic Probation, Suspension and Dismissal in the Academic Policies section of the catalog for more information.

REGISTRATION

Prior to each semester, there is a registration period during which it is each student's responsibility to select courses and to ensure that they are making satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of their degree. Each student is assigned a faculty adviser and is encouraged to set up meetings as needed throughout their enrollment.

For new students, the GRTS admissions team assists students in selecting courses and processing registration for their first semester.

For continuing students, online course registration occurs each semester on the published dates (see Academic Calendar). The GRTS admissions team will register students enrolled in online/cohort-based programs each semester.

Once registered, each student will receive a tuition bill. Each student should then settle his or her financial obligations by doing one of the following: paying in full at the Cornerstone University Accounting and Finance Office, partially paying according to the payment plan or coordinating financial arrangements with Cornerstone University Student Financial Services. Students will be permitted to attend classes when course registration and financial arrangements have been finalized.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

At the beginning of each fall and spring semester, the Admissions Office hosts New Student Orientation for all first-time students. This orientation provides students the opportunity to meet staff, faculty and students and to gain information about campus technology resources, student identification cards and more. Each student will also be able to meet with his or her faculty adviser individually. Every student should attend orientation in order to make the start of his or her seminary experience as smooth as possible. Please contact the Admissions Office for details. The Admissions Office will work with students beginning in the summer sessions to prepare for classes. Students beginning in the summer sessions should plan on attending the fall New Student Orientation. Students beginning in J-term should plan on attending the spring New Student Orientation. There will also be an orientation process tailored to students starting in online classes or for situations in which physical orientation days cannot take place.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

STATEMENT OF FAITH AND LIFESTYLE

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary seeks applicants who demonstrate commitment to Christ and who affirm the foundational doctrines in the GRTS Confession for Students.

WE BELIEVE the Bible is God's inspired word, our infallible and final authority for faith and life.

WE BELIEVE in the triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—who is holy, loving, good, wise and almighty. He created all things by His word out of nothing, and He provides for and rules over all things.

WE BELIEVE God created men and women in His image, and that the union of Adam and Eve as man and woman models God's design for marriage and perpetually stands as God's loving and righteous will for all sexual intimacy.

Tragically, our first parents forfeited their original righteousness when they rebelled against God's revealed will. As a result, every human is born in sin, totally depraved, alienated from God and destined to death.

WE BELIEVE in the Lord Jesus Christ, who added full humanity to His perfect deity, obeyed God perfectly, died for our sins on the cross, rose again to defeat Satan and returned to heaven to intercede for His people and pour out the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

WE BELIEVE the triune God has provided a great salvation for those who repent of their sins and trust Christ and His finished work. He calls, regenerates, unites to Christ, adopts, forgives, justifies, sanctifies and will ultimately glorify those who believe in Him.

WE BELIEVE in the Holy Spirit who has come to build Christ's church, gift us for ministry and perfect our great salvation.

WE BELIEVE in the personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ, the bodily resurrection and final judgment of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

Students, by virtue of their enrollment, agree to live within the framework of the school's standards of conduct. While some may not have personal convictions concerning all of these standards, agreeing to them obligates the student to assume responsibility for honorable adherence to them while enrolled at the seminary. It should, of course, be understood that any behavior, either on campus or away, which indicates that a student has disregard for the spirit of the school's standards would be sufficient reason to ask him/her to withdraw from the school.

Students of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, agree to:

1. Honor biblical teaching in order to maintain a right relationship with God, people and creation. Exhibit integrity in academic pursuits, professional work, personal finances and relationships.
2. Practice discernment in the areas of media and entertainment. Avoid behaviors clearly prohibited in Scripture, including but not limited to drunkenness, immoral sexual behavior, lying and stealing.
3. Support Cornerstone University's commitment to maintain an alcohol-free and tobacco-free campus. This means that the consumption of alcohol or use of tobacco will be prohibited in, on and around all campus properties and at university events. Due to the public and personal health hazards posed by tobacco, students shall avoid the habitual use of tobacco.
4. Actively participate in a church that aligns with the GRTS Statement of Faith.

FINANCIAL AID

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary provides financial aid to students who can benefit from further education but cannot do so without assistance. GRTS also seeks to recognize students with exceptional abilities in the areas of academics, leadership and ministry enactment. It is important to keep in mind that the primary responsibility for financing a graduate theological education rests with the student. The Cornerstone University Student Financial Services Office, along with the GRTS Admissions Office, is committed to assisting students in receiving the maximum amount of financial assistance for which they qualify under federal and institutional programs.

Students enrolled in programs other than the MAML, MABS or MACMHC online cohort and enrolled in five or more credit hours per fall or spring semester are eligible to apply for institutional grants, scholarships and loans. Students seeking consideration for grants, scholarships and loans must file the Seminary Scholarship Application and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on an annual basis. Cornerstone University's code is 002266. Priority consideration for awards is granted on an annual basis to those who apply by March 31 for the fall semester and Nov. 15 for the spring semester. FAFSA applications can be submitted online at fafsa.ed.gov.

It is important that all requested information for institutional and federal aid is submitted in a complete and timely manner. Failure to do so will create delays. Once all requested information is received, the Student Financial Services staff will conduct an evaluation of the file and determine the student's eligibility for gift aid and federal loan eligibility. Notification is sent to students informing them of their awards.

Conditions for the receipt of an institutional endowed or restricted scholarship include attendance at Gratitude Day and the writing of thank-you notes to the donor or donor representatives. Further details will be provided to scholarship recipients.

ENROLLMENT STATUS

A student's enrollment status is used for determining federal eligibility and for reporting enrollment information for loan deferment eligibility, insurance eligibility, etc.

Institutional financial aid is calculated based on a financial aid enrollment level rather than the official full-time/part-time enrollment status. Contact Student Financial Services for more information regarding these levels.

Enrollment status for state and federal aid eligibility is as follows:

FEDERAL TITLE IV AID

If a student withdraws before completing 60% of the semester or period of enrollment, the institution must determine the percentage of Title IV assistance the student has earned. The percent earned is determined by dividing the total number of calendar days in the semester into the number of calendar days completed as of the withdrawal date. Any unearned amount must be returned to the Title IV program(s). Contact the Student Financial Services Office for a copy of the full policy.

INSTITUTIONAL AID

Institutional financial aid is reduced by the percent of the tuition and fees originally covered by the institutional aid. The student may retain an amount equal to the percent of the actual tuition and fees charged based on the withdrawal date. The remaining amount must be returned to the institutional programs.

Eligibility for the Federal Direct Loan is determined through the submission of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This federally insured loan program is available to all qualified degree-seeking students enrolled at least half-time at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. Students may be awarded an unsubsidized loan, which accrues interest while in school, beginning with the date of disbursement. Repayment of both principal and interest begins six months after the student ceases at least half-time enrollment or graduates. Loan promissory notes can be completed online at studentloans.gov. Students must meet all eligibility requirements at the time the loan is disbursed. There are annual and lifetime limits on the amount that can be borrowed.
- Eligible Courses
A student is not eligible to receive federal financial aid for any courses that are not required for the degree program in which the student is not enrolled.
- Statement of Educational Purpose
To receive federal financial aid, a student must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student. The student must sign a statement indicating that all federal financial aid will be used for expenses related to study at Cornerstone University.
- Statement of Refund and Default
To receive federal financial aid, a student must not owe a refund or an overpayment of any federal grant or loan. A student must not be in default on any federal student loan or must have made satisfactory arrangements to repay any such defaulted loan and also have not borrowed in excess of the loan limits under federal student loan programs at all institutions previously attended.
- Selective Service Registration
Male students who are United States citizens or permanent resident aliens born after Dec. 31, 1959, are required to comply with Selective Service registration regulations prior to receiving federal financial aid.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

To remain eligible for financial aid, a student must have maintained Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in accordance with the following guidelines:

QUALITATIVE REQUIREMENTS

The student must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA requirement. Cumulative GPAs are monitored at the end of each semester.

Master of Theology	3.0 GPA
All other programs	2.5 GPA

QUANTITATIVE REQUIREMENTS

A student must complete his/her program within a period not greater than 150% of the normal program length (measured in credit hours). A student who receives financial aid is required to maintain the following pace to ensure progression toward the 150% completion requirement.

Cumulative Hours Attempted	Minimum % Completed
1-24	65%
25-48	70%
49+	75%

SAP and all related criteria are evaluated at the end of each academic term.

All regularly accepted and continuing students who do not meet either/or both of the above requirements will be placed on financial aid warning. After a semester on financial aid warning, students still not meeting the criteria will have their financial aid suspended.

If a student suffers unusual circumstances and would like to appeal the financial aid suspension, he/she must submit to the academic dean a written explanation regarding noncompliance with these criteria. The academic dean will then determine the academic status of the student.

If it is determined that the student is making SAP, the student will be placed on financial aid probation. The Student Financial Services Office will then consider eligibility for financial aid based upon the availability of funds and financial need.

REPEATED COURSES

Federal rules allow a student to receive federal aid for a course more than once as long as it is not a result of more than one repetition of a previously passed course or any repetition of a previously passed course due to the student failing other course work. A repeated course will be counted toward the 150% maximum time frame.

Please contact the Student Financial Services Office for a complete copy of the SAP policy.

GENERAL INFORMATION

VERIFICATION PROCESS

Verification is a process whereby the validity of the data reported on the FAFSA is confirmed through the submission and review of specific documents. If the student is selected for verification, aid will not be awarded until the process is completed.

FEDERAL STUDENT LOAN DEFERMENT

Deferment of Federal Student Loans is available to most students enrolled for degree-seeking graduate study.

Approval of a Federal Student Loan deferment will necessitate student enrollment of at least five credits per semester (classified as at least half-time). The Federal Student Loan Deferment Form should be processed through the Cornerstone University Registrar's Office. The loan deferment form cannot be certified by the Registrar's Office until after the student has begun classes.

VETERANS' BENEFITS

Cornerstone University cooperates with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs in processing benefits for the training of honorably discharged and active service members. Veterans who wish to use the benefits should obtain the necessary forms and instructions from the nearest office of the Veterans Affairs or the Cornerstone University Student Financial Services Office. In order for a student to be eligible for financial aid for VA benefits, he/she must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student.

Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for financial aid or VA benefits. A student who applies for a degree program and is accepted to the PGS division will be considered as degree-seeking.

Verification of enrollment for VA benefits is processed when the student has submitted the Application of Education Benefits form or the Request for Change of Program or Place of Training form to the Student Financial Services Office. Cohort dates must be determined prior to processing. Initial certification will be processed upon attendance confirmation. It should be understood by veterans that under some benefits, such as chapters 30, 35, 1606 and 1607, the student will be reimbursed directly by the Department of Veterans Affairs. Veterans should plan to pay their bills in accordance with the payment schedule provided by the Student Financial Services Office.

We, Cornerstone University, will permit any covered veteran (a student who is entitled to educational assistance under chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or chapter 33, Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits) to attend or participate in the course of education during the period beginning on the date of which the individual provides to us a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to education assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (a "certificate of eligibility" can also include a "statement of benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) website-eBenefits or VAF 28-1905 form for Chapter 31 authorization purposes) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

1. The date on which payment from VA is made to the institution.
2. 90 days after the date the institution certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility.

We will not impose to a covered veteran any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries or other institutional facilities. We will not require that a covered individual borrow additional funds because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

If the Department of Veterans Affairs is paying the school directly, the Student Financial Services Office must have all required paperwork. If the Department of Veterans Affairs is reimbursing the student, bills should be paid in accordance with the university payment schedule.

The GPA of veterans will be monitored at the end of each payment period. Veterans who are placed on academic probation and fail to change this status within one additional semester will be reported to the Department of Veterans Affairs. This action may result in the termination of benefits by the Department of Veterans Affairs. If benefits are terminated, a veteran may reapply to the university for re-certification of veteran's benefits after the probationary status has been removed. Certification of each class will be recorded in the Department of Veterans Affairs system as the veteran progresses through the program.

Eligibility for VA benefits is determined solely by the Department of Veterans Affairs. Cornerstone University is responsible only to verify student's enrollment.

For more information, refer to cornerstone.edu/veterans-benefits.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Cornerstone University and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are committed to a high standard of academic honesty and integrity among its students. Academic integrity is absolutely necessary in the search for and advancement of truth. Dishonesty in any form (i.e., cheating on examinations or quizzes; plagiarism on papers, reports or thesis; and all other forms of compromise in academic integrity) is not acceptable. Plagiarism includes using another person's words or ideas and passing them off as your own. Self-plagiarism, "double dipping" and duplicate publication (using your own work in duplicate contexts without citation of the previous use) is also prohibited. Penalties for academic dishonesty will be administered according to the following:

FIRST OFFENSE:

The penalty for first offense academic integrity violation includes failure in the course assignment or failure in the course, enrollment limitation and academic probation for one academic year. Penalties are imposed by the individual faculty member and the academic dean. Continuing enrollment following such violation requires a letter acknowledging that one understands what constitutes an academic integrity violation, taking full responsibility for the present offense and pledging to avoid such conduct in the future. A meeting with the course professor and academic dean is also required.

SECOND OFFENSE:

The penalty for second offense academic integrity violation includes failure in the course and suspension from program and enrollment at the seminary for one academic year. Penalties for second offense violations are imposed by the individual faculty member and academic dean. Readmission following a second offense violation requires a letter acknowledging that one understands what constitutes an academic integrity violation, taking full responsibility for the present offense and pledging to avoid such conduct in the future. Readmission will also require a meeting with the GRTS Admissions Committee, and the meeting of all conditions stipulated in the letter of suspension. No course work, internships or field education completed at other institutions during the period of suspension may be transferred to GRTS for credit or used to fulfill GRTS degree program requirements.

THIRD OFFENSE:

The penalty for third offense academic integrity violation includes failure in the course and permanent suspension from program. Penalties for third offense violations are imposed by the individual faculty member and academic dean.

Students seeking to appeal academic integrity disciplinary decisions should consult and employ the policies and processes outlined in the GRTS Academic Catalog under the heading Student Appeal Process.

ACADEMIC PROBATION, SUSPENSION AND DISMISSAL

Any student who does not achieve the minimum required cumulative GPA of 2.5 after attempting nine credits will be placed on academic probation. Students placed on academic probation will be notified in writing immediately following the determination, usually at the close of an academic semester. Students on academic probation will not be allowed to enroll in more than six credits per semester and may be required to take remedial courses or work with an assigned academic tutor. Probation is not designed to punish students but serves as an indication to students that they are not progressing at a satisfactory rate toward graduation.

Students who, after one semester of academic probation, fail to achieve the minimum required cumulative GPA of 2.5 will be academically suspended. Students placed on suspension will be notified of such action in writing immediately following the determination. Academic suspension means that the student will not be permitted to enroll in courses on a credit or audit basis throughout the duration of the suspension. Students on suspension may be considered for readmission after one semester. Readmission of suspended students will require the approval of the GRTS Admissions Committee. In addition, any student suspended for a second time will be dismissed from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary with no option for future enrollment. Student appeals concerning academic probation, suspension and dismissal should be put in writing to the attention of the GRTS Academic Appeals Committee within five days of the date of notification of probation, suspension or dismissal. The judgment will be rendered within 10 business days of receipt of the appeal. The response to the appeal will be in writing, and all judgments of the GRTS Academic Appeals Committee are final.

ACADEMIC TRANSCRIPTS

The academic records of Cornerstone University students and alumni, including the students and alumni of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary, are maintained at the CU Registrar's Office. Requests for official transcripts should be directed through the National Student Clearinghouse. Instructions are located on the Registrar's page of the CU website. Enter "transcript" in the search box on the main website. Requests can also be made in person using cash or personal checks directly through the Registrar's Office.

ACADEMIC TUTORING

Academic tutoring is available on a limited basis to students in need of academic assistance. Students struggling with the academic demands of the courses at GRTS should first communicate with their professors and academic adviser. Professors can then make a referral to the associate dean for the student to receive tutoring. The student will receive a letter from the associate dean advising them to contact the appropriate tutor to schedule sessions. Students on probationary status due to academic performance will be assigned an academic tutor and encouraged to take full advantage of this valuable resource. Tutors are upper-level GRTS students who have excelled in course work, possess the appropriate disciplinary expertise and demonstrate the relational gifts essential to the task of tutoring.

ADVANCED STANDING

Advanced standing credit is available to new students for certain undergraduate courses completed at regionally accredited institutions, institutions accredited by the Association of Biblical Higher Education and other institutions approved by Cornerstone University. In keeping with the professional accrediting standards of The Association of Theological Schools, GRTS limits the use of advanced standing credits to a maximum of 1/3 of the graduate degree program.

Consideration for advanced standing credit is limited to 300/400 level undergraduate courses in which a grade of B (3.0) or better was achieved in an equivalent course. Evaluative judgment for advanced standing is made on the basis of examination in the content area or by assessment of a relevant sample of student work. New students have one calendar year from their original matriculation date at GRTS to apply for advanced standing credit. Credits granted by advanced standing will appear on the student's academic transcript and contribute to program completion but will not be included in the student's cumulative GPA calculation.

At GRTS, advanced standing is assessed and administered by two means. First, the granting of advanced standing credit is determined by way of examination. The GRTS faculty has identified a select grouping of courses for which advanced standing by examination is permitted. Advanced standing exams will be offered at the beginning of each semester. Faculty member approval is required to sit for an advanced standing exam. New students are encouraged to work with an admissions representative to coordinate this process. A non-refundable $50.00 fee, payable to GRTS prior to taking the advanced standing exam, is charged for each exam administered. All advanced standing exams will be graded on a pass/fail basis. Students are limited to one attempt on any given exam.

Second, the granting of advanced standing credit is also determined by assessment of sample student work from the relevant undergraduate course. In these cases, students are responsible to provide the GRTS professor with a copy of the undergraduate course syllabus and all course-related assignments, submitting an electronic copy of documents wherever these are available. In turn, the professor will review the sample student work to assess student knowledge and competency in the given content area based on parity in content and methods with the seminary course for which advanced standing is sought. Students are encouraged to work with an admissions representative to coordinate this process. A non-refundable $50.00 fee, payable to GRTS prior to the completion of the advanced standing assessment, is charged for each assessment administered. All advanced standing assessments will be graded on a pass/fail basis.

The M.A. in clinical mental health counseling program only permits advanced standing credits for general electives. Advanced standing cannot be used to fulfill counseling core or elective course requirements (COU courses). Students can use advanced standing for the three-credit general elective required within the Interdisciplinary concentration.

ATTENDANCE

On-Site and Live students are expected to attend/ participate in all class sessions scheduled for the particular course. Arriving late to class (i.e., within 15 minutes of published class start time) on three occasions will equal one absence. Arriving to class 15 minutes (or more) after the published class start time will be regarded as an absence. A maximum of one absence will be allowed without grade implications for work conflicts, sickness, general scheduling conflicts and all other reasons. For Anytime students, attendance is defined as logging into the course on a weekly basis and staying current with the requirements of the course.

Exceeding the allowable absences noted above carries grading implications according to the following:

- 1 Absence: No grade reduction for course.
- 2 Absences: One letter grade reduction for course.
- 3 Absences: Two letter grade reduction for course.
- 4 Absences: F course letter grade.

Students should communicate with the course professor in advance concerning anticipated scheduling conflicts. In certain instances, and with advanced approval of the course professor, students may be able to pivot from their chosen primary modality to an alternative modality to avoid missing a class session and incurring an absence. Such temporary adjustments to one's chosen primary modality must be coordinated in advance and approved by the course professor.

When the attendance policy embedded within a given course syllabus differs from this institutional attendance policy, the policy listed in the given syllabus is authoritative.

AUDIT POLICY

Course audits are available for those seeking to obtain course content without course credit toward a degree. Course audits are permitted under certain conditions and with specific expectations. Certain courses may require professor approval prior to enrollment. The extent of participation in the given course by an auditing student should be arranged in advance with the course professor. In the event that a course reaches capacity, an auditing student may be removed from the course to accommodate a credit-seeking student. GRTS reserves the right to limit audit students' course participation or remove an audit student from a course. The cost to audit a 3-credit course is $99 ($33 per credit hour). A course may be changed from audit to credit or credit to audit during the drop/add period only (first week of semester). Courses taken for audit cannot be taken for credit at a later date. Those seeking to audit a course should submit a non-degree seeking application through the GRTS Admissions Office.

CALENDAR

The academic year corresponds with the following schedule:

- Fall Semester: Begins in late August and ends in mid-December.
- J-Term: Occurs early to mid-January.
- Spring Semester: Begins the third week of January and ends late April or early May.
- Summer Semester: May, June, July and August.

See the Academic Calendar in the GRTS Academic Catalog for the complete academic schedule.

CHANGE OF DEGREE PROGRAM

Students seeking to change degree programs (e.g., M.Div. to the M.A. or vice versa) or concentration must secure prior approval from their academic adviser and the academic dean. The change of degree form is available at the GRTS office.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Students are officially classified in accordance with the semester hours of credit they have earned as follows:

M.A.

Juniors: 1-32 semester hours

Seniors: 33 or more semester hours

M.DIV.

Juniors: 1-32 semester hours

Middlers: 33-62 semester hours

Seniors: 63 or more semester hours

COURSE SCHEDULING

All GRTS students are responsible for the development of their own course schedules and should monitor the progressive fulfillment of program requirements. Faculty advisers are available to assist in answering questions and providing informed insight into the various scheduling options. Appointments with faculty advisers can be scheduled by emailing the adviser directly. Course schedules for summer and fall semesters will be available in February, since registration for these enrollment periods occurs in early March. Course schedules for spring semester will be available in September, since registration for this enrollment period occurs in late October. Course planners are available at the GRTS Admissions Office to aid students in program planning. GRTS course schedules are distributed to GRTS students in advance of registration and are available on the university website (see Seminary Resources).

COURSE WAIVER

In order to preclude repetition of previously mastered material, students may apply to waive such a course and replace it with another course. Approval for course waiver is granted by the professor who teaches the duplicate course and by the academic dean.

Waivers are processed electronically by faculty as Academic Policy Exceptions (APEs).

DROP/ADD

Courses may be dropped or added without penalty during the first week of classes. After the first week of classes, courses cannot be added and refunds for courses dropped will be calculated using the chart listed under Withdrawal Refunds. In regard to course drops, courses will be treated as follows on the student's official record:

15-WEEK COURSES:

Before end of Drop/Add (1st five business days)	No record on transcript.
Before end of 9th week	W: No effect on GPA.
After end of 9th week	W/P or W/E

FINAL EXAMS

The Cornerstone University registrar develops, publishes and distributes semester exam schedules several months in advance of the exam dates.

Students are obligated to attend the exam sessions as published. No exceptions will be made to the published dates, times and locations. This is a university-wide policy that is strictly enforced.

GRADES AND HONOR POINTS

The student's scholastic standing is indicated by grades and honor points. The student earns honor points in accordance with his/her grades as follows:

GRADE INTERPRETATION

A	4.0	C	2.0	AU	Audit
A-	3.7	C-	1.7	CR	Credit
B+	3.3	D+	1.3	NC	No Credit
B	3.0	D	1.0	I	Incomplete
B-	2.7	D-	0.7	W	Withdrew
C+	2.3	F	0.0	W/P	Withdrew Passing
				W/E	Withdrew Failing

GRADUATION

All senior-level students are required to file an application for graduation by Nov. 1 (for December, May and August graduations). Eligibility for graduation necessitates the completion of all degree specific requirements as outlined in the GRTS Academic Catalog. In fulfillment of degree program requirements, graduates are expected to participate in the commencement exercises, which occur each year during early May. Approval to participate in commencement prior to the completion of all degree requirements is rare and requires the approval of the academic dean based on a written request. Such approvals will be based on substantive rationale for early participation, limited to six credits or less of outstanding work and necessitates a verified plan to complete all of the outstanding course work within the next enrollment period. Appeals to waive participation in the commencement exercise must be submitted to the academic dean by March 1. Three official graduation dates occur each year: December, May and August.

HEBREW AND GREEK COMPETENCY EXAMS

For entering students who have completed a minimum of one year of Greek and/or Hebrew language studies at the undergraduate level and desire to proceed into BBL-672 or BBL-640, they must demonstrate language competency through the satisfactory completion of the Greek and/or Hebrew competency exam.

Students who successfully complete the particular competency exam will be given permission to proceed into BBL-672 and/or BBL-640 and granted advanced standing credit. Cornerstone University graduates who successfully complete the entire undergraduate Greek and/or Hebrew language sequence (B or better in each course), and immediately proceed into GRTS, are exempt from the competency exam requirement but must complete and submit the advanced standing application.

The Greek and/or Hebrew competency exam is also required for entering GRTS students seeking transfer credits and authorization to proceed into the first course of the Old Testament and/or New Testament sequence (i.e., BBL-672 and/or BBL-640) in any of the following instances: when the source of the transfer credits is a non-ATS school, the graduate courses are not comparable to BBL-510/BBL-511 and/or BBL- 516/BBL-517, the grades achieved are below the required B grade or the graduate language courses were not completed within the previous two years. In such cases, the student is required to complete the appropriate GRTS competency exam before the transfer credits will be processed and authorization granted to proceed into the first course of the sequence.

Unsatisfactory completion of the GRTS competency exam requires completion of BBL-510/BBL-511 and/or BBL-516/BBL-517 at GRTS and results in the denial of the Greek and/or Hebrew language advanced standing or transfer credit. Greek and Hebrew competency exams are administered during New Student Orientation in the fall and spring. Those students interested and required to sit for one of these exams must complete and submit the Greek and Hebrew competency exam/ advanced standing application, which can be secured through the GRTS Admissions Office.

HEBREW AND GREEK LANGUAGE COMPETENCY

Students enrolled in Greek language studies with the intent of proceeding into the subsequent exegetical sequence (i.e., BBL-672, BBL-677 and BBL-678) must achieve a grade of C or better in BBL-511 Greek II in order to advance into BBL-672 New Testament Studies I. Similarly, students enrolled in Hebrew language studies with the intent of proceeding into the subsequent exegetical sequence (i.e., BBL-640, BBL-641 and BBL-642) must achieve a grade of C or better in BBL-517 Hebrew II in order to advance into BBL-640 Old Testament Studies I. The Bible faculty reserve the right to make exceptions to this policy via the academic policy exception process based upon student competency demonstrated through the administration of the respective Greek or Hebrew competency exam.

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE

As a commitment to honor God's image in all people, GRTS is committed to being a community that uses inclusive language with reference to all people regardless of gender, nationality, culture, social class or religion. With these commitments in mind, the seminary's inclusive language policy is as follows:

Persons in the community are expected to use inclusive language with reference to human beings in the conduct of courses, fulfillment of course assignments and patterns of communication in all facets of the work of the seminary. This means avoiding language that is explicitly or implicitly racist or sexist and avoiding generic uses of masculine terms or pronouns.

A few examples are:

- + Use "humanity," "persons" or "people" instead of "man" or "mankind."
- + When giving examples, vary the race and sex of the persons under discussion and avoid stereotypical descriptions.
- + Avoid dogmatic generalizations about an entire culture, race, social class, denomination or religious group.

No complete list is possible or necessary in the seminary's inclusive language policy, but all faculty, staff and students agree to exercise care and attentiveness to this priority.

INCOMPLETES

A student is expected to complete all work within the semester. If an incomplete is deemed necessary, the professor and academic dean must grant permission. Students who are granted an incomplete are ineligible for Dean's List consideration for the semester in which they receive the incomplete. Grade changes from the fall semester must be turned into the Registrar's Office no later than March 15.

Grade changes from the spring semester must be turned in no later than Aug. 15 and from the summer semester no later than Nov. 15. Students should make every effort to have incomplete work completed in the shortest time possible following the close of the academic term in which the work is taken. Incompletes will be assigned an F grade after the above dates.

The time limit for a student to complete the required course work resulting in the change of an F to another grade is one calendar year from the receipt of the initial incomplete. Students carrying two or more incompletes into a subsequent semester will be limited to 6 credits of enrollment.

LEARNING DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary and Cornerstone University will make reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities, in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The purpose of accommodation is to provide equal access to educational opportunities to students affected by disabilities, and the university does not intend that the standards be altered, nor that the essential elements of programs or courses be changed.

Students having documented disabilities may apply for accommodations through Student Disability Services (SDS), which is part of the Cornerstone University Center for Student Success located in Miller Hall on the main campus. Disability accommodations for students from the traditional Cornerstone University undergraduate program, Professional & Graduate Studies programs and Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are addressed centrally in SDS. Accommodations are granted on the basis of determined need and appropriate documentation of disabilities. Students must complete an application and submit appropriate documentation, which will be reviewed by the accommodations officer and the Accommodations Review Committee.

Upon acceptance, the student will meet with the director of academic support to develop an Individualized Student Accommodation Plan (ISAP) based on the ARC recommendations. Students will be given a green verification letter to give to their professors and should schedule a meeting with each professor at the beginning of each semester to discuss their needs. In the event that students have questions regarding whether they are eligible for accommodations, how they might provide appropriate documentation of disabilities or how they might handle a disagreement with a professor over questions of accommodation, the director of academic support should be contacted immediately at 616.222.1596 or through email at student.success@cornerstone.edu. If a disagreement arises surrounding eligibility for services, or the manner in which a specific accommodation is being implemented, the student has a right to an informal and formal grievance procedure. A copy of grievance procedures is available at the Center for Student Success in Miller Hall, or online at cornerstone.edu/student-disability-services.

Please note: The process for determining eligibility for accommodations can take five to six weeks, so students should complete an application and submit appropriate documentation well in advance. To be deemed appropriate documentation, testing and assessment of disability must have been completed no more than three years prior to the application for accommodations at Cornerstone University.

MASTER'S THESIS

In preparation for doctoral studies, a select number of qualified students within the Master of Divinity (academic track only) or Master of Arts programs may wish to complete a master's thesis as the capstone of their educational experience at GRTS. Students interested in exploring this option should communicate and process this preference with their faculty adviser early in their degree program. The inclusion of a master's thesis in the degree program requires formal faculty adviser approval. Enrollment for a master's thesis consists of two main elements: Thesis Readings (BBL-584, THE-584, COU-584) and Thesis (BBL-792, THE-792, COU-792). Students are encouraged to enroll in Thesis Readings the semester prior to enrollment in Thesis. The required readings course is intended to provide the student an opportunity to expand their knowledge base in the specific area of study and to focus the thesis topic. Students are encouraged to work closely with their faculty adviser in identifying and developing an area of study for the thesis.

MID-POINT AND EXIT ASSESSMENTS

All degree seeking students must participate in the mid-point and exit assessment processes. The mid-point process is conducted near the middle of the academic program and the exit assessment is typically conducted in the final semester of a student's program.

The processes are initiated by the associate dean and engage the student along with the student's academic adviser, academic dean, associate dean and practicum/internship faculty adviser. The purpose is to review the student's academic performance, student learning portfolio and overall progress in vocational readiness. Specifically, the team considers the student's progress in disciplinary knowledge and skill (academic performance); faith commitment and personal maturity (Christian character); and progress made in attaining the student learning outcomes associated with the particular degree (learning, development and vocational readiness where applicable). At the conclusion of the review process, one of three judgments is rendered by the review team and presented to the student in written form. The range of judgments includes the following:

1. Affirm progress toward vocational readiness;
2. Affirm with reservations progress toward vocational readiness; or
3. Does not affirm progress toward vocational readiness.

The assessment team engages the student in developing and implementing a growth plan when the second or third judgments are reached in the mid-point process. Consult the GRTS Student Handbook for a more detailed description of the policies, process, judgments and implications of the judgments.

RETAKE POLICY

Students are permitted to retake a course in which an unsatisfactory grade was achieved during a previous period of enrollment. In such situations, registration for the course and payment of the related tuition and fees at the current tuition rates are required. The grade achieved by the retake course replaces the initial grade in relation to the GPA calculation, though the initial grade will remain on the permanent transcript record. Students may only receive federal financial aid when retaking a course if it is the first time they have retaken the course and if the original grade in the course does not meet the minimum grade requirement for a student's program.

SCHOLASTIC HONORS

Students who attain a GPA of 3.50 or more and carry a minimum of 9 semester hours are recognized each semester through a published Dean's list. Three graduation honors are recognized at commencement. Those graduating cum laude must achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.60, magna cum laude must achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.70 and summa cum laude must achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.85. To be eligible for graduation honors, the student must complete a minimum of 36 hours in the Master of Arts in clinical mental health counseling, 31 hours in the other Master of Arts degrees, 47 hours in the Master of Divinity degree or 24 hours in the Master of Theology degree at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary.

For purposes of awarding honor cords and recognition at commencement, the determination of those eligible for honors will be made on the basis of the cumulative GPA from the fall semester. The final transcript and diploma will record graduation honors on the basis of the entire academic record.

SECOND DEGREES

Students who have completed a first master's degree at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary or another accredited graduate school or seminary and are seeking another master's degree from Grand Rapids Theological Seminary are eligible to fulfill up to 2/3 of the credits required into second degree through the credits achieved in the first degree. Courses must be evaluated for content alignment on an individual basis, and faculty and administration approvals are required.

SEMESTERS AND HOURS

The academic year is divided into three semesters (fall, spring and summer) with each consisting of 15 instructional weeks. Enrollment levels and pace of degree completion vary by degree program and by student. A three semester hour course generally consists of 120 hours of student "time on task" which averages out to eight hours per week for a 15-week course. The "time on task" calculation is an estimate of the time the average student is required to invest in the course across the learning exercises (i.e., class sessions, group work, viewing recorded lectures, readings, assignments and homework, online posts, paper writing, exams, etc.). The student seeking the maximum financial aid and/or veteran's benefits must carry a minimum of 11 credit hours during fall and spring semesters.

STUDENT APPEAL PROCESS: ACADEMIC

On occasion, existing policy and/or faculty and administrative decisions can conflict with the academic interests of individuals. When such a situation occurs, the student should exhaust all options to resolve the academic conflict at the staff, administrative or faculty level. However, students wishing to appeal beyond the initial level are encouraged to write a letter of appeal.

The letter should identify and explain the nature of the conflict, request a review of the judgment and/or action and provide a rationale for the appeal. The letter of appeal should be sent to the academic dean of Grand Rapids Theological Seminary. For matters of probation, suspension and dismissal, students should see the above policy on academic probation, suspension and dismissal. For all other cases, the letter of appeal must be submitted to the academic dean.

Personal appointments with the academic dean on such matters may be scheduled only after a formal letter of appeal has been submitted. Upon receiving the appeal, the academic dean will engage in an investigation of the grievance and seek to foster an acceptable resolution. If an acceptable resolution to the conflict/grievance is not possible, the academic dean will coordinate a meeting of the faculty academic appeals committee. The committee will review the grievance and the facts of the case and render a judgment. The judgment will be rendered within 10 business days of receipt of the grievance, the response to the appeal will be in writing, and all judgments of the faculty academic appeals committee are final.

STUDENT ASSESSMENTS

In an effort to aid students in cognitive, affective and behavioral growth and development, a series of student assessments beyond traditional classroom grading are integrated as requirements within the various GRTS degree programs. A brief description of some of these assessments is outlined below:

- Entrance Assessment
A brief introductory meeting with the faculty adviser which allows an assessment about the alignment of the selected degree program with the student's aspirations, capabilities and vocational goals.
- MIN-500 Christian Spiritual Formation
The PRO-D assessment is integrated into this course for the purpose of developing self-awareness, emphasizing strengths and identifying ideal roles.
- Mid-Point Assessment
A formal analysis of the student's academic and non-academic development and an evaluation concerning progress in vocational readiness. This process involves the academic adviser, academic dean, associate dean, ministry mentor or practicum/internship site supervisor and the director of the Ministry Residency program or practicum/internship professor.
- Ministry Residency
Ministry mentors assess students each semester of enrollment in Ministry Residency (MIN-685, MIN-686, MIN-781 and MIN-782) in regard to the student's contributions, needs and developmental progress as they function within an authentic ministry setting.
- Counseling Practicum and Internship I & II
M.A. in clinical mental health counseling students participate in one practicum and two internship placements. Site supervisors for the practicum and internships, as well as GRTS faculty supervisors, evaluate the students in regard to their holistic preparation for clinical mental health counseling.

Areas of evaluation include but are not limited to (a) self-care strategies as a counselor; (b) multicultural counseling competencies; (c) interviewing, counseling and diagnostic skills in individual and group counseling sessions; (e) development of case conceptualization skills; (f) developmentally relevant counseling treatment and intervention plans; and (g) development of measurable outcomes for clients.
- MIN-711 Program Completion Seminar
A reflective essay is embedded as a requirement within this course, allowing the student to consider the extent and direction of growth and development while enrolled at GRTS.
- Exit Assessment
This is an opportunity for students nearing graduation to provide substantive feedback about their GRTS experience. The exit assessment is coordinated by the academic dean and associate dean and seeks feedback from the student, academic adviser, ministry mentor or practicum/internship site supervisor and the director of the Ministry Residency program or practicum/internship professor.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE: STANDARDS OF ACCREDITATION

As a member in good standing with The Association of Theological Schools (ATS), Grand Rapids Theological Seminary affirms the value of accrediting standards.

These standards foster attention to good practices within graduate theological education, providing a structure and guide for institutional integrity, accountability, self-assessment and improvement. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary is committed to honoring these standards in the process and product of its endeavors in theological education. If a student identifies a violation of the accrediting standards of The Association of Theological Schools, they are encouraged to bring this matter to the attention of the GRTS academic dean. If compliance with the accrediting standard is not achieved in a reasonable and credible manner, the student can bring this grievance to the attention of the accrediting agency. Specifically, the grievance should be made in writing and a copy should be sent to the academic dean. The grievance should be mailed to the following address: The Association of Theological Schools, 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15275-1110. ATS staffers can also be reached by calling 412.788.6505.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENT FOR ONLINE COURSES

Students enrolled in a fully online degree program (MACMHC, MAML or MABS) or online courses within traditional residential program will need regular access to a computer with the following:

- A modern computing processor of 2 GHz or faster.
- 4 GB RAM or higher.
- A high-speed internet connection with a connection speed of at least 3.5 MB/s.
- Speakers/headphones and microphone. (Note: Public access computers may not allow usage of speakers, headphone or microphones.)
- A web camera capable of videoconferencing. (Note: Public access computers may not allow usage of web cameras.)

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Applicants who are transferring from other accredited graduate schools or seminaries are required to have official academic transcripts sent directly to the director of graduate admissions from all schools previously attended. This is a condition for admission.

Transfer credit evaluations are conducted during the admission process, although formal transfer of credit is not posted to the student's academic record until after the admission process is complete. Students will be notified in writing concerning the results of a transfer credit evaluation. Transcripts from foreign institutions will be evaluated by an outside agency. The student will be responsible for following the procedure required by that agency.

Grand Rapids Theological Seminary will accept a maximum of 2/3 of the selected degree program requirements through transfer credit or through a combination of transfer credit and advanced standing. Transfer of credits will be limited to the following types of schools:

1. All regionally accredited institutions.
2. All Association of Theological Schools (ATS) institutions.
3. All Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE) institutions.
4. Non-accredited institutions, if those institutions supply to the director of admissions three letters of acceptance from regional, ATS or ABHE accredited institutions.
5. Those non-accredited institutions due to the nature of their relationship with Cornerstone University.

Students planning to take courses at other institutions for transfer into their degree program at Grand Rapids Theological Seminary should contact the assistant registrar for Grand Rapids Theological Seminary to verify the acceptance of these courses. Transfer credit will not be given for remedial or non-graduate level work or for any course in which a grade lower than a C was received. GPA does not transfer with the transfer credits.

Transfer credits for the M.A. in clinical mental health counseling program will only be accepted from CACREP accredited schools unless the transfer credits are being used toward the interdisciplinary concentration within the program. Non-CACREP transfer credits can transfer into the M.A. in clinical mental health counseling program as counseling elective (COU elective) credits to fulfill the two electives required within the interdisciplinary concentration. Grand Rapids Theological Seminary does not guarantee the state of Michigan, or any other authority, will recognize transfer courses from other institutions for purposes of state licensure in counseling.

WITHDRAWAL

A student who wishes to withdraw must complete a withdrawal form, available from the seminary office or by emailing seminary@cornerstone.edu. Failure to submit this form will result in the student receiving an F in the related course or courses.

TEXTBOOKS

Textbooks required for courses at GRTS are available for purchase through the Slingshot bookstore in partnership with GRTS. Textbooks can be rented, purchased used or purchased new depending on the student's preference. Students who rent textbooks have the option to purchase the book at the end of the semester. New students are automatically enrolled to receive their textbooks via the rental format and must opt-out from textbook rental or switch to the purchase option if they desire this instead of renting them each semester.

CAMPUS SAFETY

The primary mission of the Cornerstone University Department of Campus Safety is to proactively ensure the personal safety and welfare of our students, faculty and staff; protect the assets of our campus citizens and university; and provide a variety of services to the campus community.

The Department of Campus Safety is a 24/7/365 dispatch and patrol operation based in the front of Faber Hall. For general or emergency contact, dial 0 (zero) from any campus phone or 616.949.5300 from any other phone. Internal and external Code Blue emergency phones are located throughout the campus.

Services include vehicle battery boosts, vehicle lockouts, airing up low tires and tow truck contact assists. Campus Safety also provides routine foot and vehicle patrols of the campus, responds to calls and investigates incidents. Campus Safety personnel are First Aid/CPR/AED trained and equipped to respond to campus medical incidents in conjunction with the appropriate local 9-1-1 organizations.

All students are required to carry their student ID card when on campus and present it when requested by an officer. All student vehicles must be registered for each academic semester and have the appropriate vehicle parking permit properly displayed on the vehicle's windshield. Vehicles are registered at the Accounting and Finance Office located in the Welch Administration Building.

Detailed information regarding Campus Safety, campus rules and regulations and other pertinent safety information is available through the Cornerstone University website and My Cornerstone.
